Deerfield Players Open Third Season with 3-Act Drama

Following is the cast of the three act drama to be presented by the young people of St. Paul's church at the auditorium of the grammar school on Friday, Nov. 10:

Attorney for the Defense... Carl Berning
Judge Carlyle, his father... Stanley Antes
Joseph Hampden, prosecuting attorney... Jess Holmes
Jackson Fulton, owner of Fulton Malted Milk... Arthur Borchardt
Mark Nelson, friend of Beth Winters... Don Merilathi
Freddie Warren, clerk for Carlyle... Alfred Johnson
Beth Winters, the defendant... Pauline Winters
Dorothy Chandler, secretary to Carlyle... Margaret Galloway
Allie Traynor, 17 and living next door to Carlyle... Grace Arlene Flint Elsie, the maid... Ida Sticken

Hampden, the prosecuting attorney, has been a lifelong enemy of the Carlyles. He suspects them of having had a hand in the kidnapping of his baby daughter 20 years ago. The Carlyles suppose that Hampden hates them because they are honor-

Emilie Knaak Buried Sunday In Deerfield

Miss Emilie Knaak passed away Friday at the family home on Deerfield Avenue, Deerfield, after a several months illness. Funeral services were held Sunday afternoon at the Presbyterian Church and interment was in the Deerfield Cemetery. Miss Emilie was the eldest daughter of the late Dr. and Mrs. T. L. Knaak. Dr. Knaak was the first resident physician and druggist in the village.

Emilie Elisabeth Knaak was born Sept. 4, 1874 in Chicago. The family moved to Deerfield in November 1882 where she resided until her death. In 1904 she was graduated from the School of Expression at the Chicago Musical College under able in their dealings while Hampden makes a practice of tampering with juries, manufacturing evidence, etc. Although the Carlyles are fighting a false charge of bribery which Hampden has brought against Judge Carlyle, Jimmy takes up the defense of a poor and friendless girl whom Hampden is attempting to send to prison, although he knows that she is innocent. It is a strange turn of fate.

The powerful human appeal of this play grips every audience. As necessary relief from its tension, there are the fresh comedy roles of Alle and Freddy, and the eccentric millionaire, Multon.

Past successes on the local stage of the Deerfield Drama Club have been Professor of Love, Back Stage, and Pay As You Enter. Their staging of their past performances augurs well for the Nov. 10 show. As the entire show is produced, directed and staged by local talent, it has an unusual appeal to the Deerfield public. It should be well patronized.

teacher training, she became a zealous worker in the Sunday School. She was a Past Worthy Matron of Campbell Chapter O. E. S., and the first Worthy Matron of the Deerfield chapter in 1924. Miss Knaak held the office of secretary in the local chapter and was chaplain of Emmanuel White Shrine in Lake Forest and vice president of the Woman's Missionary Society of the Presbyterian Church at the time of her death. The members of the Eastern Star assisted Dr. W. F. Weir in the funeral services.

Surviving are five brothers, Edward, Otto, Theodore, Alvin and Rudolph, and two sisters, Miss Ida Knaak and Mrs. Romayne Stryker (Amanda).

Miss L. V. Kempster. Miss Knaak attended the School of Pharmacy at the University of Illinois in 1912 and has since been employed in her brother's pharmacy in Deerfield.

At the age of thirteen she became a member of the Evangelical Church in Deerfield and on Feb. 6, 1916 joined the Presbyterian Church. After having taken several courses in teacher training, she became a zealous worker in the Sunday School. She was a Past Worthy Matron of Campbell Chapter O. E. S., and the first Worthy Matron of the Deerfield chapter in 1924. Miss Knaak held the office of secretary in the local chapter and was chaplain of Emmanuel White Shrine in Lake Forest and vice president of the
