Garden Club to Meet The Garden club of Deerfield will meet Wednesday afternoon, Feb. 15, at the home of Mrs. E. B. Jordan of Arden Farm.

The more we see of these modern wars the less we like them. In the good old days you didn't have to look up the defeated party thirteen years later, wipe his tears, cancel his debts, and set him up in business.—The Farm Journal.

A school inspector said to a pretty teacher: "Do you teach observation?" "Yes." "Then I will test the class. Now, children, shut your eyes and sit still." The inspector made a slow, chirping sort of noise and followed with: "Now, children, what did I do?" One little boy piped out: "Kissed teacher."—John Bull.

"Jack hasn't come home. Am worried. Is he spending the night with you?" wired Smith's wife to five of his friends.

Soon after the husband arrived home, and before long a messenger boy came in with five replies to the wires his wife had sent. They all read: "Yes, Jack is spending the night with me."—Tit-Bits.

Two attorneys, one decidedly glum of countenance, met on the street. "Well, how's business?" the first asked of the dismal one.

"Rotten!" the pessimist replied. "I just chased an ambulance twelve miles, and found a lawyer in it."—American Legion Monthly.

Community Service Re-Elects Officers

George R. Jones of this city was again re-elected president of Community Service, Inc., of Highland Park at the annual meeting a few days ago. The annual meeting was held in the offices of the Community Center now being sponsored by Community Service.

The other officers who were re-elected were J. B. Garnett and A. T. Sihler, vice-presidents; and Mrs. E. J. Grundy, secretary-treasurer.

There were four new directors selected to serve on the board of directors and these were Mrs. L. M. Rieser, Howard F. Copp, Hiram Kennicott, and Dr. Donald E. Rossiter.

Directors who were re-elected to serve for a two year term were F. Norwood Bard, E. W. Geall, Milton J. Hardacre, George R. Jones, George A. Mason, F. R. McVeity, Dr. H. B. Roberts, Frank J. Ronan, Frank Shelton, Clark G. Wright and Mrs. T. R. Wyles. The above fifteen directors serve for a term of two years.

Community Service, Inc., the recreation organization in Highland Park, is a corporation not for profit and was organized when the United States entered the World War. During the war period its purpose was to provide recreation and entertainment for soldiers, sailors, and marines in training at Great Lakes and Fort Sheridan.

At the present time under the leadership of George Scheuchter, pfing Community Service is providing needed recreational activities for all who care for it here in Highland Park during the fall, winter and spring of the year. The latest venture of Community Service was the taking of the Elks club hall at 582 Laurel avenue and sponsoring it as a community center.

Talks on "Service in Business" Mr. East of the Public Service Co. gave an interesting talk on "Service in Business" last Thursday at the weekly luncheon of the Deerfield Rotary club. The speaker was introduced by Roy Clavey. Mr. East stressed with great emphasis, that the American people in general, do not extend enough courtesy into their business, which was certainly food for thought. Four guests attended, Messrs. Bullard, Braun and Sandwick of Highland Park and Alex Smith of Glencoe. Andrew Decker is today's Rotarian.

Relief Organization to Meet The Deerfield Relief Organization will meet Tuesday evening, Feb. 14, promptly at 7 o'clock for an hour's session at the village offices in the Masonic temple.

Women of Moose Meet. Highland Park chapter of the Women of the Moose will hold their next regular meeting on Saturday. This meeting was scheduled for Tuesday, but on account of the storm was postponed to Saturday. The meeting will begin at 8 o'clock.

Local and Personal of Deerfield

Franklin Hrdlicka and Samuel Daniels, both of the Dorcas Home, won wood carving honors, in a contest for Boy Scout troop 52.

Mrs. Harry Clavey's father, Mr. O. G. St. Peter of Waukegan underwent an operation last Tuesday at Drs. Burleson and Burleson's hospital in Grand Rapids, Mich.

Dr. W. F. Weir of Evanston spent the week-end at the home of Dr. and Mrs. C. Johnston Davis.

Members of the choir and their families enjoyed a dinner Saturday evening at the Presbyterian church.

Newly elected promoters of the Altar and Rosary society met Monday evening with Father Savage at the Holy Cross rectory to distribute the bands (circle groups).

Mrs. Milton Frants and daughter Olive are both ill with the flu.
