

HIGHLAND PARK LOCAL and PERSONAL

Mr. Bernard Wizelman of the Blue Goose Fruit Shop has left with his wife on an extended trip to the coast where they will visit friends.

Mr. R. F. Walker of 243 Cary avenue is leaving today for a week's trip to New Orleans.

Mr. Wm. Campbell of Chicago will spend the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. Jim Bilhars of Sunnyside avenue.

Friends of Mr. Harold Marcus will be interested to know that he has been re-employed by the Blue Goose Fruit Shop.

Margen Zimmer was delightfully surprised Friday by a number of her friends who came to help her celebrate her fifteenth birthday anniversary.

The Philathea class of the First United Evangelical church met last Tuesday evening in the church basement.

Lieut. Chandler W. Johnson, son of Mrs. Jared Johnson, who has been serving with the U. S. Marine corps in Nicaragua for the past two years, is visiting at the home of his grandmother Mrs. Hannibal H. Chandler on Sheridan road.

Mr. and Mrs. Percy H. Prior, Mr. and Mrs. George B. Anderson, and Mr. and Mrs. Earl C. Iredale of Evanston, attended the National Warehousemen's convention at the Edgewater Beach hotel, Jan. 17-21.

Mr. R. Koebelin of Glencoe avenue has been ill for the past few weeks.

The regular meeting of Campbell chapter No. 712 O.E.S. will be held next Wednesday evening in Masonic temple. All members are urged to attend. Cards will be enjoyed after the meeting.

On Thursday, Jan. 19th, Mary Heed entertained several girls from the sixth and seventh grades of the Lincoln school at a ping-pong tournament at her home. After the first tryouts the winners, Dulcie Lightner, Dorothy Lytle, Dorothy Moldaner, Evelyn Benson, Mary Heed and Marian Musser played until Evelyn Benson finally won and was presented with a book. The losers Ruth Garrity, Marion Stevens, Sarah Jane Murfey, Suzanne Coale, Marjorie Weber and Georgianna Fleeger then played, Georgianna Fleeger, winning.

A mixed quartette will sing at the 4:30 vesper service at the Bethany church, Sunday afternoon.

Rev. F. L. Reetzkie of Norwood Park was a caller at the home of Rev. and Mrs. H. F. Siemson during the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. Sturtevant Hinman of Northbrook are the happy parents of a daughter, born Tuesday at the Highland Park hospital.

The Highland Park Music club met at the home of Mrs. C. W. Schaaf on Wednesday afternoon as originally planned in spite of the fact that Mrs. Schaaf had been called unexpectedly to California earlier in the week.

Miss Edna Brandisio of Deerfield avenue is at home and is recuperating from an operation on her ear which she underwent recently.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Bernard Mullen have recently returned from Charlottesville, Va., where they visited the Russell Mott's at their Virginia estate.

Dr. and Mrs. Albert Arthur Lowenthal of Chicago announce the marriage of their daughter Janet Dyer to Mr. Bowen Emerson Schumacher of this city on Thursday, Jan. 19th. The ceremony took place at the home of the bride's parents with the Rev. Dr. John Timothy Stone officiating. Miss Dyer was attended by her sister Mrs. William Channer, while Mr. Schumacher had as his best man Mr. brother-in-law Mr. Edwin Gilroy. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Silber who live at the Moraine hotel are spending the winter at the Drake hotel, Chicago.

The Fred P. Boynton family of N. Sheridan road left last week for Florida where they will spend the balance of the winter.

Mrs. Francis Norwood Bard is leaving Sunday for New York from where she will sail on Tuesday on Mrs. Archibald Abercromby en a five weeks Mediterranean trip.

retained the officers of Campbell chapter last evening at her home on Lincoln avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Delhaye and son Roy and daughter Joy, and Mr. and Mrs. George Delhaye and Thelma Larson left Monday by motor for Florida where they will spend six weeks.

Fred Silber, Jr., is traveling in Europe, visiting Munich, Venice and Berlin.

Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin J. Buckingham returned last week from Hartsville, South Carolina where they have been for several weeks visiting with Mrs. Buckingham's sister and brother-in-law Mr. and Mrs. George Rieeks. Bryant Buckingham who is a senior at Harvard university joined the family party during his Christmas vacation.

The Misses Shields and their niece Miss Viola are occupying the F. P. Boynton home on N. Sheridan road while the Boynton's are sojourning in Florida.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Alexander are leaving Friday for Mobile, Ala., where they will spend several weeks.

Little Jackie Barton Steffen son of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Steffen, celebrated his seventh birthday on Monday, Jan. 23. Several of his young friends came in to help him celebrate. Uncle Bob and Uncle Quinn of radio fame, both announced his birthday over their respective stations.

Mr. and Mrs. James Allen Turner and their six months old baby have left for Memphis, Tenn., where they will spend the next few months. Mrs. Allen is the former Grace Mather-Smith of this city. She and her husband have been in Chicago since late fall and have spent a great deal of time with their parents in Highland Park.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Silber of 327 N. Green Bay road are spending the winter at 444 St. James place, Chicago.

