SENIORS AND JUNIORS SPLIT DUAL MEET WITH MORTON HIGH

FINISH THIRD IN LEAGUE Seniors Come Back Strong in Last of Meet to Win

Beating Morton by the tune of 35-24, the senior swimming team took the final stand of third place in the Suburban league swimming race with three victories and two defeats. The junior teams lost to Morton juniors 31-22.

From the very first event to the last, both teams put on a fine exhibition of swimming. Due to a misunderstanding, one race seemed to be a little queer, and Morton took the lead, but through the efforts of the divers, "Bordy" Burchard and "Louie" Kundreth and the senior medley relay team, the day was saved for the seniors.

Seniors Take Relay
Deerfield seniors started the ball rolling by winning the 100-yard relay, but the juniors lost in a thrilling race. The 100-yard breast stroke was a race between Vetensnik and Kelley, and Gordon lost by a very small margin. The 100-yard backstroke race was between the last men for second and third positions, and, although Bill Holmes was the loser of this race, he put up a good fight.

Juniors Weak
While the senior team was reaping a harvest crop, the juniors were losing theirs. Morton came out on top with five of the six first places and naturally this helped them in every way.

George Gaidzik and Tommy Thompson did some tall stepping in the diving contest to take first and second respectively, and this helped to keep the score from running too high for the visitors.

"Bob" Anderson pushed his opponent, Talmus, to the very limit but "Bob" lost by a matter of half-inches. Dave Walker proved to be the coming shadow of his brother, Bill, when he forced George Gaidzik, who beat him out for second place, to the limit.

Last Home Meet
The meet with Morton was the last home swimming meet and also the last of the dual Suburban league meets. A good crowd turned out to watch the mermen and the team appreciates it very much.

JACK ALLEN ENDS ATHLETIC CAREER

Jack Allen's athletic career at Deerfield-Shields has been one of credit to both the school and himself. He has received six major letters for three different sports. In each of these sports he has been a constant threat to opponents and has ranked among the highest.

Jack is the kind of fellow to have on a team. He is quiet and attentive when instructions are given, and when he makes a mistake he does not offer alibis but tries his hardest to better the error. He is the type coaches want on their teams, not only for his ability as an all-around athlete, but because he is liked by everyone; and that's the kind that makes a good leader.

"Jack played the best game he ever played for me. It sure hurts when we can't get the old tip-off, and, if it hadn't been for Jack, we might have lost," commented Coach Thurston after the Proviso game. Jackie tried hard to give "Solly" a championship.

BETWEEN YOU AND ME

by Warner Turfiff
Attendance at the Games
Due to the fact that teams at Deerfield have been losing teams, the attendance has fallen off. People in Highland Park are a little too prompt in their opinion of the high school teams. Because the Blue and White have had several unsuccessful seasons doesn't mean that they will continue to be the "underdog." As a matter of fact, the Deerfield-Shields quintets have given every team that has faced them an unsuspected scrap, several teams being forced into overtime games. These teams under Mr. Thurston's direction are out to win and have for the first time showed some real fight and aren't beaten after the first score.

A big weakness of the people of Highland Park is to overdo their criticisms of the game and individual players. There are people in this town, who are graduates and former athletes at Deerfield, who have a tendency to criticize individuals on the team without giving them a fair break. The reason for this is that these fellows think that there's no team like the one they played on and so give what they call "expert opinion" on the games.

Let's ease up a bit and form our own opinion of the team by going to one of the high school games some Friday evening.

Final Exams
Final exams had little or no effect on the athletic teams. Coach Thurston lost only one of his heavyweights and Coach Kendig lost two. There wasn't an ineligibility from failures or lack of sufficient credits. Most of the fellows out for athletic teams know that in order to remain a member of these teams they must keep their grades up. For this reason very few fellows amble out at night, most of them finish their studies and go to bed. Athletics are the making of real students as well as real fellows.

Future Swimmers Trained at Deerfield
Coach Kendig has started a new system in preparation for future swimming teams. Boys above the sixth grade in grammar school meet twice a week in the high school pool where they are taught fundamentals of swimming. This gives Coach Kendig an opportunity to begin right in on the racing stroke when these fellows come to high school. If this system succeeds it will assure Deerfield of stronger teams in the future.

"D" Club
Coach Thurston, advisor of the Deerfield-Shields "D" club, has gone one more step forward in the advancement of this organization. This time the "D" club have descended to take over the cheerleading. Cheerleading has always been an important but difficult group to manage. Boys of the "D" club will from now on, do the cheerleading using a different yell leader at each game. It seems to be that the crowd would rather yell for a boy who belongs to an athletic team than yell for the younger fellow who can't control the crowds.

Intramural Sports
One of the most important activities of the intramural program is ping pong. Mr. Ed Lindenmeyer has among his ping pong players many fellows who have prospects of becoming experts. Tommy Nelson for example has given Clark, Kittermaster, Kony and the rest a run for their money. There are also many others who are coming up who will in time, be quite efficient players.

Major and Minor Sports
Unfortunately the executive committee has given serious thought to disbanding several of the schools important "minor" athletic organizations. It is taken for granted that the present depression is the cause, yet it doesn't seem fair that the sports in consideration should be discontinued.

The thrills, color, cheering, and enthusiastic throngs seen at a football game enter into the individuals life only through his schooling. The same goes for basketball, baseball, and track. All these sports promote clean-cut playing and sportsmanship, but they still lack the importance of several of the smaller "doomed" athletic teams. The sports now on trial are golf, swimming, boxing, wrestling, and several others. Conceivably, the intramural department might also be disbanded.

