Black Hawks and Wild Cats In Race For the Indoor Championship

The first round of the Lincoln Park Indoor Baseball league finished this week with the Black Hawks leading by one game and the Wild Cats in second place with two games lost. The second round of the league will start next week, a meeting of the managers having been called for Thursday night, June 28, at Lincoln Park, at which time a new schedule will be arranged to start next Monday, July 3. The winners of the first round will play the winners of the second round for the championship of the league as soon as the round is completed.

All league games are played at Lincoln Park beginning at 6:30 p.m. every night. Four diamonds are now available at this park and are being used not only for regular scheduled games but also for informal play by those wishing to do so.

Bridle Paths

Polo Field

Commencing next Sunday, July 2, will see one of the biggest weekends of polo and horse activities that has ever been seen at Fort Sheridan. Sunday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock the famous El Ranchito polo quartet from Arlington, Texas, will play the 6th Corps Area. This Texas team has been playing Oak Brook for the past two weeks where they were victorious.

The El Ranchitos have come up here from Texas with about fifty head of their very best polo ponies, and needless to say, they have no desire of facing defeat. Then, Monday morning, Monday afternoon, Tuesday morning, and Tuesday afternoon, will be the much-heralded and welcomed Sixth Corps Area Horse Show on the beautiful Fort Sheridan Horse Show grounds facing Lake Michigan. Following the 4th of July afternoon horse show, the second of the three game series between Fort Sheridan and El Ranchitos will be played at 6:00 o'clock. These three big days will give all horse-loving people an opportunity to see some of the best horses in the country in action.

The line-up will be: El Ranchito—A. B. Wharton (1), Alfred House (2), Cecil Childers (3), D. H. Stevens Jr. (4). Fort Sheridan—L. G. S. Smith (1), Capt. C. A. Wilkinson (2), Capt. C. E. Davis (3), Lt. L. G. Smith (4).

Society's summer rendezvous is again Arlington Park race track. The Post and Paddock club becomes the center of aristocratic entertaining. The Century of Progress has been a magnet for international celebrities for the past month, yet few visitors to this great exposition feel that they have really comoted Chicago's permanent attractions unless their sojourn has included a tour of Arlington, where in addition to other allurements is now installed the only all-electric totalizer in the world. Leaders in commercial and professional life of the United States are among the members of the Post and Paddock club and of the Arlington Jockey club that operates the track.

Hosts during the season at Arlington include Wolcott Blair, son of the late Watson Blair, long a power in financial circles. Mr. Blair a cousin of the Marchesa d'Ivanrey of Spain, has the same remarkable Castilian cast of countenance as made the Marchesa in her girlhood as Italia Blair, noted throughout Europe for her beauty. A Watson Armour, brother of Laurance Armour, president of the Post and Paddock club, is another frequent host, his parties including as a rule his son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. W. Irving Osborne Jr., and his son, A. Watson Armour Jr., considered one of the most eligible young men in Chicago. Last year the junior Mr. Armour and John Simpson went on a most successful African safari. Laurance and Watson Armour were former residents of Kansas City, Mo.

Louis Eckstein, the man who for many seasons gave Chicago summer opera at Ravinia that was the cynosure of all eyes and one of the wonders of the musical world, is another Post and Paddock member and devotee of Arlington, as is also Max Epstein, connoisseur of art and financial power.

Arthur Cutten is another wizard of finance who finds relaxation at Arlington.

Benjamin L. Behr, who happens to be a brother-in-law of Otto Lehman, president of the Arlington Park Jockey Club is another frequent host. Mrs. Behr was Miss Kate Lehmann and is an excellent horsewoman. Their daughter Edith is one of the most beautiful and popular members of the exclusive set of Chicago.

There will be games of all kinds during the afternoon and night. Good music has been provided, and dancing will go on from 7 p.m. till midnight.

TUTORING

1 Has your child's academic trouble been the result of inadequate preparation; failure of school in permitting student to go ahead without sufficient fundamentals or hypocrisies with parents in order to get tuition?

2 Inability of parents to cope with situation as a matter of control, perhaps a fear of alienating child's affection or unavoidable outside interests?

3 Refusal of student to buckle into routine because of stubborn mental resistance built up through persistent exculpation of trivial but exaggerated faults?

These factors may show a continuity which, if treated rationally, can evidence a satisfactory readjustment. They cannot be solved as part of group work. Personal supervision is vital. Disinterested, confidential analysis.
