

DEERFIELD
LOCAL and PERSONAL

Miss Ruth Frantz daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arno Frantz was married Saturday afternoon at 4:30 to Mr. Harold Giss, son of Mr. and Mrs. Emil Giss. The very simple and impressive service was solemnized by Rev. E. J. Brusco at the home of the bride's parents on Todd court. The bride wore a dainty frock of pale blue satin and carried a shower bouquet of bride's roses and lilies of the valley. Miss Carol Frantz, younger sister, was bride's maid and her dress was ashes of roses. Vernon Giss served as best man for his brother. David Stryker played the wedding march. Following the ceremony a dinner was served to the fifteen guests. Mr. and Mrs. Giss are now at home to their many friends at their apartment in Highland Park.

Miss Nora Young of Half Day and Jack Johnston were married Thursday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Gastfield with Justice of the Peace Raymond Clavey performing the ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. Earl Johnston were their attendants. Mrs. Johnston is employed in Ravinia. Mr. Johnston, a son of Mr. and Mrs. William Johnston of Fair Oaks avenue, is proprietor of the Deerfield Ice Co.

Mrs. Eugene Ender left Wednesday to spend a month with Dr. and Mrs. L. A. Dondanville in Moline, Ill. Mrs. Dondanville is Mrs. Ender's niece, the former Eva Ender.

Mrs. William Neville entertained a few friends on Friday afternoon at her home on Elm street.

Mrs. Henry Helmershausen (Frances Loy) of Chicago spent the week-end at the Floyd Stanger and Charles Selig homes.

The Y.P.M.C. gave an interesting musical program at the Sunday evening service of the Bungalow church.

The Mutual club met Friday evening at the home of Mrs. Floyd Stanger to make valentines for the many children in the Children's Memorial hospital, Chicago. Mrs. Henry Helmershausen of Chicago, who was the originator of this philanthropic group, was the guest of honor. The hostess served delicious refreshments and the table was beautifully decorated in St. Valentine colors. Mutual club members will be pleased to accept new or used valentines to send with their gifts. They may be sent to Mrs. Stanger, or any member of the club.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Roll have moved from the Jacobs house to the house on Osterman avenue recently vacated by the Clayton Fehr family.

A group of young people spent Sunday afternoon with Mr. and Mrs. Harold Giss at their new apartment in the Tone building in Highland Park.

Mr. and Mrs. Carter M. Christensen of Sunset court entertained seven guests from Chicago at dinner Sunday evening.

Mrs. Agnes Clavey entertained at two tables of bridge Tuesday evening at her home on Forest avenue.

Mrs. George Stanger spent five days of last week at the home of her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Lester Stanger, in Highland Park.

Mrs. Homer G. Aylesworth was hostess to the Rainbow circle members on Friday afternoon at her home on Deerfield avenue.

The Happy circle, of which Mrs. John Stryker is chairman, is giving a baked bean luncheon today at the Bethlehem Evangelical church.

Mr. Julius Johnson suffered a slight stroke last Friday.

The Sunshine circle met Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Arthur Lee.

Raymond Dobbins has started an egg delivery service, selling the produce from the farm of an uncle in southern Illinois.

Mr. George Roekenbach will celebrate his 92nd birthday anniversary on Thursday, February 2.

Announcement has been made of the engagement of Miss Beatrice Huyg of Chicago and Bruce Frost, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Frost of Deerfield.

Mrs. William Galloway will entertain her luncheon bridge club on Friday.

Miss Elizabeth Johnson of Washington, D.C., spent the week-end with her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. Johnson of Brier Hill road.

The Arthur Merners and the Floyd Stangers celebrated their wedding anniversaries at a family dinner last Thursday evening at the Stanger home. This is the seventh year that the families have had a joint celebration. The date is a little later than usual this year as it was postponed until Mrs. Floyd Stanger had regained her health.

Mrs. E. H. Selig and Mrs. Woodman Todd were in charge of the sandwich collection last week for the Northwestern Settlement house, but the response was not particularly encouraging. This week Mrs. Todd and Mrs. Edwin Stryker superintended the work. We are again asked to remember that Tuesday is Sandwich day in Deerfield, and the need is great.

Mrs. Mary L. Dawson passed away early Monday morning at her home on Ridge road.

Mrs. Raymond Dobbins entertained her bridge club on Tuesday evening.

Mrs. Belle Kist of Edison Park is spending several weeks with her sister, Miss Josephine Woodman.