At one time man worked twelve hours out of a twenty-four hour day. The schedule then changed to eight hours of work. Now the "higher ups" are working on a plan to bring into use the five hour working day which means that the individual will now have seven hours to use as he please. Behind all of this is the important problem of how to spend one's leisure time.

It's pretty hard for a fellow who wants to play football to look up twenty-one men and a football field every time he wants to play the game. It's pretty hard for the former basketball star, now out of school, to get nine fellows and a gym in which to play when he feels like playing. It's pretty hard for any graduate from the "major" division to find the proper entertainment he's used to after he's out of school. If these individuals had spent a little time learning some of the "minor" sporting activities instead of neglecting them because they were termed "sissy" games, probably today they would be something besides the bore of the party.

A person who has learned to play in minor sports knows how valuable this knowledge is. He can go out with his friends and play tennis, play golf, swim, or he can box or wrestle. He has a grand time and he is thankful for every single hour he spent in "minor" sport activities. Some day all sports will be rated on a par, but until that time comes there will always be two conflicting groups, always enemies, and always under the watchful eye of a board interested primarily in the size of a letter.

Deerfield Goes to Oak Park
Coach Thurston's strong aggregation of basketballers travel to Oak Park high school next Friday evening to meet the league leading heavyweights and the last place Oak Park ponies. This game will be the seventh suburban encounterment of the year and guarantees to be a thriller.

DEERFIELD "LIGHTS" LOSE FAST GAME TO EVANSTON 31-24

MAIMAN LEADS SCORING Evanston's Late Rally Proves Fatal to Light-weights

Paulsen	0	1	0
R. Maiman	0	1	0
Total	7	19	11	Total	11	9	11

After leading during the entire first half, the Deerfield lightweights lost their third league game to Evanston by a score of 31-24 on our home floor last Friday evening.

Huhn Scores Twice
With the game only a minute old, Huhn, Deerfield forward, started the scoring on a shot from the side of the court. He immediately followed this with another from the same place, putting Deerfield into the lead 4-0.

On a scramble under the basket, R. Maiman put the ball through the hoop. This was followed by Griggs of Evanston, making two short shots under the basket.

While stopping a play, Dixon, Deerfield guard, hurt his leg and had to leave the game. E. Maiman replaced him and Deerfield scored twice on baskets by Huhn and R. Maiman. This was followed by Jones and Smith making shots under the basket and Grigg's long shot, making the score 10-10.

On a tip-off play R. Maiman of Deerfield was fouled. He made both of his shots, putting Deerfield in the lead 12-10. Frazier, Evanston guard, made a long shot which ended Evanston's scoring for the first half. Larson, Deerfield center, and E. Maiman, guard, scored on foul shots, and their teammate, Paulsen, made a basket as the gun went off, ending the half and putting Deerfield in the lead, 16-12.

Both Teams Foul
The second half started off by Jones of Evanston making a long shot and two free throws when he was fouled by R. Maiman of Deerfield. The lead changed from one team to another in the third quarter, with R. Maiman scoring two points for Deerfield on a foul by Frazier, Evanston guard, and a short shot from the side of the court. He was then forced to leave the game on fouls. Palley, Deerfield guard, replaced him.

Evanston scored six points on baskets by Jones, Smith, and Griggs as the fourth quarter started, making the score 22-20, a lead which Deerfield could not overcome. From then on Evanston scored almost at will, taking eleven points while Deerfield made two points on charity tosses by Paulsen and Huhn.

EVANSTON'S ATTACK DEFEATS "BLUE" 26-19

Proviso and Deerfield in Third Place

Evanston's heavyweights defeated Deerfield's Bluebacks last Friday night in the latter's gym by a 26-19 score.

Both teams started off with a "bang" and for the first few minutes neither team had the ball long enough to get a good shot. "Parkie" Johnston started the scoring with a free throw.

The first half saw little scoring. There was plenty of scrap, however, from Bob Skidmore and "Bump" Hansen for Deerfield and Greenslade for Evanston. What scoring there was gave Evanston a 13-10 lead when the gun sent the teams to seven minutes rest.

Parker Johnston and Bob McClure opened the second half with a basket apiece. Bob Skidmore's shot, the third before Evanston touched the ball, bounced off the rim into an Evanston man's hands. From then on Evanston held the upper hand and whenever we got close they would somehow score another basket or two and then stall until it was too late for us to catch up.

"Parkie" Johnston led the scoring for Deerfield with eleven points, while Hansen and Bob Skidmore stood out on the defense. Greenslade and Peters contributed eleven and ten points to lead the scoring for Evanston. Greenslade was also the bright spot in Evanston's defense.

SWIMMERS ENGAGE IN LAST DUAL MEET AGAINST WAUKEGAN

Trying to gain at least one victory on the road, Deerfield mermen will travel to Waukegan February 14 in order to compete against the latter's junior and senior teams. The last time the rivals met, both of Deerfield's teams came out on the long end of the score.

This time Waukegan will have the advantage by swimming in their own pool, which is five yards longer than the one the Deerfield paddlers are used to. Deerfield will have the consolation, however, that two regulars who were out in the previous clash will be back in action.

In the first encounter the senior team seemed to be fairly strong, and the juniors had a 50-50 chance. The seniors will have to watch for Charlton, a fast 40-yard man, and the 160-yard relay team. The juniors will have to put more effort in their work if they expect to be on the winning side.

Deerfield faces this meet with the absence of Ed Glover and Warner Turfiff, who will be missed in the medley relay and the backstroke. This probably means that Bill Holmes will see action in the 100-yard backstroke event. Bill has shown a lot of improvement lately and should put up a good race.

The Waukegan meet is the last dual meet for Deerfield and should prove to be a battle from start to finish.
