

Locals and Personals
Deerfield

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Bates and son are staying at the F. P. Browning home until their home is ready. The O'Briens of Chicago have been occupying the Bates home.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl E. Olson had as their guests the past two weeks Miss Mildred Johnson of Centuria, Wis., Mr. and Mrs. Ben Johnson and Mrs. Olson's father, Mr. A. Shalberg of Becker, Minn.

Miss Katherine Gonnerman of St. Joseph, Mich., was the guest of Mildred Love Gunckel on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Hoffman and children visited relatives in Peoria last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Millican spent last week at Colfax, Ill.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Thompson and Mr. and Mrs. Perry Thompson had as their guests last week Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Larson and grandson Gilbert Larson, of Moline, Ill., and Mr. and Mrs. Algren of Fresno, Calif., who had motored here to attend the Century of Progress.

Mrs. Joseph Dunn and daughter Mrs. William Harding and son William Ralph of Lake Forest visited at the Love home on Thursday.

Seventy children are enrolled at the Wilnot school with two teachers in charge—Mrs. Delbert Meyer and Miss Donna Belle Jensen.

Miss Irene Rockenbach attended the annual meeting of the Lake County Council of Religious Education held at the Y. M. C. A. Sunday afternoon. There was an attendance of thirty workers, representing five districts of the county organization to hear reports and make plans for the coming year's work. In spite of the reduced budget under which the council has been operating for the past year, reports showed that the program of work has been enlarged and strengthened to meet the increased need of the churches in the county in their educational program. Announcements were made concerning the 63rd annual convention of the Council which will be held at the Lake Forest M. E. Church on Tuesday, Sept. 26. Dr. Frank M. McKibben, professor of Religious Education at Northwestern University, will be one of the convention speakers.
