"If I were
a young man today"

Says FRED W. SARGENT
President,
Chicago & North Western Railway Co.

"I would supplement my practical business experience if possible, with evening courses
in a modern university college of commerce."

Thousands of ambitious young men have supplemented their practical business experience, with thorough university training, obtained in evening hours at Northwestern University School of Commerce.

Investigate the possibilities open to you through these evening courses. The spring term opens on February 7. Register before February 4.