Mrs. G. A. Willen had as her luncheon guests on Friday, Mrs. H. W. Cornelius and Mrs. Helen Carlson of Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. Ingram Rasmussen were guests at the Montague Rasmussen home in Lake Forest on Friday evening.

Mrs. Alex Willman entertained at a family gathering Friday evening in compliment to her aunt, Mrs. N. McKellar of Fargo, N.D., who has been the guest this past week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Kress.

Mrs. Clarence Huhn was hostess on Wednesday evening to members of the Areme club.

The little son of Mr. and Mrs. Melville Dean who was born in December is still in the incubator at the Highland Park hospital, where he is getting along very nicely. The new baby is their ninth child.

The Prairie View band, which gave such an exceptionally fine program over WMBI on Sunday, Jan. 15, will broadcast again on March 5.

The Deerfield Presbyterian church was represented by a group of young people at the conference of older young people of the north shore on Sunday at the Highland Park Presbyterian church.

Dr. J. P. O'Connell has closed his Northbrook office and will devote his entire time to Deerfield.

Mrs. Estelle Mason suffered a stroke of paralysis last Wednesday and was removed by ambulance to a Chicago hospital. Mrs. Mason was a nurse for Mrs. J. C. Huehl.

Mrs. C. T. Anderson was hostess at a bridge party Friday evening.

Mrs. Henry Peterson and Mrs. Raymond Dobbins were the guests of Mrs. F. L. McOmber in Waukegan on Thursday afternoon.

John A. Hoffman has moved his real estate office from the Alex Willman building, to the extreme west store in the Zeiss Block on Deerfield avenue.

A meeting of the Deerfield Civic Players will be held on Friday evening, Jan. 27 at 8 o'clock in the A. J. Johnson Cafe.

Mrs. Edwin Palmer entertained her bridge club on Friday afternoon.

Miss Margaret Scully returned home Monday after a three weeks visit at the home of Mrs. B. S. Hile in Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Koebelin and Mr. Jacob Ott attended the funeral services of William Gottschalk at the Wheeling Presbyterian church on Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Reeds entertained at dinner Sunday evening at their home on Orchard lane.

Deerfield Boy Scouts are planning a Hobby Show for February 17.

Miss Jane Warner entertained a group of young people at tea on Sunday.

Mrs. Emil Giss entertained the Tireless Toller circle last Wednesday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Stanger entertained at dinner on Wednesday evening, at their home on Forest avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Philip Scully Sr., had as their guests at tea on Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hodges of Northbrook, Gordon McKay of Peru, Ill., Miss Marge McKay of Austin and Miss Florence Carolan of Chicago.

Miss Pearl Hancock of Plano, Ill., and Miss Louise Mendel of Alton, Ill. have returned home after a visit at the Edward Brennan home on Chestnut street.

Edwin, the little son of Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Johnson of Todd court fell and broke his right arm last Saturday, when he jumped off a little pile of hay.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Johnston and baby daughter are living in an apartment in the Scavuzo building. The Johnstons had been living with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Soefker on County Line road, until recently.

Roy Clavey was pleasantly surprised by a group of friends, at his home on Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Thayer Batt have moved to the upper apartment in Mrs. Frank Peterson's home. Mr. and Mrs. Percy McLaughlin who had been residing there have moved to Todd court.

Freddy Meyer has returned from Glenview where he visited his grandparents Mr. and Mrs. Fred Anderson and is now staying with his paternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Meyer.

Grace, the ten year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Laing was taken to the County hospital on Sunday. She has Scarlet Fever.

Mrs. William Laing, who was taken to the County hospital two weeks ago is recovering from pneumonia and had planned to return home the latter part of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. William Niemeyer and family of Arlington Heights were guests Saturday at the Emil Fredricks home.

Dr. C. Johnston Davis spent last week-end in St. Louis, Mo., and visited with Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Meyer, over night, at their farm near New Florence, Mo.

Mrs. Charles Bickford entertained her sewing club Wednesday afternoon.

Mrs. Earl Frost will entertain her luncheon 500 club on Wednesday.

The Dorcas society will hold an all day meeting next Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Emil Fredricks and children and Mrs. George Pettis spent Friday in Arlington Heights visiting at the Niemeyer and Milligan homes.

Mrs. Irving Brand was hostess to the Friday Evening Dinner club last week at her home on Deerfield avenue.

Quite a number from Deerfield attended the Highland Park R.N.A. installation on Wednesday evening. Deerfield camp of the Royal Neighbors will install their officers on Thursday evening (tonight).

Mrs. Bruce Blaine is entertaining her bridge club on Thursday evening (tonight).

Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Johnson and children and Mrs. George Pettis were the guests of Mrs. Elizabeth Brown and Miss Vera Brown in Woodstock on Sunday.

Janet Walton has returned home from St. Francis hospital in Evanston.

Mrs. Carl T. Anderson will entertain the Tuesday Evening Sewing club next week at her home on Chestnut street.

Mrs. Mary Koebelin spent the first few days of this week visiting at the Patten home in Chicago.

Mrs. Harry Olendorf will entertain her Libertyville luncheon bridge club on Tuesday.

Miss Irene Evenson was the dinner guest of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Schroeder of Half Day last Monday evening.

Mrs. Lewis Harder (Henrietta Horenberger) is in the Highland Park hospital, due to an infection from a glass cut on her hand.

The young people (boys and girls) will be organized Friday evening at the Holy Cross parish hall. Last week's meeting was postponed.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Hunter entertained out of town guests on Sunday at their home on Westgate road.

Miss Frances Biederstadt and Edgely Todd were the guests of Miss Marie Briel in Wilmette on Sunday.

The Independent Social club met Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Louis Soefker of County Line road.

Dorcas Circle Three will meet tomorrow afternoon to tie a quilt at the home of Mrs. Fred Meyer. Circles Two and Four are meeting this afternoon at the homes of Miss Sadie Galloway and Mrs. Walter Page. Circle One met last Monday evening with Mrs. V. W. Spriggs.

Mrs. Wier, daughter-in-law of Dr. W. L. Weir who is occupying the local Presbyterian pulpit, spoke of her experiences in India on Sunday afternoon before a large group of members of all the churches in the Chicago Presbytery, at the Fourth Presbyterian church. This is quite an honor for a woman to fill the pulpit of that church. Mr. and Mrs. Weir are teachers in a college in India and both spoke in Deerfield recently.

Mr. George Karch spent Friday at the home of his brother, Mr. Walter Karch, in Chicago.

Earl Johnston was taken to the Highland Park hospital early Sunday morning about four o'clock. He had been severely stabbed in the left arm. Mr. Johnston is employed by the Commerce Petroleum Co. and is a watchman week-ends. He was returning from work and stopped into Herman's Restaurant for a cup of coffee. Two strangers in the cafe started an argument which ended in the stabbing. Herman Cooksey took him to the hospital where Drs. Grady and Sugden are caring for him. Due to the serious injury he has remained there this week.

Mrs. Peter Juhrend, Mrs. Hubert Juhrend, Mrs. Henry Juhrend, Mrs. Julius Johnson, Mrs. Arthur Johnson and Mrs. Archie Antes attended a birthday party for Ms. Otto Juhrend in Libertyville on Wednesday afternoon.

Rev. F. G. Piepenbrok is arranging a yearly program at the church activities, which will be distributed to his parishioners in a short time.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Basel and daughter of DesPlaines were guests at the Albert Roggow home on Wednesday.

Dr. W. L. Weir will begin his series of lectures on Church Administration on Sunday, Jan. 29, at 3 p.m. at the Deerfield Presbyterian church.

Mrs. Frank P. Beardsley has been quite ill this past week at her home on Osterman avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Korenin and daughter, Frances, of Waukegan, were Friday evening dinner guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Berry Devine.

Miss Martha Karch spent the week end with her sister, Mrs. Frank Saeman, in Cross Plaines, Wis.

Miss Mollie Devine spent Sunday at the home of her brother, Mr. Berry Devine.

Ernest George Huebner, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. George C. Huebner of Highland Park, was baptized Sunday morning by Rev. F. G. Piepenbrok in St. Paul's Evangelical church parsonage, Deerfield. The baby was born Oct. 4, 1932. Sponsors were Enetta May Berg and Ernest Koepke.

Mrs. Frank Peterson is reported to be quite ill.

Mrs. Hubert McGuire entertained a few friends at bridge on Friday afternoon.

A copy of the Arizona Republican has been sent to the local editor which contains an article about Deerfield on its front page, telling of the gang's victims who were left here on January 13.

MILK for STRENGTH

Every Day at Every Meal

Balance your family's diet with a glass of Santi's milk — the perfect food — at least when they eat at home. It will tone them up.

per 9c qt.

