

Mrs. Faxon Resumes Reading Series Jan. 23

Mrs. Lloyd A. Faxon Next Monday, January 23, at two thirty p.m., Mrs. Lloyd A. Faxon of Winnetka, will present the fourth in her series of readings at the Presbyterian church.

Due to the Christmas holidays there has not been a program since November, and the women are eagerly anticipating another delightful afternoon with this gifted and charming entertainer. There will be three more readings following this one, and friends are urged to take advantage of this course now, and it is suggested that groups of two or more purchase the course ticket, thus saving one single admission. Mrs. Faxon has read The Sheltered Life, Invitation to the Waltz, and Another Language, and for the next time has chosen something in a slightly different vein, and will discuss the most recent of books preceding her reading.

Trained Animals to Act at High School

A group of trained animals, known as Pamahasika's Pets, will stage "The Society Circus" in assembly at the Deerfield-Shields high school on Friday of this week. About 250 grammar school children of the city will also attend the assembly and witness the show.

The "actors" will include Australian cockatoos, rainbow colored Brazilian macaws, intelligent canaries, trained dogs, and "Oscar," the monkey.

Hold Card Party

The Pi Deltas are giving a public card party at the Y.W.C.A. Thursday, Jan. 26, at 8 o'clock. Bunco, 500 and bridge will be played. Table prizes will be awarded.
