Mr. Williamson comes to the North Shore with an experience of twelve years in Scout work both as a scout, volunteer leader, and professional scout worker. His scouting experience began with the joining of a Scout troop in Florida. Later he attended the 1924 International Scout Jamboree in Copenhagen, Denmark, as a representative from this troop. Mr. Williamson attended the University of Florida, and served as a Scoutmaster of a troop while a student there. After attending the National Training School for Scout Executives, Mr. Williamson began his professional Scout work as field execu-tive of the Berrien-Cass Council with headquarters in St. Joseph, Michigan. Mr. Williamson has had seven years of experience in summer camp work including last sumwan, the North Shore Area Council Camp, where "ed as instructor in Indian Lore.

Mr. will make their home in Deerfield, and he will spend considerable time at first in getting acquainted with the Scout Leaders and Scouts

GIRL SCOUTS

The second meeting of Troop I was held Tuesday, Sept. 26, 1933, at the Highwood Methodist Church. The girls canned pears, apples and tomatoes in preparation for their canning badges. They used the pressure cookers given to the Unemployed League by the State of Illinois. The girls gladly gave their preserved fruit and vegetables to this league in return for this service. The next two meetings will be devoted to making jam and preserves and to discussions

In their business meeting two or three nominees were accepted by popular vote. The sale of Christmas cards has been steadily progressing. Profits from these sales will go towards either the permanent camp fund or registration fees. So, you people who want to help the Girl Scouts along buy these cards!—Scribe Lena Calbri.

The Girl Scouts of Troop IL had an attendance of twenty girls at their first meeting on Thursday, Sept. 28, 1933. Games were played and songs sung until Captain Caroline Ghini called the meeting to order.

Lieutenant Lena Calbri had a very interesting way in helping the girls form, and

The temporary patrol leaders of Troop II are Lillian Glass, Indian Patrol; Anna Calbri, Star Patrol; Jeneva Davidson, Bird Patrol and Mary Babbini the Tree Patrol.

The first girl from each patrol that passes the tenderfoot test will become a permanent patrol leader.

Troop II will hold its next meeting Thursday, Oct. 5, 1933 at the Highwood Methodist Church.—Scribe Doris Mae Raefter.
