HIGHWOOD, DEERFIELD TO GET POSTOFFICES?

Local Towns Included In List of 1600 Projects In Public Works

Highwood and Deerfield will get new postoffices out of the "new deal" unless the "economy clique" in the public works administration in Washington, headed by Lewis Douglas, director of the budget, succeeds in over-riding the recommendation of the treasury departments' supervising architect's office.

The two local projects, not heard from since Vice-President John N. Garner's public works bill was defeated in June, 1933, are included in a list of approximately 1600 projects submitted by the treasury to Harold L. Ickes, Secretary of the Interior and public works administrator, and his public works advisory board, and which is to be taken under consideration within the next two weeks.

More than a month will be required to work over the entire list. The idea of the public works administration is to shape a new program of federal construction which can be undertaken this winter if continued unemployment makes it advisable.

The first building program recommended by the treasury, aggregating $150,000,000, was pared down to approximately $50,000,000 by the activities of the "economy clique." On this basis, the chances of the Highwood and Deerfield projects are about one to three.

Specific sums to be allotted to the projects, in the event they are allowed, have not been determined, but are expected to run between $50,000 and $75,000.

Aleyon Theatre Showing Good Movies This Week

"The Eagle and the Hawk," with Frederic March, Carole Lombard, Cary Grant and Jack Oakie, can be seen tonight for the last time at the Aleyon.

Joe E. Brown is well known for the kind of entertainment he gives, and he can be seen this week on Friday and Saturday in "Elmer the Great." This film is filled with laughs galore and plenty of excitement.

Bert Wheeler and Robert Woolsey in "Diplomatics" is to be the feature attraction for Sunday and Monday, Aug. 6 and 7. This is a tuneful movie with the usual Wheeler and Woolsey fun.

"Made on Broadway" with Robert Montgomery and Sally Eilers as the stars will be shown on Tuesday and Wednesday, Aug. 8 and 9. They are assisted by the beautiful "Madge Evans.

"International House" with many famous stars and radio friends is coming to the Aleyon theatre Aug. 10, 11, and 12. Also to each evening's program is added interesting short subjects and comedies.

N. S. Garden Club Hold Garden Tour

The North Shore Garden Club announces a tour of several lovely Winnetka and Kenilworth gardens on Tuesday, August 8. The tour will start from the Episcopal Church, corner of Warwick road and Kenilworth Avenue, Kenilworth at three o'clock.

Miss Ruth May, one of the professional members of the club will conduct the tour.

In case of rain, the tour will be held on Thursday instead of Tuesday.

WORTH WHILE THOUGHTS

Getting along well with others is a fine art that is practiced by all successful people.

We say, "I takes two to make a quarrel."

Now and then a good quarrel may be the best way to settle a difference—provided it does settle it.

Also provided at least one of the parties in the quarrel does not hold a grudge about the matter for a long time. For when one party to a quarrel shows that he can be friends again, usually the other follows suit.

But the best policy is self-insulation against quarreling just by knowing that quarreling is seldom, if ever, necessary or wise.

Here in this business of ours we aim to confine our "quarreling" to the problem of finding the best ways and means of making more satisfied customers.

Carnival at St. James. Church Will Be Held On Aug. 10, 11 and 12

Plans are nearing completion for the annual carnival of St. James Parish to be held Thursday, Friday and Saturday, August 10, 11 and 12. It will be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Vencil Muzik on Green Bay Road, Highwood. Each year that this annual festa has been given, there have been many new and enjoyable features added and this year's promises to exceed any held in the past.

The Carnival will open on Thursday afternoon with a card party, which will start at 2 o'clock in charge of Mrs. Bart Moran and which is open to the public. From 5:30 to 8 o'clock a chicken dinner will be served. Mrs. Nick Williams will be in charge of this dinner. The price this year has been greatly reduced.

On Friday afternoon the children will have their afternoon, for there will be the grab bag and many other attractive features to interest the youngsters. From 5:30 to 8 o'clock on Friday evening a fish dinner will be served, under the direction of Mrs. James Smith.

Aside from the dinners, there will be dancing each evening from 8 to 12 o'clock, with music furnished by a popular north shore orchestra. During each evening sandwiches and other refreshments may be secured.

For those who do not dance there will be the corn game and many other attractive features for their entertainment. Prizes will be awarded on the last evening of the carnival.

