HIGHLAND PARK LOCAL and PERSONAL

The marriage of Miss Margaret Carr, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter S. Carr of Chicago and Marshall G. Sampson, son of Marshall E. Sampson took place Saturday afternoon in a candlelight service in the apartment of the bride's parents. The ceremony was read by Dr. Dudley Stark, rector of St. Chrysostom Church before an improvised altar of rubrum lilies. The bride was attired in an Empire gown of dull finished sheer white crepe fashioned with long sleeves and a sweeping court train. Over the train fell a historic rosepoint veil that was fastened in a tiny cup with orange blossoms. The veil, which was made in Sorrento, Italy for an Italian princess, was brought to this country a number of years ago and since then has been worn by four Chicago brides besides Mrs. Sampson. All of these young matrons, Mrs. Byron S. Harvey, Jr., Mrs. Albert Elliott, Mrs. Roger Q. White and Mrs. Edward Hibben attended the wedding Saturday. The bride's bouquet was a lovely round cluster of white orchids. Her attendants wore shoulder corsages of purple orchids. Mrs. Norton Conway of New York attended the bride as matron of honor. The bridesmaids were the bride's sister-in-law Mrs. Robert S. Carr, and the bride's cousin, Mrs. W. Press Hodgkins. David Sampson served his brother as best man, and ushering were William Watkins of Lake Forest and Philip Taber of Buffalo. After a wedding supper Mr. Sampson and his bride left on a honeymoon trip to Bermuda. Upon their return they will live at 6 East Elm Street.
