$800 IS NEEDED IN HOSPITAL CAMPAIGN

Chairman Issues His "Final Report" and Appeals for Additional Pledges

Although the recent Highland Park Hospital Service Certificate Campaign is still about $800 short of its goal, the work is being continued to raise the $10,000 necessary for the institution during the coming year, and an appeal is being made to those who have not yet subscribed to do so this week.

Alfred T. Sihler, chairman of the drive this year, has issued his "final report," but emphasizes the fact that the drive has not been completed. The $800 lacking must be raised. Mr. Sihler's report follows: "While we are calling this a 'final report,' you will notice that we are about $800 short of the goal. We expect to be able to raise this amount by a follow-up canvass among those people who were either away or overlooked during the regular campaign. If, therefore, you have among your prospects some who have not yet subscribed, or said that they would do so later, will you be good enough to get in touch with them now and report to the hospital office? Certificates will be sent out direct from the office.

"The following score is of course not intended to be 'competitive' because of the unavoidable inequality of the various districts. However, remarkably fine results were reported from some of the 'less prosperous' districts. The following figures show combined subscriptions and pledges by districts.

"In conclusion (but by no means of least importance) I want to express to you on behalf of the committee, the hospital association, and the entire community, our sincere thanks for your help in this important community undertaking. The entire community is benefited by this demonstration of faithfully discharging a community responsibility. We hope neither you or any of your family will need the hospital, but there will be many who during this coming year will benefit, perhaps even to the extent of having their lives saved, by its presence in our community. We hope that the consciousness of having helped in making this possible will in some measure compensate you for the time and effort so unselfishly spent by you in this campaign."

WORTH WHILE THOUGHTS

Psychologists tell about our unconscious mental activity: how we often think without our being aware of the process. We often drive an automobile without being conscious of driving. We do hundreds of things without being conscious of doing them.

Although it is a good thing that we do not have to think of many things we do while or before doing them—for that would take time and we wouldn't get as much done if we always had to "think before we act"—yet, self-improvement lies in giving more conscious thought to many things that we do.

For we get to be too much just creatures of habit unless we yank ourselves by the collar now and then and ask why and the wherefore of what we are doing. In this business we yank ourselves by the collar every day in working out ways of giving you more for your money.

Edgar Ansel Mowrer To Speak Here Dec. 5 On German Situation

Edgar Ansel Mowrer, one of the star foreign correspondents of the Chicago Daily News, will speak in Highland Park on the subject, "Germany Behind the Scenes," on Tuesday evening, Dec. 5, at the Elm Place School Auditorium.

Mr. Mowrer, who returned to the United States a few weeks ago after ten years spent in Berlin as the Chicago Daily News correspondent in Germany, will be brought to Highland Park by the local organization of the Illinois League of Women Voters. His lecture here will be one of the last to be given in the United States before his departure for the Orient, where he will be stationed, probably in Japan, as foreign reporter for The Chicago Daily News.

Mrs. Lloyd Faxon to Give Readings at the Presbyterian Church

Mrs. Lloyd Faxon began her series of readings last month with a most beautiful presentation of "No Second Spring," the $20,000 prize novel by Janet Beith. Next Monday, Nov. 20, at 2:30 p.m. at the Presbyterian Church, Mrs. Faxon will give her second program in the course of seven schedules for the season. She plans to review one of the much talked of and very splendid plays now running on Broadway.

It is hard to say just what type of reading Mrs. Faxon does best—those who heard her give "Dinner at Eight" and "The Late Christopher Bean" last season have been impressed with the many subtleties, and charming bits which had entirely escaped them when they had read or witnessed the play previously, and testify to the keen enjoyment derived from the manner in which she interprets them.

Tickets may be obtained at the door, and these programs are open to the public.

Charity Dance Dec. 1 at the Woman's Club

The Social Service department of the Highland Park Woman's Club, under the leadership of Mrs. E. T. R. Murfey, chairman of the department, is making plans for the annual Thanksgiving dance to be given at the club house on Friday evening, Dec. 1.

