

Deerfield Locals and Personals

A baritone instrument was presented to the band at the high school recently by Mrs. E. J. Ginter of Bannockburn, mother of the late Robert Hanmer, who died a year or so ago. Robert was a member of the music department for four years and was an outstanding baritone player at the high school and at Cornell. His mother gave the instrument as a memorial to him.

Julian Rocquier of Ozark, Mo., was the over night guest of Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Reeds on Thursday.

Mrs. Richard Grobe of Knollwood Road has gone to Fitchburg, Mass., because of the illness of her mother.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Hutchison and little daughter, Louise Ann, of Chicago, were Sunday dinner guests at the S. P. Hutchison home.

Mr. and Mrs. William Hellman and Walker Townsend of Waukegan visited Mrs. Frank Peterson on Sunday.

Henry Lunn of Sandpoint, Idaho, who graduated from Deerfield-Shields High School in 1913, visited the high school, Friday, Oct. 6. He served overseas for three years and came to Chicago to attend the American Legion convention and the World's Fair. Mr. Lunn is a successful farmer and landowner in Idaho.

A rummage sale for the benefit of Irene Castle McLaughlin's Orphans of the Storm, animal shelter, just west of the village, was given last Friday and Saturday in Evanston. Mrs. C. L. Rogers was chairman.

Mrs. Harry Clavey will entertain the members of the Tuesday Evening Sewing Club, next week.

Mrs. C. Johnston, Davis and Helen Engstrom attended the national convention of Girl Scouts held Oct. 10 and 11 in Milwaukee, also the pre-convention course in Scouting, which began the Monday before the convention. Mrs. Davis is captain of troop 2 and her sister-in-law, Mrs. C. R. Sugden is captain of troop 1.

Jane Wood is assisting in the office at the Lincoln School during the absence of Miss Ruth Beardsley, who is ill.

Mr. and Mrs. Grant West and daughter, Miss Lucille, and Mr. and Mrs. Roy West of Elgin were the Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. George Pettis. Mrs. Grant West is George Pettis' sister.

On Tuesday evening there was a meeting of the officers, educational superintendents and district presidents of the Lake County Council of Religious Education at the Libertyville M. E. Church, where they planned the dates and places of meetings for the year. The schedule is to be printed and sent out through the county. Miss Irene Rockenbach represented Deerfield.

The Alexian Brothers, a Catholic Nursing Order, permanently withdrew their request to the Board of Appeals, recently, and will not build in Deerfield, but will seek a site elsewhere.

Mrs. Fred Haggie will entertain her luncheon bridge club on Wednesday, at her home on Osterman Avenue.

The Woman's Missionary Society of the Presbyterian Church will hold the October meeting at the home of Mrs. Virginia Hicks on Thursday afternoon (today). Mrs. Chester Wolf will be the leader and the subject is Alaska. Mrs. Wolf, the librarian of the Deerfield Public Library, is making unusual preparations on her subject.

Edward Hertzberg, the great and famous book binder, who has the Gothic room exhibit in the General Exhibits building at the World's Fair, is a cousin of the Biederstadt family. James O'Donnell Bennett wrote an interesting article in Sunday's Tribune of the Hertzberg family and its three generations of five book binders.

LOW RATE

that makes Gas Heat cost less than ever

for gas burner installation and removal if you are not satisfied

Here is an offer that makes it possible for you to try gas heating without making any investment in equipment. You pay nothing to have a gas burner installed in your present heating plant—or to have it removed later, if you are not satisfied, and your furnace restored to its original condition. A monthly rental—as low as $3 a month for nine months—is all you pay. No rent during the summer. A gas burner can be placed in your furnace or boiler in a few hours. Take this opportunity to discover—through actual use—the unequalled advantages of gas heating. Return the coupon now—or telephone—for complete details.

DISCARD OLD IDEAS about the cost of gas heating! Replace them with the real facts about today's cost of heating your home with gas—the only truly automatic fuel. With a new LOW RATE . . . we offer you gas heating at less cost than ever before. This rate (which went into effect Oct. 5) is the lowest in the company's history. It not only lowers the cost of gas for heating—but for all other household gas appliance operation in homes heated with gas.

Reduced cost of gas heating will bring many more families the comforts of uniform, clean, carefree, dependable heat this winter. Install gas heat in your home and eliminate the daily chores of fuel shoveling, ash removal and extra winter housework. Once a gas heating plant is lighted, it needs no further attention. Every detail of its operation is automatic!

Ask for an Estimate

It is easy to have complete particulars of gas heating with an estimate of the cost of heating your home with this modern fuel. Telephone . . . or mail the coupon . . . and a gas heating engineer will call at your convenience. There is no expense or obligation to you.
