Auxiliary Plays Successful Affair

The Deerfield American Legion Auxiliary Unit No. 738, takes this opportunity of thanking the young people of the community who helped so loyally in making the show "Circus Solly" a success.

The splendid support of the community at large enables us to add to the Auxiliary treasury and gives us courage anew to continue our work of service in the community.

Last but not least we wish to thank our friends who, through newspaper articles and advertisements gave us publicity so vitally important in bringing our various programs before the public.—Contributed.

Speakers Announced for First Meeting of Men's Fellowship Club

David R. Clarke, general counsel of the Illinois Manufacturers Association, will be the speaker at the opening dinner-meeting of the Men's Fellowship Club of the Presbyterian Church of Highland Park. This meeting, the first of the season, will be held at 6:45 p.m., at the church next Friday evening, Nov. 10.

"The best posted man in Illinois on the NRA and other matters related to the present 'New Deal' program," is the way Samuel L. Hastings, of Highland Park, president of the Illinois Manufacturers Association, describes the speaker, Mr. Clarke, who will talk on the subject mentioned.

The other feature of the program will be a unique demonstration of microscopic and telescopic movies by John N. Ott, Jr. Mr. Ott's work in this field is outstanding; his films picture the continuous growth of plant and organic life from seed to maturity. Some of these films require more than six months to complete.

Invitations to this dinner-meeting are not limited to members of the Men's Fellowship Club. Tickets may be secured from L. B. Sinclair, Officers and directors of the organization include the following: A. T. Söhler, H. W. Murray, J. A. Putnam, E. L. Gilroy, Dr. C. V. Nichols, L. B. Sinclair, Paul Date, J. C. Griswold, H. F. Kelley, H. E. Kerber, T. L. Osborn, R. F. Patton, and Dr. D. E. Rössiter.
