County Institute for Children's Workers

A county institute for children's division workers will be held Saturday, January 28, at the First Methodist Episcopal church, Waukegan. The institute will be directed by Mrs. Russell H. Edwards, superintendent of the Lake County Council of Religious Education.

Following is the program:

Morning

10:00 Registration, inspection of exhibits.

10:15 Demonstration of primary worship service, led by Mrs. B. D. Frederick, Waukegan.

10:45 Department groups: topic: "Learning to Tell Stories."

1. Beginners teachers and workers: Leader, Mrs. Thomas A. Goodwin, Waukegan.

2. Primary Teachers and Workers: Leader, Mrs. S. T. Dexter, Highland Park.

3. Junior Teachers and Workers: Leader, Miss Irene Rockenbach, Deerfield.

12:00 Luncheon.

Afternoon

1:30 Demonstration Junior Worship service. Led by Miss Nell Schlung, Waukegan.

2:00 Departmental groups: Topic, "Teaching Through Activity." (Three groups as above).

3:15 An Exhibit Walk. (Inspection and explanation of exhibits).

4:00 Adjournment.

Coffee will be served at the church for those who bring their luncheon, or one of Waukegan's restaurants may be patronized.

An institute is a school of methods. Bring notebook and pencil. If the good ideas brought to you are not introduced in your school, the institute will have failed in its purpose.

Every Sunday school should send all of its teachers of children and its vacation school workers to this institute. Come and prepare yourself for a greater part in the work of teaching children to know and love the Heavenly Father and to lead intelligent, efficient Christian lives. Everyone sincerely interested in the training of childhood is welcome. The only qualification is a real desire to know more of the latest teaching methods and modern ways of administering religious education. All county, district and local school officers, pastors, and workers with children are urged to attend.

Louis Mustrie Wins High Score with 235

The H. P. Beverage bowling team won two games from the Highland Garage in the regular weekly meet held at the Majestic Bowling Alleys. Fell's won two games from the Highland Sweets.

Bock's Service station won three games from Santi's Dairy and Louis Quick Shoe won three from the Lincoln Market.

Louis Mustrie became famous this week when he won high score prize with 235. Lakey took high score with 589.

Tonight the Highland Sweets will meet Bock's Service station and the H. P. Beverage will bowl Louis Quick Shoe.

Grace Kreuger of the Catholic Women's league bowled 155 for high game among the women. Ladies are especially invited to bowl every Friday night at the Majestic alleys.

Many Vagrants at Highwood

Highwood continues to rank first among Lake county and other north shore towns in being host to itinerant visitors. More vagrants were reported there last week than in any other shore community.

Mosquito Abatement District Elects

A special meeting of the Highland Park Mosquito Abatement District committee was held in the Council Chamber of the City hall in Highland Park on Monday evening for the election of officers. The following were reelected:

President, Robert W. Larke.

Secretary, Mrs. Marie Ward Reichelt.

Treasurer, Mrs. Clarence Balke.

Other members of the board are Arthur M. Lowrie and Harold Norman, also Herman Juhrend. John Munro is attorney for the board.

Mr. Larke, with the assistance of Oscar Lundgren, showed films taken from the Ross institute for tropical diseases, which Mr. Larke secured in London, showing the work that the British are doing in the war against malaria by killing the larvae of mosquitoes with the use of oil on ponds and streams.

$6059 Collected in Fines in Highwood

Chief of Police Iver Iverson of Highwood has made public his annual report to the town council, disclosing an active year for the police department of that city.

For 1932, the chief reported, a total of $6,059 was collected in fines levied by local judges.

There were 822 arrests in the year, of which 205 were for disorderly conduct, 149 for passing stop signs and 64 for speeding.

The fines were divided as follows: $1,033 for speeding, $698 for passing stop signs, and $4,291 for the disorderly cases.

There were three holdover cases for the grand jury, Chief Iverson reported. Of that number, two were for robbery and one for assault.

Deerfield Red Cross Giving Out Garments

Mrs. C. W. Boyle, Red Cross representative in Deerfield, has distributed 232 made garments and 994 yards of cotton material in the Deerfield area this winter. The yardage and the garments are from the converted cotton which Congress authorized the Cotton Stabilization corporation to turn over to the American Red Cross for relief purposes. The garments included clothes for men, women, school children and babies.

The Chicago chapter has issued a call for more volunteer sewers to give a day a week (or half a day) at the Red Cross workroom at 616 S. Michigan avenue and to women's clubs, church societies and parent-teacher associations to do Red Cross sewing in their own neighborhood.

Deerfield Rotarians Hear Astronomy Talk

Carl E. Bates, principal of the Deerfield Grammar school, who taught nature study last summer at Ma Ka Ja Wan, gave a talk on astronomy, explaining various planets and their relations to the sun and earth, on Thursday, at the weekly luncheon of the Deerfield Rotary club.

Two new members, W. A. Bickford and C. C. Kapschull, became Rotarians, making the total membership fifteen.

Today's program is in charge of C. W. Boyle.

Indian Memberships Now Open to Anyone

With the canceling of the laws forbidding "outsiders," the Highwood Indians have taken their first step toward reorganization. After a few of the club members failed to give their cooperation, it was decided at the last regular meeting to abandon the three-year-old rule and allow "out-of-townners" to enter the club.

Memberships to the club are now open to all fellows living within a radius of twenty-five miles of Highwood. There will be a nominal initiation fee and members who are voted in must pay a small monthly fee.

Those who are interested in joining may give their names to any club member and he will then be voted on at the next regular meeting, which will be held in the Highwood City hall on Jan. 27.

Deerfield Garden Club Hear Lecture

The Garden Club of Deerfield met last Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. E. J. Ginter. Mrs. Carleton Scribner of Landis lane, Deerfield, a lecturer for the Chicago Junior league gave a most interesting illustrated lecture on the Century of Progress and what the Junior league members will do for the World's Fair in Chicago. Her description of Enchanted Island, a five acre tract to be devoted to the amusements of children, was very vivid. A special theater on the island will be in charge of the Junior leaguers, also, where plays for children will be presented. Mrs. Scribner's talk was illustrated with colored slides.

Following the very fine lecture, tea was served by the hostess, Mrs. Ginter, with Mrs. Merwin O. Hopkins presiding at the tea table.

Bakery Sale in Deerfield Saturday

Dorcas Circle One of the Deerfield Presbyterian church will hold a Food and Bake Sale on Saturday, Jan. 28, beginning at 10 a.m. at the Deerfield A. and P. Store. Special orders will be filled by telephoning Mrs. E. H. Selig or Mrs. Woodman Todd.

Deerfield Girl Scout Troop One

An investiture ceremony was held last Monday afternoon at the Presbyterian church and the following girls became tenderfoot scouts: Patsy Harvey, Martha Ashman, Romaine Stryker, Jean Boyle, Eleanor Backstad, Dorothea Seese and Marilyn Gooder.

There are twenty-one girls in this junior troop with Mrs. Russell Suggen as captain and Miss Helen Engstrom as lieutenant.

The girls learned a new folk dance.

Patrol leaders Rebecca Boyer, Muriel Lemm and Agnetta Larsen remained after the meeting for a court of honor.
