Worth While Thoughts

In accounting for his success, one man who left school in the fifth grade, said he had to work his head so hard in handling his jobs as a young man that he got the habit of hard headwork—and finally his head got so it could work pretty well.

That's the way anybody makes a success in life.

Boys and girls who are compelled to work their heads hard on assignments handed to them in school are the more fortunate boys and girls, although some of them do not think so when they are in school.

And when out of school, some think they do not need to work their heads hard any more. They don't work their heads hard unless they just have to.

Ambition puts this "have to" into them.

In our business, ambition to please you makes our heads work hard for you.

High School Orchestra Plays At World's Fair On Monday Afternoon

The Deerfield-Shields High School Orchestra, under the direction of Mrs. Helen Mayer Mannings, played at A Century of Progress Exposition Monday afternoon, June 12, in the Court of the Electrical Building between 4 and 5 o'clock.

A splendid audience heard this fine organization of young musicians.

Retta Hispley, tuba player, Mary Alan Hokenson, harpist, Elizabeth Hoffman, flutist, played the contest numbers. Miss Hispley and Miss Hokenson scored in the superior group at the national contest and Miss Hoffman at the state contest.

The students were transported to and from the grounds in private cars.

Mrs. Mannings wishes to thank the administration of the Fair through Highland Park Press for the splendid co-operation, interest and assistance given her on Monday afternoon. This is festival week at the Fair.

Many Present At Advanced Officers Night, Held June 7

A very lovely meeting was held last Wednesday evening at Campbell Chapter, O.E.S., when advanced officers' night was observed. The hall was most attractively decorated with huge bouquets of peonies. Mrs. Agnes Nelson, acting worthy matron, and Edward Strenger as worthy patron, portrayed their work in a most efficient manner.

Other officers of the evening were Mrs. R. C. Bleimel, associate matron; Herman Johnson of Lake Forest, associate patron; Mrs. Hazel Smith of Winnetka, treasurer; Mrs. Anna Feltes of Rogers Park, secretary; Mrs. Gertrude Goseman, conductress; Mrs. Mildred Wilmoth, Pentalfa, associate conductress; Mrs. Ruth Notz of Deerfield, chaplain; Mrs. Margaret Ulrich, Park Ridge, marshal; Mrs. Gertrude A. Thomas, Waukegan, organist; Mrs. Louise Smith, Lincolnwood, soloist; Dorothy, Kuelzow, Wilmette, Ada; Laverne Hult, Honor, Ruth; Blanche Hollands, Lake Forest, Esther; Lois Larson Kent, Martha; Arvilla Tomkins, Waukegan, Electa; Sophie Calder, Easter, Warder; James Thompson, sentinel and Mrs. Adelaide Greene was guest of honor for the evening.

A very delightful surprise to the chapter was the appearance of Mrs. Henry F. Clow, past matron of the chapter who now resides in Los Angeles, Calif., and who has just arrived here to spend a few weeks with relatives in her home town.

The work of the evening was very creditably portrayed by the advanced and visiting officers.

At the close of the evening a social hour followed. The tables in the dining room were most attractively decorated in pink roses and lilies of the valley.

Despite the intense heat of the evening, a very large crowd was present at this meeting, which will long be remembered as one of the outstanding evenings of the year.

The next meeting of the chapter will be held Wednesday evening, June 21st, Deerfield and Lake Forest chapter have been invited to attend.

Fire Damages a Fine Home Here On Tuesday

Fire, presumably starting from burning waste paper in a fireplace, damaged one of Highland Park's fine residences to the extent of about $2000 Tuesday afternoon. The house was the W. D. Mann residence at 250 East Park avenue, occupied by Howard M. Sims and family.

The Highland Fire Department fought a stubborn roof blaze in the front part of the structure for more than an hour before it was subdued. The blaze was first noticed by a passerby, who notified the maid who had been burning paper in the fireplace.

The streets around the home contained several hundred spectators as the firemen sought to get the flames under control. Tarpsaulins were spread over the furnishings on the second floor to protect them from smoke and water, and much of the first floor furniture was carried from the house as the firemen fought the blaze.

Milani's Restaurant To Open Saturday Night

Spaghetti and beer will be served free the opening night of a new restaurant in Highwood, next Saturday night.

FRANK WALSH WINS NORTH SHORE OPEN

Candidacy For Commandership Championship At Sunset Valley In Playoff

The sixth annual North Shore Open golf championship held at the Sunset Valley Golf Club in Highland Park last Sunday and Monday, was won by Frank Walsh, brilliant curly-headed professional at Bryn Mawr. Walsh won the play-off after he had been placed in a three-way tie with Harry Cooper of Glen Oak and Sam Bernardi of Briar-gate with a 144 card.

The "sudden death" play-off that broke the three-way tie, found Mr. Walsh taking a par four and Cooper and Bernardi both going one over. Cooper, short at the green, tried to even things up with a chip shot, but hit the pin and rolled on for considerable yardage. Bernardi lacked the power of his previous long shots and failed to get the ball near enough to the cup. Walsh, the most consistent of the three, played safe and continued the fine playing he had exhibited in the two day tournament by taking a par four.

