The following story recently appeared in the "Star News" of Pasadena, Calif., and refers to a former resident of Highland Park. The Amateur sweepstakes cup at Pasadena's Fall Flower show went to Pasadena, Calif., this year after going to out of town exhibitors for many years. This was due to the enthusiasm and skill of George E. Millard, 1714 Los Lunas Street, who raised in his own back yard, garden-flowers and potted plants, that amazed the visitors and captured the coveted trophy—also winning as well the silver trophy for the most points in the amateur section. Mr. Millard brought to the show, more than one hundred separate entries.

gown trimmed in peach with accessories to match. She carried pink roses. Miss Emily Piechota of Chicago was brides maid and she wore Nile green. She carried yellow tea roses. William Wolak was his sisters ring bearer and the flower girl was Gertrude Sasso who wore light blue silk and carried pink roses and forget-me-nots. John Gross was the best man. Mr. and Mrs. Radford will reside in an apartment on Waukegan Avenue.