Finest Creamery BUTTER

Strictly Fresh EGGS

Santi Bros. Dairy
QUALITY AND SERVICE
Pasteurized Milk and Cream Dairy Products

"From a Cripple to a Scout"
When I get big like other boys 'at' tall an' old enuf I bet 'cha don't know what I'll be to make me strong an' tuf My Muther knows but she wont tell she sed you'd ha't 't gess An' wont be long now eny more since I am six er less My burthdays all cum flyin' roun' s' fast my Muther sed She'd purt near cry but wuz no use 'caus' I wuz still in bed But when I git plum old enuf the Doctor sed 't day He b'lieved I'd maybe overcum bein' crippled up this way.

One't I climbed right out o' bed an' it didn't hurt a tall I teched both feet right on the flore an' Muther saw me fall She cum an' helped me stan' awhile so I cud grow sum more 'caus' she done knows what I will be when I am eight an' four

When I'm big an' old enuf I'm goin' 't be a Scout A great bighearted Eagle kind an' be s' strong an' stout I'll hav' a nifle 'at's got two blades an' one 't open cans A axe, a staf, an' big kanteen, knapsack with spoon an' pans.

An' when I git 't be a Scout a walk-in' on the groun' An' lurn 't stake an' stretch a tent an' tie the knots aroun' I'm goin' 't be most awful good to all the folks I know An' help all crippled boys an' gurls to hurry up an' grow When I am big an' old enuf I'll hav' a uniform 'At' fits me all s' snug an' fine 't keep me nice an' warn An' 'nen' my Muther she wont cry an' I'll take her all about 'caus' she nursed me from a cripple to a great big Eagle Scout.

Copyright 1933 by Jesse W. McGinnis

This Week Only!

1c SALE

AMAZING OFFER

on the new highly efficient, more economical, longer life, latest type

PHILCO BALANCED RADIO TUBES

Buy One Philco Tube at regular price and get another for only 1c more. Offer positively withdrawn Saturday—don't miss it! Philco Tubes fit any make radio set and positively improve performance. Replace your worn-out radio tubes—put your set in first class shape—and save money during this special 1c sale.

LOOK at these Values!

No. 226, 85c each . 2 for 88c
No. 171, 95c each . 2 for 98c
No. 227, $1.05 each . 2 for $1.06
No. 280, $1.05 each . 2 for $1.06

COME IN—while this offer lasts!

SHERONY HARDWARE CO.
D. SHERONY
314 Railway Avenue Phone 2041

DR. J. P. O'CONNELL
DENTIST

announce that he is now devoting his entire time to his Deerfield office.

Hours Daily—9 to 5
Evenings by Appointment
Phone Deerfield 69

Deerfield Citizen's State Bank Building
Waukegan Road

Finest Resort Hotel in the South...

The BAKER
WHERE AMERICA DRINKS ITS WAY TO HEALTH

Decide now to enjoy the most interesting of all holidays—a stay at Mineral Wells, Texas where healing waters and baths rivalled only by the famous Carlsbad Springs in Czechoslovakia, bring new health and vigor. Here every day in the year is a golfing day. Here horseback riding, tennis and swimming beguile you. Here long hikes in picturesque hills and pleasant valleys of Texas enchant you. Here you may relax on the beautiful 600 foot verandas which surround the hotel.

And here you have luxury and comfort that will truly amaze you... Each room has private bath, circulating ice water, fans, steamheat, service doors and every facility for your comfort.

For descriptive literature write our Chicago office, Suite 422, 520 No. Michigan Ave., or direct to The Baker

MINERAL WELLS... TEXAS

THURSDAY, JANUARY 26, 1933

CHICAGO AUTO AT COLISEUM

33rd Annual Event
Jan. 28; 14 Be of Color

With the closing of the Show at New York world now turns to opening of the only Automobile Show in A held at the Coliseum Jan. 28 to Feb. 4, including Sunday, Jan. 29.

Western Motor and eagerly waiting in view of a number of cars of pattern. In the search dynamic principle which low for bullet-speed in engineers hit upon the ing the form of a liquid through space would form required for the resistance.

As a result, one of the successful innovations in design in the history of has been perfected. line effect is heightened concept of gracefulness in automobile has come into being. (Bodi and wider, with tap where wind-resistance ed, the wheelbase has ened, and the "randro mits the air to flow the entire surface of creasing turbulent flo to wind resistance.

This revolutionary design results not on speed but in economy greater mileage of gas longer life of the motor of reduced strain mo from the same expen ergy, and above all gr.

This item of great one that manufacture the most at the Chic display. The builders one of the most try elements in long dista is the constant bar against which the car a speed of 50 miles an is attained.

With the new "air in use, tourists may tr a day or more and t refreshed as when th is claimed.