Children's Theatre
Workshop Present
Book Week Play

The 5, 6 and 7 grade workshop group of the Children's Theatre presented an original Book Week Play entitled "Alice's Adventures in Bookland" in the assembly at the library for the Story Hour on Saturday morning and again on Wednesday evening at the Y.W.C.A. for the parents and friends of the cast.

"Alice's Adventures in Bookland" was the result of a quest for creative talent and resulted in the discovery that most of the children have a good background in children's literature thereby enabling them to more material for dramatic presentation and that there is also a goodly share of the playwriting spirit to be fostered in the group as Jane Lazard not only wrote the play for the most part, but gave it its present and fitting title.

These workshop plays are always open to the public and it is hoped that more public spirited citizens will make an effort to attend in the future.

Royal Neighbors
Hold Fine Party

The Birthday Party held by the Highland Park Royal Neighbors last Wednesday night was a great success in every way. Mrs. Ida Carlson and Mrs. Florence Yager, ably assisted by many volunteer helpers, worked hard to see that everyone had a good time. The entertainment was provided by Miss Margaret Esch, violinist, Miss Joyce Slack, tap dancer, and a very humorous and well done skit, "Barnacle Bill," put on by Mr. Otney and Mr. Klemp. The rest of the time was spent in dancing, both modern and old-fashioned dances, with music furnished by Worth's Orchestra, and the calling done by Mr. Eugene Zahnle. Refreshments were served, including a beautiful birthday cake. A large crowd enjoyed this evening of fun, and voted it a huge success.—Contributed.
