Lake County Faces Shortage of Relief Funds Immediately

Wilfred S. Reynolds, executive secretary of the Illinois Emergency Relief Commission, has advised the Lake County Emergency Relief Committee that emergency relief funds available for the remainder of 1933 will be inadequate to meet the ductions in relief costs are effected.

In a statement sent to Alvah L. Rogers, chairman of the Lake Coun- follows: ty Emergency Relief Committee, El Ranchite Mr. Reynolds said: "Illinois must de- A. B.
