Stanford Will Oppose Northwestern U. Next Saturday in Chicago

Stanford's greatest team in a decade. That is the appellation attached to the Pacific coast eleven which invades Soldier Field Saturday for its inter-sectional clash with Northwestern's Wildcats.

Three straight victories, two of them against high ranking western teams, have caused the Cardinal stock to reach new heights. Saturday's win over Santa Clara, the team which had previously defeated California 7 to 0, was sufficient evidence that "Tiny" Thornhill's first Stanford team has the stuff.

Coach Thornhill succeeded to the head coaching position at Stanford this year following the resignation of "Pop" Warner. He is assisted by Ernie Nevers, a figure familiar to Chicago grid fans, where he starred for a number of years as captain and fullback of the professional Cardinal league team.

Mosquito Board Work Discontinued

Work has been discontinued by the Highland Park Mosquito Abatement District board for the fall on account of lack of funds.

The last meeting of the board was held in the city hall of Highland Park on Oct. 4. The next meeting will be held on Wednesday evening, Dec. 13, as the terms of all officers expire on the second Monday in December.

Those in office now are: president, Robert W. Larke, Mrs. C. W. Balke, treasurer; Mrs. Marie Ward Reichelt, secretary. Other members are Arthur M. Lowrie and Harold W. Norman. Mr. Lowrie is field director.

The district includes seventeen miles and was covered many times during the season. A thorough campaign against the breed of mosquitoes is carried on. Extermination of the pests within a few years is anticipated.

Mrs. Garnett Chairman of Dancing Committee

Rink and Skaters Start Big New Season

Healthy days are here again on the North Shore. The WAUKEGAN ROLLER RINK opens its winter season this week on Tuesday night, and plans are laid to care for a capacity crowd inasmuch as skating promises to be more popular than ever before. People are realizing more than ever the advantage which skating offers of combining recreation with health-giving exercise.

The Waukegan Roller Rink, located on the southwest side of Waukegan, at Belvidere and Jackson Streets, is now opening its third season. It is a large modern brick building of a type seldom found in a city of only 40,000 population. The rink has a maple floor 200 feet long and 92 feet wide. There are three large chandeliers containing 380 lights in six color combinations, augmented by 30 brilliant wall brackets. Walls are of tan tile up four feet from the floor, above which walls and ceiling are in light grey. There are heavy red drapes over the many large windows. At the east end of the building there are two lobbies, roomy spectator's balcony, fountain room, tiled from floor to ceiling; control room with amplifying panels, microphones, etc., checkrooms, skateroom, and restrooms. The Rink accommodates 1750 skaters. There are 500,000 square feet of free parking space on the premises for patrons. Roller skating will be held every Tuesday and Friday evening. Dancing every Thursday and Sunday evening.

Green Fees Reduced at the Vernon Club

A reduction in green fees for the remainder of the season has been announced by the Vernon Country Club, west of Deerfield.

This reduction, which is printed in an advertisement in this issue of the Press, goes into effect on and after Oct. 13.

Illinois P.-T. A. Holds Meeting in Winnetka

"The favorite indoor sport of faculties is revising the curriculum," D. Gordon J. Laing, Dean of Division of Humanities of the University of Chicago, said at the annual conference of district twenty-one of the Illinois Congress of Parents and Teachers held in the Winnetka Methodist Episcopal Church last Friday.

"Developing citizens was the main object of the founders of education in America. The continual drive in the direction of so-called practical education is a dangerous trend vocational training is crowding out the cultural subjects. Develop sound judgment and discrimination by the study of Latin. Business men complain of the poor command of English of the graduates of our high schools. Latin helps in the study of English," Dean Laing continued, taking the words in the heading of a great metropolitan daily newspaper he gave their Latin derivation.

He explained how mathematics develops the reasoning power, but said that much depends upon the teacher of this science to put the problems to practical use.

"Some bricklayers should be teachers of geometry and some teachers of geometry should be carriers of bricks," he said.

The value of art in the schools was stressed. Historical events are frequently fixed in the minds of students by viewing pictures in color of the happenings.

Dean Laing said that the poems which are in many readers in the elementary school are two years in advance of the grades, which repel many young readers. We thought that the work in the elementary schools is the best of all our educational institutions. The cultural side of life is inculcated in young children by the study of music and art. These are not frills and fads, and should not be cut out of the school. Dean Laing also believes in starting an appreciation of literature in the elementary grades. Mrs. W. A. Kendrick, of Winnetka, had charge of the exhibit display.

250 delegates were present at the conference from the North Shore from Evanston to Waukegan and from the inland towns from Glen View to Antioch. Mrs. Wallace Clay Bosworth of Park Ridge is district director; Mrs. Frank L. Ford of Waukegan, assistant director; Mrs. Robert H. Lewis of Evanston, secretary, and Mrs. J. D. Kennear of Winnetka, general chairman.

SERVICE — A Call Will Convince You.

She's a champion at picking bargains

and she's equally good at testing a spark-plug

You'd never know, watching this expert shopper reversing a seam to look at the stitching, that she's equally competent at judging the condition of a spark-plug.

There's no mystery about how she does it either. She's merely found that to test a spark-plug, to inflate a tire accurately—all you have to know is the address of the nearest Standard Station. She brings the car in and Cheerful Stan does the rest. He checks the battery, keeps records to tell her how often the car should be lubricated and when to change oil. He looks after all the little things the woman driver is supposed to know nothing about.

The next time the man of the house says, "I'm going to take the car downtown for service," thus leaving you without transportation for the day, why don't you take the job off his hands? With Cheerful Stan's help you can do it as well as he can.
