 Thursday, February 15th, the Ash Street home of Mrs. Everett D. Graff of Winnetka is being thrown open to all Mortar Boards of the University of Chicago living on the North Shore. Mrs. Graff, chairman of the North Shore Alumni unit has arranged for Mrs. E. V. T. Brown, popular dramatic reader, to give her now famous interpretation of "Ah Wilderness." Many of the older members of the club will, no doubt, be reminded of the days when Mortar Board was chiefly a literary organization and Mrs. Harold Ickes, a charter member, was among the leading literary lights. Mrs. Ickes' recent publication, "Mesa Land," a conducted tour of the Indian country of New Mexico, is testimony to her continued talent for writing, as well as to her lively sympathy with Mr. Ickes' interest in Indian affairs. Prominent among the Highland Park members of the Mortar Board Club are Mrs. George Lytton, Mrs. Edward Roach, Mrs. Roderick Macpherson, Mrs. Roland More, Mrs. George Carr, Mrs. Bernard Newman, Mrs. Haskell Rhetz, Mrs. Allen Wolf, Mrs. Cary Wood Thomas, Miss Hester Ann Thomas, Miss Elena Fontany, Mrs. Arnold Schoop and Mrs. Standen Vanderbie.

Highwood Boosters
Win From Highland
Park Feb. 1, 24-22

Last Thursday, Feb. 1, the Highwood Boosters defeated the strong Highland Park Merchants by a score of 24-22. This was the Boosters' 25th straight victory since organizing. Most of the Boosters scoring was done by Scabby and Swede Anderson while Cummings and Notari-jacino did some fine guarding. Incidentally, Scabby will be out for the rest of the season, having hurt a cartilage in his leg. The scoring for the merchants was done by Bob McClure and Bob Skidmore. The game was very exciting till the end. The Boosters made three points in the last two minutes of play to win the game.
 The Pirate Girls defeated the Winnetka girls by a score of 20-7. Mickey and Katie did most of the scoring for the Pirates while Janet did some fine guarding. Tuesday night the Pirate Girls played the opening game of the Y.M.C. game in Highland Park. The Pirates played North Chicago and defeated them by a 26-15 score. The scoring was done by Janet and Mickey while Helen and Eda did some fine guarding. Incidentally, a few weeks ago, the North Chicago Girls defeated the Pirates to give the Pirates their first defeat in two years.

 There will be three games tonight at the Oak Terrace School, the first game beginning at 7 p.m.
Obituary of Mrs. George Williams
 Mrs. George J. Williams (Clara Charlotte Clavey) was born Feb. 19, 1890 at Northbrook, Ill., the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Fred D. Clavey.
 After a lingering illness over a period of two years from which she rallied at times with ever new hopes for recovery she suffered a serious relapse which called her to her eternal home Feb. 3, at the age of 43 years, 11 months, and 16 days.
 At the age of fourteen she was confirmed into the membership of St. Paul's Evangelical Church of Deerfield. September 9, 1909, she was united in marriage to George J. Williams of Highland Park, Three children were born to this union, one preceding the mother in death. She leaves to mourn her departure, the bereaved husband, one son, Raymond, one daughter Bertha, one grandson Wallace, one daughter-in-law; five sisters, Ella Werhane, Ida Scheskie, Julia Scheskie, Alice Trute and Amanda Clavey; four brothers, Elmer, Harry, Raymond and Roy.

There are many other relatives and friends.
 Mrs. Williams has an enviable record of service in the church and other organizations. She was a member of the St. Johns Evangelical Church of Highland Park, a member of the St. Johns Ladies Aid, of the Eastern Star, and White Shrine.
 Being active in all these organizations, her primary interest however was in the church. She would often say, "my church comes first." Her life, her devotion and interest in the church fully bear out this fact.
 The St. Johns Evangelical Church and particularly the Ladies' Aid, mourns in her death the loss of a deeply devoted and faithful member and worker.
 May God, our Heavenly Father, comfort the bereaved family and friends.—Contributed.
