

Annual Picnic To Be Given Sunday By the Unemployed League

Annual picnic will be given by Deerfield Township Unemployed League on Sunday, July 2, at Santi's four miles west of Highwood off Day Road.

Proceeds from the picnic will be used by the league to defray expenses in connection with the farm garden project. All families are invited to come out early and to their lunch baskets with them.

Grounds will be open all day and concert will follow immediately after the picnic lunch. Some of the speakers, including Roy Prof. Maynard Krueger, and others, have been secured for the picnic. Refreshments and sandwiches of all kinds will be served on grounds after 1 p.m.

There will be games of all kinds during the afternoon and night. Music has been provided, and dancing will go on from 7 p.m. till midnight.

TUTORING

Has your child's academic trouble been the result of inadequate preparation; failure of school in permitting student to proceed without sufficient fundamentals or hypocrisy with parents in order to get tuition?

Inability of parents to cope with situation as a matter of fact; perhaps a fear of alienation; child's affection or unavailability outside interests?

Refusal of student to buckle into routine because of stubborn mental resistance built up through persistent exculpation of fault but exaggerated faults?

These factors may show a condition which, if treated rationally, can evidence a satisfactory adjustment. They cannot be treated as part of group work. Personal supervision is vital. Distressed, confidential analysis.

MONEY...ROMANCE...TRAVEL

She read this fortune in a teacup

perhaps it may be your fortune too

"JUST a childish game," Rose told herself. But still the words kept running through her head, "Money—Romance—Travel—" How could she make the fortune a reality? As a matter of fact wasn't she saving, scrimping, to help Jack get ahead. Somehow, though, they seemed to be losing the old comradeship. Was it possible that she could accomplish more by doing less; by delegating drudgery and giving her leisure to Jack? Rose wondered...

But now she has discovered that the woman who keeps herself fresh and radiant is doing far more for her husband and for herself—than she could by burying herself in household tasks. The biggest burden is old-fashioned washday in the home. Millions of women have found a way out. The modern power laundry has solved their problem. Our laundry routeman will help you select a service that exactly meets your needs.
