VIRGINIA VAN WIE IS STILL CHAMPION

up on the queen of American golf. Her opponent was not merely some "dark horse" entry that had come up unexpectedly and now led the champion, but she was that ever-grinning National Champion of two years ago, Helen Hicks.

Helen had matched Virginia's 78 in the qualifying round and had won championship play with a par-breaker other matches with the same ease. She ended her first 18 holes of ing 77 to let her gallery and Queen Virginia know that she wanted the championship.

Helen had also beaten the best golfers in the country to meet Virginia. For example she beat Miss Edith Begg of Cleveland in the first round, 4 and 3. Mrs. Ben Fitzhugh met her Waterloo when she met Helen and lost 4 and 3, while the western champ, Miss Lucell Robinson of Des Moines, Iowa, took it on the chin by the same count, the following day. In the semi-final round Miss Maureen Orcutt of Harworth, N. J., lost to smiling Helen, 6 and 4, paving the way to the final round with Miss Van Wie Saturday.

Virginia Stages Her Comeback
Virginia started her drive during the second round of championship play. They evened the count on the fifth hole (a par 5) 400 yards. Helen took 5 and Virginia went one under and had a 4. At the seventh, Virginia, gave the crowd of 4000, the greatest thrill of the day. She was on the green with her drive and then sunk a 50 foot uphill putt for a deuce, going into the lead for the first time.

One of the most disheartening mishaps took hold of Virginia on the short ninth, when, with the match all square, things went all wrong.

Her tee shot was half buried in a trap short of the green. She attempted to explode out but went clear across the green and out on the other side into a clump of bushes near the caddy house. Her next shot had the gallery jumping, her ball landing in the midst of the on-lookers. Her fourth shot was on the green too late to win, giving Helen the hole and a lead of one up.

She also met similar trouble on the thirteenth and on the nineteenth when she foolishly played her spoon out of a trap. The ball bounded on the top of the bunker and landed a short distance away. Nevertheless she succeeded in getting hold of herself and came through in great form. She was as cool as an iceberg and never once showed the slightest bit of fatigue or strain. Her nerves must be made of iron for I don't see how she did it, but then Virginia is national champion and one of the greatest women golfers in the world.

From this point on Virginia was never headed. On the ninth of the second round she increased her lead with a stymie that baffled Helen. Her great iron shots, such as Enid Wilson found too good to equal, kept her in the running from this point until the finish, winning the 30th and 33rd with birdies to go four up, with three to go, and the match ended.

Score Par Breaking Figures
Both Miss Van Wie and Miss Helen Hicks, who are, by the way, real pals, carded scores that gave old man par a headache. In the morning round Miss Hicks's card read:

Par	555	554	343	99
	544	345	555	40 79
Miss Hicks	554	444	443	37
	554	344	555	40 77
Miss Van Wie	554	454	345	39
	555	554	454	42 81

Virginia played around in the worst figures she had during the whole tournament. Helen was around in 37, one over men's par, and Virginia had a 39. In the afternoon Virginia turned the tables and ended the first nine with a 37, while the best Helen could do was a 41. Miss Van Wie finished the 33 holes two under women's par while Helen was two over. The afternoon rounds read as follows:

Miss Van Wie	655	444	243	37
	543	344
Miss Hicks	664	545	344	41
	544	345		41

Northwestern U. Cuts
Football Ticket Rates
(By Warner Turriff)

The Northwestern University athletic department has announced a 30 per cent cut in the price of football tickets for the coming season. The new prices that were recently released are the lowest since the war.

The top price will be $2.50 and this will prevail for only three of the seven home games. Tickets for two of the remaining four games will sell for $2 and the other two for $1.50. A season ticket for the five games at Dyche stadium will be $9, an average of $1.80 per game.

In commenting on the slash in prices, K. L. "Tug" Wilson, athletic director, stated that the new scale is the lowest in many years and comes at a time when the schedule contains the best array of games in the school's history.

"When framing the 1933 schedule we sought the best home card obtainable in order to give visitors to the Worlds Fair a chance to see college football at its best. As a result, seven of our eight games will be played at home, two of them at Soldier Field and five at Dyche stadium."

