

HIGHLAND PARK LOCAL and PERSONAL

The Army-Navy Club of Chicago entertained at dancing and bridge Wednesday for the Army Relief.

Mrs. Peter A. Richards of North Green Bay Road entertained her 500 Club Wednesday afternoon.

Mrs. C. R. Short and Mrs. Louis Patten of Milwaukee were the weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Zahle of Vine Avenue.

Mrs. Roger S. Vail of Laurel Avenue entertained at luncheon on Tuesday.

Mrs. Gertrude Gossman will hold a Rebecca School of Instruction in Wilmette on Wednesday night. Another meeting will be held in Libertyville on Friday.

Mrs. Sheridan of Cary Avenue entertained a number of friends at dinner Sunday.

The Officers Club of Fort Sheridan will entertain at a dance Saturday, Feb. 18.

Miss Janet Carlton of Edgely Drive celebrated her birthday anniversary Saturday evening by entertaining a number of friends informally.

The Officers Club of Fort Sheridan entertained at a Dutch Costume party last Saturday evening.

Mrs. P. W. Blanchard of Walker Avenue entertained several friends and relatives at a luncheon Monday afternoon in honor of her nephew Sergeant Ellsworth C. Miller of the Sixth Corps Area, Chicago who will leave shortly for his new station in Honolulu, Hawaiian Islands.

Mrs. Trigg Waller of Forest Avenue is leaving Saturday for a six weeks visit in Philadelphia, Pa.

Mrs. Kellogg Patterson of Ravine Drive entertained at dinner on Washington's birthday, Wednesday.

Mrs. Warren B. Ewer of Linden Avenue is entertaining at a dinner party Saturday evening.

Miss Helen Dickerson will attend the Y.W.C.A. Training Conference at the Magill Memorial Y.W.C.A. in Chicago this week-end.

Miss Lillian Smith of North First Street is now employed with the Curtis Publishing Co. in Winnetka.

Mr. John Rouse announced the marriage of his daughter Mildred to Arthur Neal Wittenborn only son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Wittenborn of 1338 N. Thorndale Avenue, Chicago.

The ceremony was solemnized at 4 o'clock on Saturday, Feb. 18 at St. Gertrude's Catholic Church, Chicago. The bride's only attendant was her sister Catherine Rouse and Mr. George Hudson served at five-thirty to forty guests, friends and relatives of the bride and groom at the residence of the bride 1340 N. Thorndale Avenue. A reception was held at eight-thirty in the evening to friends of the young couple. Out of town guests were the brides relatives from Highland Park and Ravinia and Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Stamm of North Chicago, Miss Catherine Ferrell of Lake Forest and Mrs. John Rouse and son Pat of Hurley, Wis. After a short honeymoon, Mr. and Mrs. Wittenborn will be at home at 1338 N. Thorndale Avenue.

Last Wednesday evening, Mr. and Mrs. Jay Younglove celebrated their third wedding anniversary with a buffet supper at the home of "the Bride's" parents Mr. and Mrs. William Reay of Highland Park. They were able to reassemble their entire wedding party with the exception of Bob Slatar, who is now living in Louisville. Others in the party were Mr. and Mrs. Sam Pirie, Virjean Richey, Gilbert Younglove, Jack and Rusty Beatty, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Ashcraft III and Mr. and Mrs. James Roberts, former New Yorkers who are now living on the North Shore.

Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Mullen are entertaining several friends at dinner at their home on Laurel Avenue.

His Excellency Von Knipping, German Ambassador to Brazil and Mr. Wilhelm Volbers, commander of an auxiliary cruise, Komovan, during the war, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Heinrich Heine at the home 883 S. Green Bay Road, last Sunday.

Mrs. Battista Pasquesi is returning to her home in Highwood after a three weeks sojourn in Detroit, Mich., where she visited her parents.

Mrs. Henry Siljstrom entertained her sewing club last Tuesday afternoon at her home on St. Johns avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Linderman of the Gourley apartments entertained at a Valentine party last Tuesday evening.

Mrs. Gertrude Wolbrink left last Friday for St. Louis, Mo., to be the guest of friends and relatives for the next four weeks.

Mr. Einer Nielsen and family of Chicago were the Sunday guests at the home of Rev. F. Brandfeller on Sunday.

Mrs. R. Sneeden of Central Avenue, entertained the members of her bridge club last evening (Wednesday).

Mr. and Mrs. A. Finger, who have been the guests at the C. A. Loeffler home during the past two weeks, left Friday for their home in Maywood.

Little James Pasquali who underwent an appendectomy at the Waukegan hospital last week, is getting along nicely and is expecting to return to his home within a few days.

AN OPPORTUNITY

If you are neat appearing and aggressive, and able to contact substantial people, you can make a very satisfactory connection with us. Udell Bldg., ask for Mr. E. Smith.

Miss Ada Grandy, instructor in English at the University of Minnesota, former teacher of English at D.S.H.S. will speak at the assembly, Friday morning, March 3 at 8:45 o'clock. A reception in her honor will be held in the English club room at the big school Kaooe club room at the high school in the evening, to which all of her former pupils are invited to attend.

Mr. Joseph Redine is singing each Wednesday morning over Radio Station WMBI in connection with the Shut-In program of the Moody Bible Institute. Program is from 10:30 to 11:30 a.m.

Mrs. Harlan Rogers of Prairie Avenue, is reported to still be on the sick list.

Mrs. Ernest Jones of Central Avenue entertained a few friends at bridge yesterday afternoon.