Mrs. Andrew Walsh and Marshall Williams are the chairmen in charge of this gala affair, which, from all indications promises to be one of the biggest affairs ever held by St. James Parish.

Local Coal, Material Dealers Accept Code

Effective from the first day of August, 1933, the Highland Park Coal and Material Dealers have voluntarily and whole-heartedly accepted the President's plan under the National Recovery Act and have reduced the daily working hours from 9 to 8 at the same scale wage, and will now operate on a five-day or forty hour per week basis.

Until further notice there will be no delivery service on Saturdays.

$1000 Open Event at Columbia Club Sunday

Several local golf amateurs expect to enter the $1000 open tournament at the Columbia Country Club, at Wheeling, next Sunday, Aug. 6.

The members of the American Ryder Cup team are expected to enter the tournament, and Johnny Goodman, new open champion, of Omaha, may also compete, as well as most leading amateurs of the Chicago district.

THIS COMMUNITY IS WORKING WITH N.R.A.

Local Business Men Signing Codes, Putting More Men To Work

Citizens of Highland Park, Deerfield, Highwood and Ravinia, and business men of these communities who are employers of labor of all kinds, are demonstrating their willingness to co-operate with the National Recovery Administration which this week launched its drive to provide more jobs, fewer hours and higher wages for labor.

That this program is the most important part, to date, of President Franklin D. Roosevelt's "New Deal," is generally agreed by local people, and the dissenting voices to the policies advocated by the National Recovery Administration are practically non-existent.

Several hundred local citizens have already signed the blanks promising co-operation with the government in the matter of trading with firms which sign the recovery code, and fully sixty per cent of local business firms have already signed that code. Others are signing almost hourly, after studying the provisions and requirements carefully, and waiting for recommendations from the particular trade or professional group to which they belong.

Typical of local firms which have signed the code and put its principles into practice, is the Highland Park store of Sears, Roebuck and Company. Beginning on Monday morning this week, one day before the "new deal" was to have gone into effect, the local Sears store shortened its hours from 8 o'clock a.m. to 6 o'clock p.m. as the closing hour. The store will hereafter close at 8 o'clock Saturday night, instead of 9 o'clock. A job already has been created for one extra man.

A telegram, received by C. N. McMahon, manager of the local store, said in part: "Sears, Roebuck and Company believes that fair wages, reasonable working hours and more jobs result in national prosperity, not only for the industrial worker but also for the farmer who benefits through a better market for his crops. Because that firm belief is one of the principles which for years has guided the Sears organization, we were among the first to sign the agreement."

Gen. R. E. Wood, of Highland Park, is president of Sears, Roebuck and Company.

Other firms here are similarly providing work for more men and women, too, are shortening hours, and are maintaining or even raising wages. A spirit of optimism prevails here.

Chamber of Commerce To Meet Next Tuesday

The next regular monthly dinner-meeting of the Highland Park Chamber of Commerce will be held Thursday evening of next week at 6:30 at the Green Tea Pot on North Sheridan Road.

The speaker will be John N. Vander Vries, manager of the North Central Division of the U. S. Chamber of Commerce, and his topic will be the "National Industrial Recovery Act."

"Perhaps no more renowned speaker could have been found along this present legislation," say officials of the Chamber of Commerce, "and with Mr. Van der Vries having daily contact at Washington, Highland Park merchants are afforded a wonderful opportunity to hear the real purpose, functions and benefits of the Industrial Act."

CITIZEN'S EMPLOYMENT COMMITTEE STATEMENT "We Do Our Part"

The Citizen's Employment Committee was organized to furnish "Employment Relief" supplementary to township aid for the month of June.

Work relief was supplied to 75 men and women in that month, by our own people. It was true relief work.

It was deemed advisable to continue the committee's work for the month of July. A proclamation, again calling upon our people to continue June's program, resulted in 76 requests for help being filed.

To facilitate the activity a telephone service (H. P. 4091) was given by the Highland Park Social Service for this purpose, and two men (working for their food orders)

EXPLOSION WRECKS COTTAGE IN RAVINIA

Officials Investigating Blast of Last Saturday Night

The south end of Highland Park, in the Ravinia district near County Line Road, was rocked by a terrific explosion late Saturday, under mysterious circumstances that have started an inquiry by local police and fire officials, and the state fire marshal's office.

The blast did damage estimated at not more than $1000 to the three-room cottage occupied by Peter Frego at 2254 South Green Bay Road. The building is on the west side of the road, near the entrance to the estate of Mrs. Raymond W. Stevens.

