

BEER IS STILL "UP IN THE AIR" HERE

a charter granted by the state, and local officials have no power to change that charter.

The city commissioners are divided in their opinion on that question, and a meeting of the council last Monday night at the city hall nearly resulted in disorder several times because of heated debates of the commissioners and citizens in their attempts to straighten out the tangle. The meeting closed with dissatisfaction over the failure to permit the sale of beer here, on the one hand, and the failure to prove that the city officials are powerless to establish the legality of selling the beverage here.

Two local attorneys who attended the meeting Monday night contend that the city's original charter of 1872 is not in force regarding the sale of beer, inasmuch as, they say, the old charter was superseded when the commission form of government was adopted in 1914. Accordingly, they stated, no provisions of the old charter could now be followed in licensing beer dispensers.

Mr. Gail's interpretation of the city's laws is that the original charter was nullified only in places where there was conflict with the 1914 statutes, and that there was no conflict in the provisions regulating the sale of alcoholic beverages, because they were stated almost identically in both documents.

Taxpayers Party in Highwood Holds Open Meetings This Week

ties of this state and nation. If delegated to do any work or asked for any favors for the community from higher authorities, the citizens of Highwood can rest assured that if it is in his power to get, Mr. Santi will get it.

"For city clerk, Charles Redmond, an outstanding citizen who has been employed by the American Steel & Wire Company for the past 15 years in the clerical department, thus gives him the necessary qualifications for city clerk.

"For city treasurer, Sam Bernardi, one of the most successful business men of Highwood, is a man of high character and is known for his work in charitable enterprises and in civic life.

"For police magistrate, Andrew J. Walsh, a tax payer and citizen in the city for the past 20 years. He has a family of his own and his only aim is to give the community a department of justice that will protect the people rather than one that is a burden. He has held numerous city and county positions and his honesty is obvious to all.

"For aldermen of the three wards the ticket offers: first ward, Richard (Ted) Shannon; second ward, Domenick Cudchi; third ward, Robert Saielli.

"If elected the entire ticket pledges you that we will rid the city of any and all kinds of gambling houses and any and all the other illicit places that are now in operation. We will establish a new and clean police force. This will enable the people of the other communities to drive through town without being hindered by the police department."

(Signed) Sam Santi, Charles Redmond, Sam Bernardi, Andrew J. Walsh, Richard Shannon, Domenick Cudchi, Robert Saielli.

An open meeting was held at the residence of Vencil Muzik on Tuesday, sponsored by the People's Taxpayers Party. About 100 ladies were entertained at 500 and bunco, and prizes were awarded. The meeting was addressed by the candidates on the ticket. The attendance of 473 was one of the largest ever gathered in Highwood.

An open meeting will be held at the St. James Hall on this evening (Thursday), to which all voters in Highwood are invited. Outstanding speakers are promised.

"Girl Shy" Rehearsals Make Good Progress

The three-act comedy "Girl-Shy" now in rehearsal by the Young People's Dramatic Club, under direction of Catherine Marie Geary, is well under way and a finished performance is expected on Friday and Saturday evenings, May 5-6, at the Oak Terrace school.

"Girl-Shy" was one of the stepping stones to Harold Lloyd's success as a comedian and has just been released shortly for amateur production. It is a very clever vehicle for dramatic talent and the Young People's Dramatic club are working hard to get a laugh out of every line. The cast is exceptionally well chosen and all are living their parts laughing through rehearsals until May 5 and 6.

Tickets are now on sale and may be secured through any of the club members.

Jewish Artists Put On Display April 10-26

The North Shore Congregation Israel Temple, Lincoln and Vernon avenues, Glencoe, extends a cordial invitation to all who are interested to view the exhibition of the works of contemporary Jewish artists now on display in the temple lounge. This exhibit will be on view for two weeks from April 10 to 26.

The purpose of the exhibit is not propaganda, but to show art as created by Jewish artists. There is a desire to acquaint the already enlightened public in other fields of culture with the efforts of contemporary Jewish artists.

Among the etchings and oils on display will be found the works of such artists as Glicenstein, Gellar, Katz, Rosenberg, and a host of others.

HIGHWOOD TO VOTE ON NEXT TUESDAY

To the Voters of Highwood:

As we feel that Highwood should have for a Police Magistrate, a man thoroughly acquainted and experienced in all types of legal matters, and one who can give justice to all, we have requested Charles Glass to run for Police Magistrate, even though his name will not appear on the ballot.

Charles Glass has an established office, and certainly has proven that he is worthy of your vote and support by his unblemished record during his terms of office.

During this time of depression, many of us need legal advice every day, and we do not have the money to hire attorneys. Charles Glass has always given free legal advice and can be depended upon doing so in the future.

His name will not appear on the ballot, but every Highwood citizen has the legal right of writing in the name of Charles Glass in the Independent column under Police Magistrate, and putting a box and a cross before his name.

The people of Highwood should fully realize that they will need a man for this office to whom they may go at any time, and who will look after the welfare of the public at large.

Therefore we urge you to elect Charles Glass for Police Magistrate assuring you that he possesses all the necessary qualifications and that he will carry out the duties of this office to the best of his ability.
