Elmhurst Scout Band to Play Here Tuesday

A forty-two piece Boy Scout band from Elmhurst will be featured at a local Boy Scout Court of Honor and Camp Rally this next Tuesday, May 23, at the Lincoln School auditorium. There will be free admission to this public gathering and all Scouts, parents and friends are invited to come. This gathering was originally scheduled for Friday, the 26, but the date has been changed to Tuesday.

Scouts and friends from Deerfield and Highwood will assemble with the Highland Park group for this meeting. In addition to the Elmhurst Scout band, another feature on this entertaining program will be Sam Guerinello, Baby Ruth Candy Accordion Man, who is well known on radio and stage as an outstanding accordionist. Awards for the past few months will be made to the Scouts and troops present. George Scheuchpflug, district Scout commissioner of Deerfield.

Award Meeting of Girl Reserves May 18

The Girl Reserves of Highland Park, Deerfield and Highwood will hold their last combined meeting of the year on Thursday, May 18, at the Y.W.C.A. The occasion is the last award meeting of the year, at which achievement awards will be given out. This meeting will also be in the nature of a dedication service, for the new council ring built in back of the "Y" just above the ravine will be used for the first time and will be dedicated for the future use of all girls.

The meeting will begin at five o'clock with games and a picnic supper and will be followed by the presentation of awards by Mrs. Edelbert Leonard. The closing ceremony will be the dedication of the council ring and the lighting of the fire.

Surprise Reception Held Last Thursday

Rev. and Mrs. Earl J. Brusco were given a surprise reception on Thursday evening by parishioners of the Bethlehem Evangelical church, in honor of Rev. Brusco's re-appointment to the Deerfield church for another year.

Arno Frantz, as chairman, introduced the various members who participated in the program. David Stryker played a piano solo. An enjoyable composition, "The Bruscos Are Coming Back," written as a parody on a popular song by Dorothy Vetter, was sung by Cary Frantz and Miss Vetter.

A tea table skit by Voneta Frost, Mary Laing, and Barbara Boone, was cleverly presented in song, with Mrs. Chester Wessling at the piano.

The Queen Esther Circle sang a group of original songs about the Bruscos which were enthusiastically received.

The pastor received a gift from members of the church, which he graciously accepted.

Refreshments were served to the eighty-six guests, bringing the evening to a friendly close.

Meeting of Legion to Be Held This Evening

The next regular meeting of Dumaresq Spencer Post No. 145 of the American Legion will be held this Thursday evening, May 18, at the Masonic Temple building, 21 North Sheridan Road, beginning at 7:30.

After a short business session the balance of the evening will be turned over to the entertainment committee, which has planned to hold a party and dance to which all members of the Post and Auxiliary and their families and friends are most cordially invited. There will be good music and refreshments will be served. In order to defray expenses of the evening a small charge of admission will be made at the door.

As this will be the last indoor function before the summer months it is hoped that all members will endeavor to turn out, and help to make this affair a success.

To Sponsor Luncheon Card Party May 24

Another Bird Hike to Be Held on Tuesday

The weather last Tuesday was ideal for a bird study hike, and just about sun-up there were seven cars on the way to the Des Plaines River. The group hiked along the river in a glorious woods, and it seemed that scores of varieties of beautiful birds came out with color and song.

The trip next Tuesday, May 23, will follow a similar trail as last week's trip. The group is to leave the shelter house in Sunset Park at 6 a.m. Waterproof footwear and field glasses are needed to make the trip most enjoyable. Community Service Inc., the sponsors of this activity, and Bert S. Leech invite all to attend this trip. There is no cost.

Mr. R. G. Hardacre, Illuminating Engineer of Public Service Co. will speak at the regular meeting of the Deerfield American Legion Post Monday evening at 8 p.m. His topic will be "The Century of Progress As Seen Through the Eyes of an Illuminating Engineer." Everybody welcome.
