A. H. Anderson's are "At Home" in Streator

Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Anderson have returned to their home, 207 Wilson street, after an extensive honeymoon trip through Mexico.

They left Streator six weeks ago, motored to Memphis, Tenn., and to New Orleans, entering Mexico through Laredo. For a distance of 250 miles they drove visiting Monterrey and Saltillo, Mexico. Beyond the latter city the roads were not passable. They left their automobile and continued their itinerary by train to Mexico City, where they spent two and one-half weeks.

Each day they visited interesting sites of the romantic and historic country surrounding Mexico City. They also witnessed a bull fight, one of the spectacular old customs of the south.

On their return journey they rode to Saltillo and drove their automobile back to San Antonio and Dallas, Texas, where they visited with friends. At Dewey, Oklahoma, they spent several days with Mr. Anderson's sister, Mrs. Ella Bain and children. At Virden, Illinois, they were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Kirkland, Mrs. Anderson's parents, and Mrs. Mary Buckles, Mr. Anderson's sister. From there, they returned to Streator, arriving here last evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Anderson both thoroughly enjoyed their trip. In commenting on the weather, Mr. Anderson said it was most delightful. The thermometer never rose over eighty degrees or was lower than 60. The temperature during the day was very moderate and in the evening was quite cool.

Mr. and Mrs. Anderson are at home to their friends at 207 Wilson street.

The above article appeared in a recent issue of the Streator Times Press. Mrs. Anderson was formerly Miss Zana Kirkland, teacher at Elm Place school.

Jitney Carnival at Y.W.C.A. Tonight and Tomorrow Benefit

Tonight is the night of the Jitney Carnival at the Y.W.C.A., the annual frolic "held in depression times at depression prices." There will be fun for all from the time the carnival opens at 8 o'clock until it closes at 12. And then on Friday night, too, is another gala night, for the carnival is being held two evenings this year, and everyone will have a chance to attend.

There will be jitney dancing all evening in the assembly to the tune of a puppy orchestra, fortune telling, bingo, and a puppet show, in the rest of the upstairs, and the lower floor will be turned into a midway, accommodating all the various shooting galleries, games of chance, photograph booths, and other "jyp" joints.

The carnival is being given under the auspices of the Pi Delta Club, the Friendship Club, and BY club, the three clubs of the Y.W.C.A. for business and industrial girls. The high school girl reserves are assisting with the affair, having charge of the candy and pop sales.

"Here is an opportunity for everyone to have an evening of fun for a very small sum, to eat, dance, and frolic for practically nothing, and to decide, as did those who came last year, that the Y.W.C.A. jitney carnival should indeed be an annual event," says a member of the committee.

Bridge Tournament Postponed Due to the blizzard which swept over Highland Park and the North Shore Tuesday, the contract bridge tournament scheduled at the Moraine hotel for that night has been postponed until Friday evening, Feb. 10, at 8:15.

This will be the last opportunity for players to qualify for the free cruise as the semi-finals are to be held at 2 p.m. on Saturday, Feb. 11, at the Palmer House, Chicago. All players who intend to have dinner at the hotel before the tournament are requested to make reservations.

Music Lovers Eagerly Await Famed Operetta

Hailed as an extraordinary fare-well engagement, and in response to public demand, Sigmund Romberg's delightful operetta "The Student Prince" returns to the Grand Opera House, Chicago, for two weeks only commencing Sunday, Feb. 12, with matinees Wednesday and Saturday.

The splendid cast alone is sufficient to recommend this newest production of the precious musical gem, first presented by the Messrs. Shubert in 1924, and it returns to Chicago, not as a revival but as a survival of the most successful operetta ever written. In the foreground of an unusually large roster are George Hassell, who will sing the role of "Lutz," Allan Jones will play the "Prince," Gertrude Lang as "Kathie," John Charles Gilbert will be heard as "Doctor Engle." Others in the cast are Betti Davis, Berta Denn, Lorraine Weimar, Manila Powers, Charles Chesner, John Goldworthy, Joseph To-cer, Charles Harvey and Robert O'Connor. In addition to the famous male student chorus, there are the alluring girls in rich and striking costumes to compete with the delightful singing and dancing that marks "The Student Prince."

An entire new issue of scenery and costumes makes up the current investiture, which is said to fairly extinguish all previous "Student Prince" productions in magnitude of outlay. Further welcome news to playgoers is the fact that the piece will be offered in Chicago on its return engagement at "popular prices."

The rousing score of Sigmund Romberg's best-loved operetta is still full and vital to the brim, providing enough melody to stock half a dozen ordinary musicals; while the story of "Old Heidelberg" is romantic enough for anyone's holiday.