The proceeds of the dance will be used by the department to carry on its general philanthropy and relief work.

Mrs. Murfey is assisted by a large committee of junior members and the young people of Highland Park are anticipating a gala evening.

The members in charge of decorations are the Misses Lois Brigham, chairman, Carol Baker, co-chairman, Lucia Durand, Claire Beneke, Carola Kellner, Virginia Melody, Dorothy Nunn and Constance Williams.

Mrs. Albert P. Snite has charge of the sale of tickets, Mrs. Grover Q. Grady, music, and Miss Adele Everett, refreshments.

There will be tables for cards for those who do not wish to dance.

D. A. R. Better Films Committee Review

"The Devil's in Love" will be shown again tonight, Thursday, Nov. 16. This film is unobjectionable—not for children under fifteen.

Nov. 17-18, "Shanghai Madness" may be seen, featuring Spencer Tracy, Fay Wray. Hero dismissed from Navy for infraction of rules—hero gets job on Chinese river boat and subsequently saves brainless heroine in a American mission from bandits for which Navy reinstates him. This is a far-fetched melodrama for the undiscriminating.

Nov. 22-23, "I Loved a Woman, Clock," with Lee Tracy and Mae Clark. We find the breezy hero living in humble circumstances, he envies his rich pals comfortable way of living, but after an accident he lives life over in pal's circumstances. A rather improbable story, but good light entertainment.

Nov. 22-23, "I Lover a Woman," with Ed Robinson, Kay Francis. This film will be interesting to the adults. The story is as follows—idealistic hero inherits Chicago meat packing business and becomes ruthless in his desire for money and power. After falling in love with "another woman" who proves unfaithful, financial ruin and death follow. A realistic drama against interesting historical background.

Bring the children to see "Three Little Pigs" for it will be the last time to see them in Highland Park on Friday and Saturday.

Dwight H. Green to Speak at American Legion Meeting Here

All Legionnaires and ex-service men in this community are cordially invited to attend a smoker given by Dumaresq Spencer Post No. 145, Thursday, Nov. 23, 8 p.m. at Legion headquarters, 21 North Sheridan Road. The main speaker will be the Hon. Dwight H. Green, United States District Attorney for the district of Northern Illinois.

Mr. Green is a native of Indiana, attended Wabash College in 1916 and in 1917, when the U. S. entered the war, he entered the service and was commissioned a lieutenant in aviation. After the war he attended Stanford University for one year, returned to Chicago and received a law degree at the University of Chicago. He practiced law for a short period in Chicago, then went to Washington, D.C., and worked for the Internal Revenue Department—was sent back to Chicago and rendered distinguished service in the prosecution and conviction of notorious gangsters, including Alphonse Capone. When his superior, George A. Johnston, was made a federal judge, Mr. Green was appointed U. S. District Attorney of this district. His hard work and excellent record in that capacity is known throughout the country. He is an active Legionnaire, a brilliant speaker and will discuss the work of his office and also give some intimate sidelights on the Capone and other cases.

There will be other entertainment including the high school tumbling team. Refreshments will be served.

"The Little Princess" to Be Given on Dec. 9

The children of this community are to have their day Saturday, Dec. 9, at the Highland Park Woman's Club. Mrs. Robert Jeffries, chairman of the drama committee, promises the kiddies of all ages an afternoon and evening performance of the play, "The Little Princess," by Francis Hodgson Burnett, under the direction of Miss Dorothy Proesch.

The producing of children's plays is a new venture for the drama committee, so in selecting a play they considered one that would have an appeal to young children as well as grown-ups. "The Little Princess" is a real classic and has all the intrigue, mystery, fun and romance an audience demands.

Little tots will love the sly, sleeking Hindus; the adolescents will be interested in the Little Princess' heart-rending struggles, and the adults will enjoy the melodrama and romance of the 1890 period.

The play will be produced and acted to appeal to the love people of all ages have for vital drama. "We want you to come prepared to hiss the villain and cheer the heroine," is the invitation of the drama committee.