Guldahl Plays Monday

Ralph Guldahl of St. Louis, high scoring professional in the National Open, added to the excitement of the tournament by playing 36 holes after resting Sunday. With the same erratic putting he had exhibited in the open the previous day Guldahl had a 33-39-74 in the morning and an afternoon score of 39-37-76 for a total of 150.

Richard Martin, fair-haired luminary from the University of Illinois, failed to make his final appearance Monday after he had led the amateurs Sunday with a 72 score. Dick had returned to Champaign to receive his diploma in law and did not return. Chick Evans was also among those missing, being detained by business.

Winner Takes $350 and Medal Walsh's one-stroke play-off victory gave him a medal and $350. Cooper and Bernardi split $300 between them. Ky Laffoon, Denver pro, who went the rounds Sunday with a snappy 145, received $100. John Revolta successfully went 336 holes in the final day's play in 146 for $100. Revolta might have tied the three winners had the wind stayed down.

First place in the amateur division went to Bill Chambers of Sunset Valley, who was given a huge silver statue of a player for tying Revolta with 146. Don Armstrong of Aurora scored a 71 Monday to give him a 147 and second place. Art Olson, Al Favaelli, Chicago district amateur champion, Bob Cary, Alex Wolack, Johnny Van Nortwick Jr., and Winfield Day were the other amateurs to be rewarded.

The other "pros" who received a part of the purse were Joe Paletti, Alex Ayton of Springfield, Jim Toules, St. Paul Open champion, Bill Schwartz of St. Louis, and Bob Barnett of Washington, D.C.

Nerem of 247 Central avenue is giving a garden party Tuesday afternoon, June 20, at 1:30 o'clock for the purpose of raising funds with which to purchase a new cook stove for the Sarah Hackett Stevenson Memorial home. The Stevenson memorial has been engaged in the work of caring for working mothers and their children. It was established at the close of the last World's Fair and has been in existence for the past forty years. Mrs. Plant Speaks At Highwood Forum Friday

The Highwood Forum held its last meeting Friday, June 9, at the Highwood Methodist Church.

Mrs. William M. Plant spoke and gave a very interesting description of her work during the past few years when she was in charge of censoring all the movies that came to Highland Park. Many questions were raised and discussed. It was the consensus of opinions of all those present that her work was a worthwhile contribution to the community and filled a very definite need.

The next meeting of the Forum will be held June 23 in the church basement.

Sandwich Collection Continues Wednesdays

Every Wednesday for the past three years the schools and Highland Park friends of Northwestern University Settlement have sent sandwiches to the hungry children of the settlement district.

During the winter they are distributed at six schools, furnishing a noon meal to those little people who otherwise would have nothing until evening and then probably little.

When the schools here close, it is felt that it is not right to discontinue this much needed charity. Therefore on each Wednesday, not later than 9:30 a.m. there will be a carton at the Northwestern Station at Highland Park and Ravinia and some one in charge to pack the sandwiches, or any other food stuff you may care to send. Please help us to help others.

Saturday's Vote Is 518 Against And 310 For A Separate High School

The election held last Saturday to sound out the opinion of the voters of the Deerfield-Shields Township High School district on the proposed plan of building and maintaining an extension of the school in Lake Forest, resulted in a small vote, there being 518 ballots registered against the proposition and 310 votes for it.

Lake Forest cast the heaviest negative vote, 216 to 66. In the rest of the district, there were 302 votes against the plan and 244 votes for it.

For some time Lake Forest has been seeking to establish its own independent high school. This would require a withdrawal from the Deerfield-Shields district. Lake Forest asserts that it pays a disproportionate share of the school taxes with less return than other parts of the district. Saturday's election, had it been the reverse, would have meant that Lake Forest might have been given a separate, but not an independent, high school, and would have made withdrawal from the present district more difficult.

Seventy Families Have Listed Rooms To Rent

More than 70 Highland Park families have listed rooms to rent to World's Fair visitors, it was reported to the members of the Highland Park Chamber of Commerce at its meeting Tuesday evening at the Green Tea Pot. The Chamber of Commerce is sponsoring this renting program this summer and it is attracting visitors to this city through its program of renting and placing highway signs west of town, inviting motorists to come to Highland Park.

Mayor Egidio Moeogni, of Highwood, was a guest at the dinner-meeting of the Chamber Tuesday night, and told about that city's future policies, assuring the city of Highland Park and the local Chamber of Commerce of the support and co-operation of Highwood.

A communication was read at Tuesday evening's meeting from the assistant secretary of the navy, explaining that department's attitude in retaining the Great Lakes Naval Training Station in an active status, and regretting that because of having to curtail expenses, the station was to be temporarily discontinued. A letter was read from the Illinois Commerce Commission in the matter of various trucking and bus companies, whose applications for certificates of convenience and necessity to operate scheduled routes on Green Bay and Sheridan Roads are on file. The letter explained the stand of the commerce commission on these applications.

The Highland Park Chamber of Commerce is advising its members and asking the co-operation of all business men in this community to adopt a uniform policy in regard to the refund of money collected as a state sales tax during the time of the brief existence of that measure.

The Chamber recommends that business men display signs notifying their customers that refunds will be made up to July 15. After that date all remaining funds will be given to the Highland Park Social Service Committee.