Mr. Frego, a gardener, was in Chicago when the explosion occurred. It is thought that some one broke into the house about 7 o'clock Saturday evening and spread naphtha in a clothes closet off one of the bedrooms, the blast being set off by means of a fuse. The explosion blew out a door and shattered most of the windows, and started a blaze which was put out by the fire department.

Sixth Corps Area To Oppose El Ranchito In Polo Game Sunday

A polo match between the Sixth Corps Area team and the El Ranchito riders, of Arlington, Tex., will be played at the Fort Sheridan polo field next Sunday afternoon, Aug. 6.

This will be the third game between the two teams this season. The army team won the first engagement, 12-11, in a thrilling contest. The Texans were the victors, 18-13, in the second game.

The Sixth Corps Area team will include Lt. G. S. Smith, Capt. C. A. Wilkinson, Capt. C. E. Davis and Lt. L. G. Smith, with Maj. G. C. Smith and Capt. P. P. Rodes as alternates.

The El Ranchito team will include A. E. Wharton, Jr., Alfred House, Cecil Childers and B. H. Stephens, Jr., with Earl Shaw as alternate.

Last Sunday afternoon, the Ontonagon team, composed of Charles Glore, Richard Simmons, Prentice Porter and Herbert Lorber, defeated the Fort Sheridan team, composed of Lt. R. G. Cooper, Capt. C. B. Cole, Lt. C. S. Smith and Maj. C. B. Rheinhardt, 10-7. Mr. Simmons was high-goal man, scoring four times.

The same afternoon, an army team composed of Capt. Wilkinson, Capt. Davis, Capt. Rodes and Maj. Smith, defeated a civilian team composed of Alfred House, Paul Butler, B. H. Stevens, Earl Shaw, Cecil Childers and Al Wharton, 4-2, at Oak Brook Polo Club at Hinsdale.

Highland Park Thrift Shop Is An Important Institution of Service

As a democratic institution, the Thrift Shop in Highland Park claims unique distinction. Being supported solely by donations of cast-off articles which have outlived their original service, the shop is the happy cross-roads of happy givers and satisfied buyers. The joy of giving "thrift" is the knowledge that buyer gets what he wants or needs at a low price. Clothing, shoes, furniture and furnishings, books, pictures — anything at all — can be sold at the Thrift Shop. Outgrown or outworn clothing will always fit someone else; a broken chair is gladly mended by another; even frayed sweaters contain much yarn which, unravelled, will make delightful hooked rugs. The shop always needs more goods to sell.

Under the directorship of Mrs. James L. Martin, the distribution of profits has been unique: One-fourth of the net proceeds to each of the following: Infant Welfare Society, Northwestern Settlement, and Highland Park Hospital Auxiliary. The remaining one-fourth is divided among Arden Shore, Dorcas Home, Ridge Farm Pre-ventorium, and local Social Service. Obviously the Thrift Shop is most important to this community, and must be supported.

Art Olson, Blanchard Are Low Qualifiers in Club Championship

Qualifying rounds for the club championship featured play at the Sunset Valley golf course last Sunday. Art Olson and Willie Blanchard turned in low cards for the day at 75.

Matches in the various classes were unusually close, the family affair between Art and Paul Olson in Class A requiring 21 holes before brother Paul turned in his 1 up victory. Wienie defeated Coppel 1 up after 20 holes in another hectic struggle, while Henry had an easier time eliminating Weeks, 4 and 2. In a second round Class B encounter, Huhnie carried a 1 up win over Art Haven Jr. on the 19th hole.

Play in the President's Cup matches, which have been held up by the Flinn-Schur battle, will start again this week with Carroll Snyder tangling with Doc Schur for the right to meet Art Olson in the championship match. The way the long drawing Olson has been pounding the white pellet lately bodes no good for his opponent.

Bob Moseley shot an 82 to lead the qualifiers in the junior championship. He will meet Jack Hagberg in his first match and is a favorite to enter the finals. Other qualifiers were Red Fell, Johnny Brigham, Vern Rudolph, Fred Fell, Ed Gourley, and Gordon Ball. Willie Blanchard, 1933 junior champ, has been removed from this class and tied with Art Olson for medalist honors in the club championship.

