The new AIR-COOLED ELECTROLUX is the most amazing refrigerator advance in years

No Moving Parts
Permanent Silence
Lowest Operating Cost

Years from the day you have an Electrolux Air-Cooled Gas Refrigerator installed it will be giving as silent, as dependable, as low cost automatic refrigeration service as the first day of its use.

Time will not lessen the perfect efficiency of Electrolux. This unusual automatic refrigerator has no moving parts to wear, make noise, vibrate or need repairing and replacement. A tiny gas flame takes the place of machinery—and assures you lowest operating cost—permanent silence—constant dependability.

Come in now and inspect the Electrolux models in our display—or telephone. Get complete information on Electrolux—then compare!

Users answered "YES" to each of these questions

- Why has Electrolux been installed in so many thousands of homes? More than 100 North Shore owners supplied the answer when they replied "YES" to the following questions:
- (1) Did the fact that it makes cold without machinery have some influence in your decision to invest in an Electrolux?
 - (2) Does the silence of Electrolux make its use free from annoyance?
 - (3) Do you enjoy the convenience and dependability of continuous, even cold?
 - (4) Do you believe Electrolux helps you save on food bills?
 - (5) Do you like preparing frozen desserts and salads in Electrolux? . . . Careful buyers may examine other automatic refrigerators—but they BUY Electrolux!

USES NO WATER

Quick Facts
Costs less to operate
Split shelves
Permanently silent - No moving parts
Temperature regulator for quick freezing
Two-temperature chilling unit
Constant, steady cold
Non-stop defrosting
Trigger-release trays
Uses no water

Remember the important fact—the gas used by an Electrolux never passes through a hole no larger than the point of a pin. Electrolux costs less to operate than any other refrigerator.
