erman whose marriage to Einar Nielsen will take place the early part of November.

The Women of the Moose held their regular meeting last Wednesday evening with ten visitors from the Waukegan chapter present. A social hour of bunco and refreshments followed the meeting. The next regular meeting will be held on October 18th at 8 p.m.

The marriage of Mary Katherine Gleason, daughter of the Hollis Garland Gleasons of Wilmette and John Taylor Snite, son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert P. Snite of this city was solemnized Saturday afternoon in St. Francis Xavier Church, Wilmette. The Rev. Bernard Brady officiated. The church altars were decorated in a profusion of white chrysanthemums and dahlias and lighted tapers. The youthful bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore an empire gown of white lustrous satin, with long lace sleeves and a full sweeping train. Her bridal veil of princess lace had been worn by her mother at her wedding twenty years ago. Lilies of the Valley, in a shower effect were used in the bridal bouquet. Mary Jane Rich, the matron of honor, and the bridesmaids, Mrs. Albert O. Snite, Patsy and Maxine Gleason and Betty Ketcham were gray bagheeta velvet gowns and hats and carried American Beauty roses. The little flower girl, Emily Gleason, sister of the bride, wore a long frock of the same gray velvet and carried a small colonial bouquet. The bridegroom's father served as best man and the ushers included Lindsay Beaton, Roger Taylor, Hugh Seyfarth and Hollis Gleason, Jr. A large reception followed the ceremony at the Shawnee Country Club, decorations being fall flowers and ferns.

Anderson and family of South Ridge Road, and their sister Mrs. W. J. Thomas and family of Lake Bluff, while attending the Century of Progress. Mr. Anderson went to California about thirty years ago where he has been interested in various mining activities. At present the two partners are successfully operating a quick silver mine near Castella in the Mt. Shasta district. Stories of mining camp fire, traveling with pack trains on mountain trails with snow falls of five feet over night, etc., more thrilling than western fiction, have been greatly enjoyed at this quite unexpected reunion. The visitors left Monday morning for their ranch at Turlock where they will spend the winter.

Elvray Hoyt son of Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Hoyt left Tuesday evening for Phoenix, Ariz., where he will visit relatives.

Needlework Guild Opens Annual Drive

Mrs. Thomas Creigh, 200 Prospect Avenue, entertained the directors of the Highland Park branch of the Needlework Guild of America yesterday afternoon. Each year at this time a drive is made for the collection of new articles which are distributed among several charitable organizations in this vicinity.

The branch's energies this year will be centered not only upon the collection of articles, but on the collection of new members as well. This is National Membership week and Highland Park is very eager to add new articles of wearing apparel or household linen or a sum of money. There are 600 branches of the Needlework Guild and it is the only organization in the world whose specific duty is to collect annually a stock of new supplies for the needy. The directors of the Highland Park branch collected 1,418 articles last year.

All Aboard S. S. Tuxis Pleasure Island Trip

The Highland Park Presbyterian Young People's Society are making a spectacular effort toward a well balanced recreational and devotional program. The second recreational event this fall occurs this Friday night in the form of a party on shipboard. The Parish house will be completely transformed into a ship, the Executive committee as ship officers and the members as hosts.

The well known Mr. Robert Lutz, magician is already booked to sail and will be brought to the platform as guest artist.

The S.S. Tuxis leaves dock at 8 p.m. bound for Pleasure Island, stocked with a wide variety of games, an entertainer, and an abundance of delicious food.

A cordial invitation is extended to all interested passengers, tickets being available by phoning H. P. 921.

Former Pastor Is Visiting Friends Here

Rev. and Mrs. J. F. Van Evers, who are well known in Highland Park are expecting to spend a number of days in this city to visit old time friends. Rev. Van Evers was the pastor of the Evangelical Church of this community from 1912 to 1916, during this time he did a commendable piece of work for the church. He was very successful in his activities with the young people. Four young men dedicated their lives to the work of the Christian ministry during his pastorate, they were: Dr. H. T. Kuist, Arthur Piehoff, Charles Gieser and Elmer Gieser. Dr. Homer Dubs was also granted a license to preach. A reception is being planned for Rev. and Mrs. Van Evers on Thursday evening and will be held in the church parlors of the Bethany Church. Their many friends of this community are cordially invited to attend this occasion and greet their old time friends. The reception will begin at 8 o'clock.

Holy Name Society Country Meeting Sunday

The annual meeting of all Lake County Branches of the Holy Name Society will take place next Sunday afternoon at 3 p.m.

Twenty-six branches from all parts of the country will be represented at this meeting, which will open at St. James Church with benediction.

Following the services at the church the various branches will march to the Oak Terrace School led by the Boy Scout Troops of Highland, where the business session of the meeting will take place.

The speakers of the day will be His Excellency Bishop Shield Auxiliary Bishop of Chicago, Rt. Reverend Monsignor Daniel Byrnes, Rt. Reverend Monsignor T. F. Bona, Honorable Francis Allegretti and Father Scanlan, the director of the Catholic Youth Organization.

The Evanston North Shore Smith club is having as its guest of honor, Miss Mary Ellen Chase, professor of English at Smith College at its next meeting on Thursday afternoon October 19th at the home of Miss Gertrude E. Gladwin, 2323 Orrington Avenue, Evanston. It is hoped that Highland Park alumnae will avail themselves of this opportunity to meet her.

Famous Clyde McCoy Orchestra in Waukegan

Clyde McCoy and his famous Drake Hotel Orchestra are to play at the beautiful VALENCIA BALLROOM in down-town Waukegan, Thursday night, Oct. 12. The ballroom is more beautiful than ever before this year with a startling new system of lighting effects.

Clyde McCoy holds an enviable position in the hearts of all Chicago dance lovers and we predict that the North Shore will go "McCoy" when they hear him at the Valencia, too. You can't afford to miss this nationally famous attraction of "Sugar Blues" in person. Admission is only 50c at the Valencia.

North Shore Quartet To Sing At Methodist Church, Lake Forest

The North Shore Mixed Quartet, composed of Mrs. Theresa Cook Brown, who has charge of music at the Union Church of Lake Bluff; Mrs. Minard Hulse, soloist in the Fourth Presbyterian Church of Chicago; Emerson Cole, who is soloist at St. Luke's Protestant Cathedral; and Merle Tibbetts, tenor soloist at the Church of the Holy Spirit, Lake Forest, will give a concert at the Methodist Episcopal Church, Lake Forest on Thursday evening, Oct. 19, at 8 o'clock.

Legion Auxiliary Has Two Meetings Recently

The last regular meeting of the American Legion Auxiliary of the Dumaresq Spencer Post No. 145, was held Thursday, Sept. 28, at 2 p.m. Mrs. Robert Greenlake and Mrs. Mary McCarthy both gave interesting reports of the American Legion state convention held at Rockford, which they attended. They emphatically advised every member to attend a convention if the opportunity was present.

At this meeting the members had as their guests, Mrs. L. P. Vane and daughter, both members of the Geo. Morris Post in the State of Washington. Mrs. Vane briefly told of the work done by her unit.

A membership drive is now being conducted here. Eligible women of the community wishing to join the Auxiliary may do so by calling H. P. 2476.

At the last meeting Mrs. Leonard Hook, of Grayslake, district director, installed the new officers for the coming year. This meeting was held yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Masonic Temple.
