Children's Theatre Organizing Rapidly

The Children's Theatre which is being sponsored by the Y.W.C.A. as a part of their educational program is making rapid strides in organization.

Mondays and Wednesdays have been set aside as the days for the Workshop Groups and both groups are rapidly filling. There is room for a few more registrations and anyone interested is urged to call H. P. 675 immediately.

The schedule for the workshop groups promises to be very interesting and beneficial as it is to be composed of voice, diction, pantomime and play production leading to various programs throughout the semester. The groups will start meeting on Monday, October 2 and Wednesday, October 4 respectively, and casting for the first play in the Children's Theatre will be held on Friday, October 6, Friday being the day set aside for rehearsals for the theatre group which is to be made up of various members of the workshop groups according to individual progress so that all may have an equal opportunity in participating.

Evening Dance Groups Are Being Formed

Miss Jessie L. Pocock who has for a number of seasons been directing very successful Fortnightlies and assemblies on the North Shore and in Oak Park will open a 7th and 8th Grade Assembly on Friday evening October 20th, and a High School Fortnightly on Friday evening October 27th in Highland Park.
