Mundelein Defeated By The Highwood Boosters

Last Thursday, Jan. 4, the undefeated Highwood Boosters won their fourth straight victory this year and the twentieth straight victory since they were organized last year. They defeated Mundelein by a score of 33 to 28. They had to play an extra period in order to decide the game. The Boosters led at half time, 18 to 11, but that didn't mean anything to the Mundelein team, for they came back with renewed vigor and when the final whistle blew the score stood at 26-26. The game then went into an overtime. Cummings put the Boosters ahead with a beautiful one-handed shot only to have a Mundelein lad do the same thing and again tie the score. Then Scabb, the hero of the evening, sank a basket to put the Boosters in the lead. He followed this basket with another one and just before the game ended Scabby put in a free throw giving the Boosters a five-point lead and victory. This game was featured by some fine guarding by Maestri, Somenzi and Ori.

The undefeated Pirate Girls played the opening game. They defeated the Grayslake girls team by a score of 34-6. The scoring was done by Helen Feraldo and Mickey Marzocchi, while Katie Orlandi and Theresa Santi did some fine guarding. No team this year has scored more than 10 points on the Pirate Girls.

The first game of the evening was played by the Red Arrows and the Sketches' Five. The Red Arrows won the game 20-19. Bresa starred for the Arrows, while Albert Pigatei and Ransom Ori starred for the losers. These two teams were made up mostly of grammar school children.

Tonight, Jan. 11, there will be two games. The Pirate Girls will play the opening game and the Boosters will play the final game. The games are at the Oak Terrace school, with the first game beginning at 7 p.m.

Chicago Man Is Shot, Robbed Here Friday By a "Hitch Hiker"

Clifford J. Brown, 51 years old, 6717 South Union Avenue, Chicago, was slugged and shot three times, once through the neck and twice in the head, by a hitch hiker whom he had befriended late Friday afternoon in Highland Park. In spite of the three dangerous wounds, Mr. Brown is recovering at the Highland Park Hospital.

His assailant was Willard Schray, 39 years old, who told the police he had been paroled from a life term in the Indiana penitentiary after a conviction for killing his wife.

Highland Park police were first notified of the shooting at 5:30 Friday afternoon when they received a call from the Highland Park Hospital stating that Mr. Brown had been brought there by C. A. Tregillus, a driver for the Lasker farm. Mr. Tregillus found the wounded man walking along Ridge Road in Highland Park, near the Lake Forest line.

As the story of the event has been pieced together, Schray stopped Mr. Brown at the point of a gun, and ordered him out of the car. Mr. Brown complied and was relieved of his cash, as well as his overcoat. Apparently an argument started, as Schray is said to have fired a shot through Mr. Brown's neck.

A scuffle is thought to have followed, and Mr. Brown was apparently getting the best of the fight when he was struck over the head by Schray with the butt of the gun.

While Mr. Brown was lying on the ground, Schray fired two more shots that entered Mr. Brown's head. Schray then took the car and headed north, stopping at a restaurant in Lake Bluff.

Chief of Police Eugene Spaid of Lake Bluff, unaware of the shooting, noticed that Schray's overcoat did not fit him and that there were bloodstains on his trousers. He took the man into custody, who confessed at once, apparently believing that the shooting was known to Chief Spaid.

Schray was taken to the Highland Park Hospital, where the wounded man, still conscious, identified him. Schray will be held at the Highland Park jail and criminal action will be withheld, pending the outcome of Mr. Brown's injuries.

Highland Parker Named Democratic Chairman

By unanimous choice, Thomas L. G. Devell of Highland Park has been named chairman of the new Young People's Organization of the Lake County Democratic Society headed by Judge Clarence N. Goodwin of Lake Forest.

One of the vice-presidents is Samuel S. Smith, also of Highland Park.

Holy Cross Team Is Victor Over Barrington

The Holy Cross Church basketball team, of Deerfield, won its opening Catholic Youth Organization game at Des Plaines Sunday, 35-8, over a new entry, Barrington. The first half ended with this score: Barrington, 6; Holy Cross, 10.

With the insertion into the lineup of L. McDermott, Horn and Berdleson in the second period, the Deerfield boys soon made a runaway contest of the game. L. McDermott made four field goals, Berdleson and Horn three each, Dean, Dostalek and Tillman two each, and Mele, one field goal.

Milstein To Play At Winnetka On Monday

Nathan Milstein, "the phenomenal violinist," will play at New Trier High School in Winnetka on next Monday evening, Jan. 15. This appearance is part of the program of the Winnetka Music Club this season.

Milstein was born in Odessa on Dec. 31, 1904. He studied with Stolarzki in his native city, with Auer in Petrograd, and with Ysaie in Brussels. His early years were spent touring up and down Russia. Then came the Revolution, the traditional escape to Europe with its equally traditional despairs and joys, the penniless arrival in Berlin, the advent of a patron with a Stradivarius, the first concerts which procured him tours throughout Europe. Today Nathan Milstein has no home, but on these continents he is an honored guest.
