Highland Park Locals and Personals

Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Williams announce the marriage of their daughter, Gertrude Elizabeth, to Charles Melvin Butler, son of Mr. and Mrs. Melvin E. Butler of Boston, Mass., on Saturday, Nov. 4. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Louis W. Sherwin at 5:30 in the afternoon at the Highland Park Presbyterian Church. Miss Enid Phillips served the bride as maid of honor and James Whipple of Chicago attended the groom. The bride wore a tailored afternoon frock of brown-green green trimmed in brown velvet, a tiny velvet hat, and carried bronze chrysanthemums. Miss Phillips was dressed in rust crepe with a brown hat and carried yellow chrysanthemums. The wedding party was entertained at dinner at the Green Tea Pot. Mr. Butler is with the engineering department of the National Broadcasting Company in Chicago, and Miss Williams, who was a founder and the past-president of the Ravinia Players in this city, has been doing professional work on the air and stage for the past year. Mr. and Mrs. Butler have left for a trip to the east where they will stop in New York and Boston. After Nov. 20 the young couple will be at home at the Birchwood Plaza, 1333 Birchwood avenue, Chicago.

Miss Elizabeth Lanehart Bolles, a daughter of General and Mrs. Bolles of Fort Sheridan whose marriage to Robert Augur Hewitt will take place on Tuesday, Nov. 21, has been highly feted during the past week by numerous Fort Sheridan residents. Mrs. Blunzell, entertained at a cash shower last Wednesday, and on Thursday, Mrs. Dibble entertained at a linen shower at the Deerpath Inn. On Monday Mrs. McDonald gave a luncheon at the Moraine Hotel and yesterday (Wednesday) Mrs. Dawson entertained at a bridge tea and kitchen shower for the bride-to-be.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Arthur Wood leave Friday to spend the week-end with their sons Arthur and Robert and to attend the Princeton-Dartmouth game at Princeton.

Mr. and Mrs. Colin Sanborn of 1612 Pleasant avenue, Ravinia, announce the birth of a baby girl at the Alice Home hospital on Saturday, Nov. 4.

Ellie Kinney Werner of Oakbrook, Wis., is now living at 525 South Sheridan Road, Highland Park.

Mr. and Mrs. George J. McBride and Lyman McBride are spending the winter at 18 East Elm street, Chicago.

Mrs. E. B. Metzler of the Moraine Hotel has registered at the Hotel Markham, Gulfport, Miss., and expects to be there several days.

Miss Margaret Mayer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Mayer of Chicago is to become the bride of Walter S. Baer, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter S. Baer of 5100 Ellis avenue, Chicago, today (Thursday). The wedding will take place at the residence of the bride's parents. The Mayer family were former residents of this city, residing at the Moraine for a number of years.

Among the out-of-town guests who attended the Williams-Butler nuptials and dinner were the bride's aunt, Mrs. W. J. Konvalinka of Fort Wayne, Ind., the groom's aunt and cousin, Mrs. Harriet Tilden and Miss Evelyn Tilden of Chicago, Mrs. James Whipple of Chicago, and Vincent Erb of Evanston.

Mrs. DeWolf of Menasha, Wis., and Miss Dorothy Brook's niece, Patricia, of the same town, were the guests of Miss Brooks of the Highlands last week.

Mrs. William H. Saathoff entertained at a family dinner Sunday for her sister, Mrs. Andrew Rosequist and family of Lavoy, Alberta, Canada, who are visiting here and attending "A Century of Progress."

Mrs. John C. Fay attended the meeting of her bridge club at the home of Mrs. Goodman in Deerfield yesterday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Martin and son "Tillie" have arrived in Clearwater, Fla., where they will spend a few weeks before going to Miami where they plan to spend the balance of the winter. They report a most enjoyable trip south and say that the weather is just like summer.

Mrs. William Pearl entertained a few out of town guests at luncheon yesterday, Wednesday.

On Wednesday, Nov. 8th, thirty members of the art division of the Rogers Park Woman's Club visited the studio home of Morris Henry Hobbs, Ravine Manor Drive, Ravinia. Mr. Hobbs gave an interesting lecture and demonstration of the process of making an etching.

Mr. and Mrs. Irving Randall, Mr. and Mrs. Roger Vail, Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm Vail, and Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Bard attended the Smith College benefit performance, "Bittersweet" in Chicago, Tuesday.

The Young People of the Bethany Church are to enjoy a scavenger hunt on Saturday evening.

Mrs. William Davis of South Second Street is going to Milwaukee, Wis., to spend the balance of the week visiting her mother.

The Central Council of Childhood Education will hold its regular monthly meeting on Saturday, Nov. 11, from 10:30 to 4 o'clock in the Central Eleanor Club rooms, room 1800 Stevens Building, 17 North State Street. The meeting will be an exhibit of books. Books will be included which will develop an international interest and which will show development through the century. Book making and book repairing will be special features of the exhibit.

Mrs. R. E. Wood and her daughter, Mrs. Edwin Tullis, left on last Thursday for New York, where they were to meet Miss Mary, another daughter, a senior at Farmington, and go to West Point, together. Before they return to their home they will stop off at Garden City, L.I., to visit Mrs. Wood's sister, Mrs. Walter Stires. Bishop Stires has been in Chicago attending the World Fair en route to a house of bishops' meeting at Davenport, Iowa. West Point holds its charm for the R. E. Wood family. At the turn of the century, General Wood was graduated from the Academy and Mrs. Wood went to week-end hops with him. Their only son, Robert W. Wood II is now a third-year man at the Academy and Mrs. Wood and her youngest daughter Mary went there to an army football game and hop, over the week-end.

Previous to her marriage to Mr. Butler, Miss Gertrude Williams was entertained at a miscellaneous house hold shower by Mrs. H. B. Roberts, at a luncheon given by Mrs. Earl H. Purdy, and a miscellaneous shower by the Misses Enid Phillips and Virginia Jerome at the latter's home on Cedar avenue. Mr. and Mrs. Butler were guests of honor at a dinner given by Mrs. Viola Conrad and a Halloween party given by the Ravinia Players, at which the bride and groom were presented with honorary life memberships in the Players, the first ones ever presented.

Miss Lorraine Briggs and Robert Wood Goodell, whose engagement was announced last June, are to be married next Tuesday night at 8:30 o'clock at the residence of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph G. Briggs of Deere Park avenue. Mr. Goodell, who is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Stewart Goodell of Houghton, Mich., is living in New York.

Mrs. William Lindsay and a group of Milwaukee friends are luncheon guests today of Mrs. Rolland T. R. Hastings.

Berencie Kurtzon, Joan Greenbaum, Jean Foreman and Grace Coheon will model at Carson Pirie Scott and Co., style show in the tearoom from 12 noon to 2 p.m. Saturday, Nov. 11. Joan Holden will act as hostess.

Mr. and Mrs. James E. Skidmore of Elmwood drive, are the happy parents of a baby girl, born Wednesday morning at the Martha Washington hospital, Chicago.