Hold Bunco Party

The unemployed league of Highland will give a bunco party at the home of Mrs. Baldi, 234 North avenue, Highland, Saturday evening, Nov. 18, at 8 o'clock. Dancing and refreshments will complete the evening's entertainment.

Young Men's Club To Play a Big Waukegan Team Here On Sunday

By M. Warner Turritt
The annual football game of the Highland Park Young Men's Club with the Waukegan Bonecrushers takes place next Sunday afternoon at the Deerfield-Shields athletic field. The Waukegan group, formerly known as the St. Anthony Bonecrushers, have a powerful aggregation of well known college stars.

Mutka is the largest man on the team, weighing 250 pounds and playing center. The balance of the team are former Elk and Moose players from the Waukegan district.

DRAMA CLUB'S FIRST PLAY A "SELL-OUT"

"Attorney for the Defense" Is Successfully Staged at Deerfield

"S.R.O.," that sign beloved by all Thespians, amateur or professional, hung on the auditorium door of the Deerfield Grammar School last Friday night, when the Deerfield Drama Club presented the first play of its third season.

It has been the contention of the members of the Deerfield Drama Club that it was unnecessary to go outside Deerfield for either talent or direction of amateur plays. The overflow crowd Friday night well proved the truth of their assertions. Beginning their third season under the sponsorship of St. Paul's Church, "Attorney for the Defense" a difficult three-act drama, was the vehicle chosen. It presented a plot of mystery, intrigue and love, ably directed by Kenneth Hunter, well known to Deerfield play-goers for his past successes.

Carl Bering, the "attorney," was exceptionally fitted for the role. His interpretation of the character is well worth the adjective "masterly." His father, a grave, dignified and harried person, was ably handled by Stanley Ames. As a bluff, arrogant, overbearing, prosecuting attorney, the "teeny" time in a villain's part, was Arthur Borchardt. Quite a villain (stage) is Arthur L. The "Malted Milk Baron," confident, blustering, revengeful, was a trying bit of stagecraft capably performed by Jean Holmes. The friend, ever at hand to be of service, came easily to Don Merilanti, while the humor was projected into the serious portions of the performance by laughing Alfred Johnson with his equally joyous feminine partner, Grace Arlene Flint. The tragic part of the supposed betrayal of confidences indicated further advancement in the art of acting by Margaret Galloway, one of the club's beloved performers. The wistful, persecuted and friendless girl, an unusually trying role for amateurs, assumed a stellar position when portrayed by Pauline Thompson as Beth Winters. Miss Thompson is another of the charter members of the drama club. A newcomer to the club's roster is Miss Ida Sticker, who filled to perfection the ever-essential role of maid to the attorney for the defense.

Four plays a season are planned by the Deerfield Drama Club and Deerfield audiences are eagerly looking forward to the announcement of title and date of their next performance.

Reading to Be Given at Woman's Club Soon

On Tuesday afternoon, Nov. 21, at the regular meeting of the Highland Park Woman's Club, James Bradley-Griffen will give a reading of "Richard of Bordeaux" by Gordon Davitt.

Mr. Bradley-Griffen is one of the best known dramatic readers and directors of amateur theatricals in the middle west. He is head of the Uptown Players Circuit Theatre, which presents a play the first week of each month during the winter at the Chicago Woman's Club Theatre.

He has also been the director of the Chicago Woman's Club Players since their organization.

This promises to be a delightful program and, of course, will be a special treat to those who are interested in drama.

Braeside Groups Will Have Dinner-Meeting

The next meeting of the Braeside Parent-Teacher and Civic Association, on Monday, Nov. 20, at the school house, is to be in charge of the social committee, of which Mrs. W. A. Clinch is chairman.

The first part of the meeting is to be a dinner—one of those diverting dinners at which our parent and teacher contingent lightly chats about movies and murders, while our civic contingent earnestly argues about educational procedure.

The second part of the program will consist of entertainment, the nature of which the committee, tittering, declines to divulge, promising, however, an unusually good time. A turkey is to be given away. Dinner will be served at 6:45.