"Our next move was to establish a price scale which would meet with popular approval and in doing so we slashed prices as much as 50 per cent on some games. The $3 price which prevailed at most of our games in the past is no more. The top of $2.50 is in effect for only three games and the average per game is less than $2.

When the new prices were definitely decided upon, an announcement bearing the good news, was sent to over 20,000 former ticket holders. Applications for individual game tickets will not be accepted until August 15.

Following is the cost per game:

At Soldier Field
Sept. 30 — Iowa	$1.50
Oct. 14 — Stanford	$2.50
At Dyche Stadium
Oct. 21 — Indiana	$1.50
Nov. 4 — Minnesota	$2.00
Nov. 11 — Illinois	$2.00
Nov. 18 — Notre Dame	$2.50
Nov. 25 — Michigan	$2.50

Workers-Farmers To Have Picnic At the Serbian Monastery

Preparations for a mammoth picnic of workers and farmers to be held at the Serbian Monastery Park north on Milwaukee Avenue Sunday, Sept. 10, at 1 p.m. under the auspices of the Lake County Action Committee of the Continental Congress, are well under way.

The picnic is to be the first of its kind ever held in this community and a large crowd is expected to attend, inasmuch as more than 20 labor and farmer groups in the county comprise the Lake County Action Committee.

An elaborate program, the feature of which will be a tug of war between a team composed entirely of farmers and another made up of city workers, has been arranged for the day. Two speakers of national prominence in the labor movement will also appear on the program. As a further attraction, three gate prizes will be awarded on the picnic grounds to holders of lucky numbers. The Lake County Action Commit-

American Legion Backing N. R. A.

The American Legion is backing the N.R.A. program 100 percent. All local American Legion posts recently have received the following letter from Louis Johnson, national commander, urging all members of that organization to co-operate with the national program and the local program which, it is hoped, will bring the return of stable economic conditions to this country.

Comrades of The American Legion:
Our country is in the middle of the greatest battle in its history. It is the Argonne of 1933, a fight to the finish to end conclusively the war of economic forces that has brought us all to the threshold of disaster. This battle must be won as decisively as that first battle of the Argonne in 1918 in France. Victory will be swift and certain if every American citizen does his part. No politics whatever are involved. This is no time for slackers or conscientious objectors. This is a fight to bring contentment and plenty back to millions of American homes that otherwise face another winter of hunger and misery. It is a fight to give an honest job with an honest living wage to every bread winner who wants to work.

We must not fail. We dare not fail. To the end that these objectives shall be reached swiftly and definitely I call upon all of the 10,760 posts of the American Legion to convene in meeting; to immediately offer their loyal co-operation and services to the official representative of the National Recovery Administration in their respective communities; and to co-operate in achieving its objectives. These are "battle orders."

In addition I call upon every individual Legionnaire to pledge his individual services in this great effort to end unemployment, increase purchasing power and banish the forces of depression, with their attendant suffering, from our gates. Let us as the American Legion march a million strong into the battle lines of this struggle for national recovery and economic justice.

The day after President Roosevelt was inaugurated, in a radio address to the Legion, the President had this to say:

"The men of the ranks of the Legion, in the trying days of fifteen years ago, offered for the welfare and preservation of their country the ultimate contribution that a human can give. The deep necessities of peace are no less serious."

"To the end that the efforts I am giving in these first days of my administration may be crowned with success and that we may achieve a lasting restoration of national well-being, I invite the support of the men of the Legion and of all men and women who love their country, who know the meaning of sacrifice and who, in every emergency, have given splendid and generous service to the nation."

We shall never have a better opportunity to render such service to our country and our fellow citizens.

In the name of the welfare of our country, in the name of the thousands of our own comrades who are suffering, I ask you to enlist whole-heartedly and spontaneously in this campaign; to follow the Commander in this battle as faithfully as you followed your Commander in the World War.

For God and Country the Legion is again on the march. As patriots we can do no less.

(Signed) LOUIS JOHNSON,
National Commander
