A study of the character and work of Jeremiah.
"A Church that Cares."

"I've had a hard day," said the tired business man aboard the evening train for home. "One of my office boys asked the afternoon off to attend his aunt's funeral. So, being onto his scheme, as I thought, I said I'd go along too."
His friend chuckled. "Great idea! Was it a good game?"
"That's where I lost out, sadly admitted the man of business. "It was his aunt's funeral." — Boston Transcript.

Mrs. Clutton Speaks at Bannockburn Club
The Bannockburn Garden Club met Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. H. M. Hansen. Mrs. Fred Clutton of Highland Park, who is a member of the Iris Society, gave an interesting and instructive talk on "Irisess."
Tea and a social hour followed with Mrs. Hansen's guest, Mrs. Groendyke, and Mrs. H. T. Wright presiding at the tea tables.

Deerfield Auxiliary Meets Monday, Feb. 20
The regular monthly meeting of the Deerfield Unit of the American Legion Auxiliary will be held Monday evening Feb. 20, at the home of Miss Louise Huhn. Mrs. Phillip Scully Jr., will be assisting hostess.

A triple event for all Girl Scouts takes place on Feb. 22, which is the birthday not only of the Father of our Country but also of the Founders of Boy and Girl Scouting. When Lord and Lady Baden-Powell were in New York a couple of years ago, the chief scout announced at a dinner in their honor: "My wife and I have excellent taste in birthdays. We both picked that of Gen. Washington."
When America entered the world war there were 23,000 Girl Scouts. In Jan. 1932 there were registered 236,940. Perhaps the most remarkable Girl Scout is the sudden spirit which it always seems to take during a national emergency. The world war was a spur to Girl Scouting, and so was the world depression. Looking over the records of what the girls and their leaders did during these two crises, one finds a curious resemblance between the war and peace eras. In 1918 the Girl Scouts were knitting for the Red Cross and acting as messengers and submers at meetings. In 1932 the Girl Scouts were sewing for the Red Cross and distributing food and clothes for the needy. Canning fruit and vegetables and co-operating with Food Administration then, and the Welfare Association now. Neither did they drop their regular program, for helping poor nations or their neighbor is just community service which Girl Scouts do all the time.
Troop II
The very cold and snowy weather kept many in last week and few of the troops were able to have their meetings. Twelve girls of Troop II gathered but had to dismiss for lack of heat.
Troop V
Troop V had a Valentine party last Monday, and some clothes were present too. Each patrol did a stunt, many games were played and there was a Valentine Supper, served and after the Good Night Circle, the meeting adjourned.—Doris Foreman, scribe.
Troop VII
Troop VII had their regular meeting last Monday and Carol Jones was invited. Signal corners, games and practicing of sign-making took much of the time, dues were collected and a closing circle.—Elizabeth Clark, scribe.
Troop I—Highwood
Because of one of Old Man Winter's eccentricities the meeting of the Highwood Girl Scouts scheduled for Tuesday evening was cancelled. However, several girls attended the regular Saturday afternoon meeting. Mrs. Stockwell demonstrated the use of the flag in the general service code, watched the girls practice and in the meantime gave them some very helpful hints. She explained the requirements of the first class signalling test which is to be given on Feb. 21. Mrs. Stockwell was accompanied by Mrs. Frank who gave the girls something to think about in the way of home nursing. Eight girls will have the opportunity of working under the able instruction and supervision of Mrs. Frank. Now, you young sisters and brothers of these Girl Scouts if your sister wants to make you play patient or if you see her waving a stick, a broom or what have you,

Mrs. Ellye Holbrook, Former Local Writer, Is Dead in Chicago
Mrs. Ellye Glover Holbrook, formerly of Highland Park, writer and newspaper woman, died Sunday at the home of her mother, Mrs. Samuel C. Glover, 6538 Stewart avenue, Chicago, after a short illness. She was 65 years old.
Mrs. Holbrook was the author of several books on etiquette and cookery and was a contributor to news papers and magazines. At the time of her death she was writing for a syndicate. Her last newspaper connection was with the old Chicago Evening Post.
Surviving besides her mother are her husband, Joseph L. Holbrook; a daughter, Mrs. Mead Montgomery; a sister, Mary; and a brother, Benjamin Glover. Funeral services were held Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 in Christ Episcopal Church, Woodlawn Avenue and 65th Street, Chicago.

Deerfield Boy Scout Exhibit Friday Eve
Boy Scouts of Deerfield Troops 51 and 52 and Cub Pack 80 will hold their annual court of honor and hobby show on Friday evening, Feb. 17, at the Deerfield Grammar School. The public is urged to attend.
The program:
1.—Meeting called to order by Commissioner Homer G. Case.
2.—Entering of Scouts and Cubs with flags.
3.—Singing of "America."
4.—Introduction of the Commissioner and Scouters.
5.—Cub Pack 80; presenting flag to Cub.
6.—Troop 52; play, "Where There's a Will There's a Way."
7.—Awards presented by Dr. Walter B. Metcalf.
8.—Election of chairman and vice-chairman of the district.
9.—Report by chairman of district.
10.—Dismissal by Troop 51.
There will be a short meeting afterwards called by the district chairman of troop and pack committees.
The many fine hobbies of the boys will be on exhibition.
The community is urged to attend and see what "Young America" is doing.

Book Review Group Meets Next Monday
On Monday, Feb. 20, at 2:30 p.m. the Book Review Group of the Fine Arts department of the Highland Park Woman's Club will meet at the club house. A most interesting program is planned and a large attendance is expected. This group has had excellent success under the leadership of Mrs. Carl Pfanstiel. At this meeting the following program will be presented: "Ten Minutes of Modern Poetry" by Barbara Sincere. Miss Cora Hendee will give a review of current books on economic problems. Mrs. Brigham will review "The New Deal" by Stuart Chaos, and "Order Out of Chaos" by Cole. "Grace Root" by Young-hill Kane will be reviewed by Mrs. Loewenstein. Mrs. Pfanstiel will give a resume of "In Search of England" by Norton.

Gives Final Talk in Series Tuesday
The final lecture in the series of six given by Rog G. Berg will be on next Tuesday evening at the First United Evangelical Church. The lecture will include early church history, life and missionary journeys of the Apostle Paul and pictures of some early church martyrs. The interest in these lectures has been very gratifying and the attendance has been very good.
Ping Pong Club Organize at Y.W.C.A.
Membership in the Ping Pong Club at the Y.W.C.A. is growing. It is open to men, women, boys, and girls, and the membership fee covers playing privileges for the next three months. Plans are being made to organize special games and tournaments, and matches between club members.