Qualifiers and pairings for the club title play follow: A. Olson (76) vs. B. Brand (83); R. Anthony (89) vs. Joe Davis (79); G. Bliss (81) vs. E. M. Murphy (90); J. Harting (84) vs. F. Abbott (77); P. Olson (79) vs. W. Colbath (87); R. Hoest (91) vs. A. Cook (81); R. Rosenthal (80) vs. L. B. McBeride (90); C. Snyder (83) vs. W. Blanchard (76).

The much ballyhooed and postponed Bob O'Link - Sunset Valley team match will be played August 13. The rivals will play 18 holes at Bob O' Link in the morning and follow with 18 at Sunset Valley in the afternoon.

Col. P. E. Help To Talk At Lions Club Meeting

Col. P. E. Help, of the Muscle Shoals Bureau of Publicity, will be the speaker at today's luncheon-meeting of the Highland Park Lions Club at the Green Tea Pot. Col. Help will discuss the Muscle Shoals project at the meeting.

Mr. Curran, a world-wide figure, is a member of the Pacific Geographic Society, the Trans Pacific Travel Club, the Adventurers Club and the A.E.F. Siberian Expedition. He will tell about his experiences in the Orient at next week's meeting.

Ladies' Aid Society Meets

The Ladies' Aid of the St. Johns Evangelical Church will meet for their regular meeting August 10, Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock at Mrs. Frank Howe's, 668 Central Avenue.

RETAIL PRICES ARE RISING EVERY DAY

Dollar Days Here Next Week To Offer Last Bargains of "Depression"

Now is the time to buy! Chicago retailers report daily charges in prices, and estimate that after Sept. 1 clothing and household articles will be up 50 per cent or more.

Highland Park merchants are giving their customers one last opportunity to buy at "depression prices," by staging the semi-annual Dollar Days here on Thursday and Friday of next week, Aug. 10 and 11.

This event will be in charge of a special Chamber of Commerce Committee, and merchants participating will advertise their offerings in next week's Highland Park Press.

The "New Deal" with its rising commodity prices, processing taxes, shorter hours, and increased wages, has sent merchants scrambling to the wholesale marts of the nation to buy up everything available before prices go higher. And many of the buyers are returning with their orders only half filled.

Not only the increase in commodity prices but the higher wages which the textile industries must pay and the limitations upon production are expected to force retail prices sharply upward, everywhere.

National Tea Company Buys Store Building Here; Price $130,000

The National Tea Company has purchased the two-story stone business building on the southwest corner of Central Avenue and First Street in Highland Park from the estate of Robert G. Evans for $130,000. The trust deed was recorded in Lake County Thursday of last week.

Part of the first floor of the building will be rebuilt for the local store of the National Tea Company's chain. This is at present occupied by the J. B. Garnett Company, dry goods and women's wear. Mr. Garnett, proprietor of the store, announces no plans as yet for his establishment.

Cash to the extent of $85,000 was involved in the purchase of the building, the funds show. The remainder of the purchase price will be paid through a loan arranged through the Chicago Title and Trust Company, which took back a trust deed for the $45,000 payable over a period of five years through ten promissory notes.

The trustees acting for the estate were Arthur E. Evans and Florence May Stevens, both of Highland Park. No broker was involved in the transaction, and only two attorneys, Paul Behanna and Ernest Gail, according to the records.

Highwood Legion Carnival Opens Today

Today, Thursday, the annual carnival of Stuyvesant Post of the American Legion of Highwood, opens at the corner of Wankegan and Webster Avenues and will continue for three days. There will be the usual carnival features including games and dancing. Numerous prizes will be awarded. This promises to be one of the biggest affairs ever held by this organization.

One of the features for the opening of the carnival will be the appearance of the Highland Park Drum and Bugle Corps which will assist in the entertainment.

Don't forget that the carnival starts today and closes on Saturday evening. Every member of the Legion and their friends should plan to attend this annual event.

Miss Lorraine Zimmer is enjoying a two weeks vacation from her duties at the Norwegian hospital of Chicago and is spending time with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Zimmer of S. Green Bay road.

Miss Janet Saathoff will spend the week-end with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry G. Saathoff of Chenoa, Ill.

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN

Friday, August 11th, 1933 has been set aside as Illinois Day at a Century of Progress, and I, EMIL B. METZEL, Mayor of the City of Highland Park, hereby urge the Citizens of this City to endeavor to observe this day with other Citizens of this great State at a Century of Progress.

EMIL B. METZEL Mayor.