Mrs. Charles Meinhard entertained at luncheon and bridge last Friday afternoon.

Mrs. Mario Chamlee who has been the house guest of Mrs. Carleton Vail has been given a number of concerts in this vicinity during the past week.

Mrs. Haggerty of Libertyville is entertaining several Highland Park friends at bridge tomorrow, (Friday).

Miss Louise Silber is now teaching violin and French in the State university at Laramie, Wyo.

Mr. Fawcett of Winnipeg, Canada is visiting his daughter Mrs. Joseph P. Card. While here he is staying at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph B. Card.

Evans Watkins post No. 753 of the American Legion of the North Shore line will hold a dance Saturday evening, Feb. 18th at Waukegan Masonic temple. Proceeds of the dance will be used for relief purposes.

Miss Rose Ponsi of Deerfield avenue entertained fifteen friends at a baby doll party at her home last Friday evening. The affair was in honor of her birthday anniversary.

News has been received that Evelyn Mott, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Mott of Charlottesville, Va., has settled in Washington, D.C., to continue her study in art. She completed her schooling at Farmington last June. The Russell Mott's were former residents of Highland Park, her late grandfather J. Grenville Mott being one of Highland Park's highly respected pioneers, who erected the first and most commodious and pretentious colonial house on the north shore. A few years ago the Mott's sold their property here and transferred the furnishings and stables to their vast Virginia estate. The Mott's have lately acquired an additional farm, which, added to their own, makes one of the largest in "Old Virginia."

Rev. Joseph Taylor supplied the pulpit of the First United Evangelical church last Sunday in the absence of the pastor, F. Brandellner who was substituting for the presiding elder at Cedarville and Afoley churches.

Arthur St. Peter, 62, Lifelong Resident of City, Dies Saturday

Arthur St. Peter of 618 North First street, Highland Park, died Saturday morning at 4:20 at his home, following an illness extending from last October. Mr. St. Peter had been a lifelong resident of this city, where he was engaged in the contracting business. He was born here July 10, 1870.

He is survived by his widow, Mrs. St. Peter; two children, Raymond of Waukegan, and Mrs. Bernadette Proctor of this city; two brothers, Solomon of Highland Park and Orville of Waukegan; and two sisters, Mrs. Verena Hathaway, of Chicago, and Mrs. Ella Irons, of Boulder City, Nevada.

Funeral services were conducted at the White and Tobin funeral home in Waukegan at 1 o'clock Monday afternoon. The Rev. H. E. Ganster of Christ Episcopal church, Waukegan, officiated. Burial was in the North Shore cemetery, near North Chicago.

POLKA BROS. DEERPATH THEATRE Phone Lake Forest 2502

Main Floor Balcony 30c 25c Children Always 10 Cents Friday Eve. and Saturday Mat. January 27-28

The comic strip sweetheart of millions leaps to the screen with a yell!

With MITZI GREEN MAY BOBSON, David O. Selznick, exec. producer RKO-RADIO Pictures

Love Cannot be Bought She Found, Though Some May Sell Honor!

Romance with heart-beat of Vienna, and Songs of Strauss. Herbert MARSHALL

Loenings for Sale! Short Subjects

THEY CANT TAKE MY BABY!

BENNETT ROCKABYE Glamorous! Glorious!

GARNETT'S Garnett's

These spreads are elaborately worked by hand on heavy muslin. The values are extraordinary, which every woman will be quick to realize.

- 18 inch all-linen hemstitched NAPKINS 6 for 89c
72x84 Two-tone All-Wool BLANKETS A big value at $4.95
21x27 inch Feather-filled BED PILLOWS Sale price, each 88c
Large size 23x46 inch HEAVY TURKISH BATH TOWELS 25c

Certain broken lots of Rayon and Woven Bedspreads are greatly reduced in price for clearance.

Buy New Lingerie NOW While Prices Are Low!

Advertisement for lingerie featuring a woman in a dress and various items like slips, dancettes, chemises, and dress shields with prices.

CHARITY SHOW HIGHWOOD P Social Service Will Play at Bartlett Theatre

On Wednesday and Thursdays, Feb. 1 and 2, the Social Service committee sponsor a charity show for the needy families in the show will be presented at the Bartlett theatre which donated for those two James Quarta; the manager of the Bartlett theatre. One of RKO's recent "The Phantom of the Opera" be the feature picture of the night with vaudeville local talent as the host. A comedy, "Mickey McGinty," will be an added attraction. Miss Camille Corso, seven-year-old "blues" singer several numbers and The Highwood Young Dramatic club will perform. The following girls will playlet: Nancy, an adopted niece; Auntie, a pessimistic person; Carolyn, a representative of generation.

EXTRA Free DRESSES 3 Majestic 366 Central Ave

Advertisement for a business or service with text like 'a you' and 'NOU'.