Between 20 and 30 men of the Bethany Church attended the Men's meeting at the Humboldt Park Church, Tuesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. John Sullivan of 635 Skokie Avenue, and Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Cunningham of Chicago spent Tuesday in Fond du Lac, Wisconsin.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Moran entertained eight guests from Rogers Park at dinner Sunday evening.

Mrs. Frank Wals of Ravinia entertained the members of her Five Hundred Club Tuesday evening.

Rev. F. Brandfeller attended the annual session of the South China Boat Mission on Monday which was held at Winnetka Evangelical Free Church.

Mr. and Mrs. David Mayer of Glencoe are receiving congratulations on the birth of a son born Sunday, February 19th at the Highland Park hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Decker visited Judge Decker of Waukegan who is a patient at Edwards Sanitarium, at Naperville on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Siljstrom of Windsor road entertained several friends at bridge on Saturday evening.

Mrs. Frank Black of Glencoe Avenue is entertaining the members of her bridge club this evening (Thursday).

Mrs. Joseph Peddle entertained the members of her bridge club on Thursday afternoon.

Betty Bowen is quarantined at the home of her parents Mr. and Mrs. W. Zimmer on Glencoe Avenue, with scarlet fever. Her many friends will be glad to learn that she is not seriously ill and is getting along nicely.

Miss Gladys Greenlaw who has been secretary at the Highland Park Presbyterian Church for several years, left last Thursday for her home in Denver, Colo., where she plans to remain indefinitely. Miss Greenlaw made a host of friends in this city while here, who will regret to learn of her departure.

Miss Catherine Geary will give two readings at the Lake Bluff Woman's Club meeting tomorrow evening, February 24.

The Semper Fidelis Circle met on Friday evening at the home of Mrs. Orville Wessling of South Green Bay Road.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Thierren (Ruth Wicklander) have returned from a short honeymoon trip to Canada. They will reside in Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Rettig of Highwood are receiving congratulations on the birth of an eight and one-half pound baby girl, born Wednesday evening, February 15.

Mrs. Albert Axt was hostess to the members of the American Legion Auxiliary on Monday evening at her home on High Street.

Mrs. J. H. Cameron, who has been confined to her home with a severe attack of the flu, is getting along as well as can be expected.

Mrs. Mary Baruffi was very pleasantly surprised last Friday evening when her children and grandchildren and their families came to help her celebrate her sixtieth birthday anniversary.

Marriage License Issued Robert Streck, 20, Deerfield; Ruth Reeh, 21, Deerfield. Issued at Lake County court house at Waukegan.

America has too much of everything. No American has enough of anything.—Dunbar's Weekly (Phoenix).

Advertisement for Sinclair Products featuring a car illustration and text: SUPER SERVICE, CHECK, GAS, OIL, GREASE, AIR, BATTERY, TIRES, SINCLAIR PRODUCTS, ELM PLACE SERVICE STATION, Corner Elm Place at First Street, Phone 5555 H. P.

Mrs. Hoover Review "The Bright Land at Meeting"

To a large and appreciative of the Deerfield Woman's Tuesday afternoon, Feb. 20, C. C. Kapschull-presented G. Piepenbrock's report of meeting of the Tenth I which Mrs. Ivor Jeffrey president. Mrs. Grace Morri of Women's Clubs, and Mr. Farrell, president of the I eration of Women's Cl guests of honor at this di ing, and Mrs. Poole broug did message, "Come, Let Together."

The review of Janet A bank's new book, "The Br which was given by Mr. H. Hoover, was so very that undoubtedly "The Br will be the book in great for some time. A sketch of the author added to ciation of her work, an most interesting of all, M told of writing to the aut ceiving a personal righ Mrs. Fairbank explained happened to write about about five years ago, mo her son from Lake Gen the Mississippi River, a in Galena on the way, so deeply impressed with of the place and the r eal of the old house determined then to use setting of a story. A first thought was of a the idea grew, and the long story which r story of the trend of w fairbank from New En tremendous amount of r which was necessary to book "real"; her wan reading, through the Galena Gazette, the let tes of the people who those years '40's and are encompassed in "Land."

Mrs. Hoover, giving sion of the book, said, "Land" is a delightful which gives a panoram can life during an era terest—the nineteenth writer has put a touch interest in her study of tic relations of the nu actors portrayed by her story incidents of t

The novel is a long braces a period of a fifty years, and tells the generations of people. effect the numerous ch upon the life of Abbey story presents a grea dents, but the author fully moulded them it that the reader has no tic impression of it.

Mrs. Fairbank has o life of Abbey Delight ure of the people an of living in the middl tenth century. She b bey from her girlhood England and brought realize the fullness of her woman's part in th

Large advertisement for Rapp Bros. featuring a menu of meats, poultry, fish, and vegetables, along with a "Butter" and "Lard" section. Includes prices and special offers for Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, and March 1st.

Advertisement for Vogue Cleaners & Dyers featuring a woman's profile and text: "such SAVINGS on the Finest Quality Dry Cleaning! Deluxe Service Evening Attire - Velvets and Knits 75c and up. 3 Suits - Dresses Hats Topcoats - Women's Coats etc. Cleaned and Pressed (Cash and Carry) 1 SERVICE. Phone Highland Park 3900, 327-329 N. Green Bay Road, Highland Park. Phone Lake Forest 1200, CONVENIENTLY LOCATED.

Advertisement for Sanit featuring a "WEE EN" logo and text: "THURSDAY FRESH DRESS CHICKENS... PORK ROA... VITAMINE... EK. FANCY WINESAP... CALIFORNIA JUICY ORA... 200-216 size: do... SANIT