

New Term of Ballet Started At Y.W.C.A.

Therese O'Neil, an associate of Merriell Abbott, dance creator of Chicago, with studios in the Lyon & Healy Building, has opened another class for older girls at the Highland Park Y.W.C.A.

Miss O'Neil has been associated with the local Y.W.C.A. this winter teaching on Tuesday afternoons. Instruction is given in ballet, modern German and tap. The older girls' class is from 5:30 to 5:30 o'clock.

Funds Raised For the Benefit of Mr. Griese

A total of $227 has been raised in Highwood and Highland Park for the benefit of Fred Griese, who has undergone an operation in a Chicago hospital.

Part of this money was raised through the efforts of Chief of Police S. P. Loesch, of Highwood, from 67 $1 cash donations; $30 was donated by the social service department of the Highland Park Woman's Club, of which Mrs. E. T. R. Murfey is chairman; and $130 was contributed by the Italian Women's Prosperity Club.

Highwood Boy Scout Drive Now In Progress

The Highwood Boy Scout drive for 1934 is now in progress. Everyone's support is solicited by the committee, and many of the women of the community are giving their time and effort to this worthy cause.

Otto F. Fisher is finance chairman, and the team captains are Herman Fromelt, J. E. Engquist, Raymond Roth and Paul Muzik.

Ray Sheahan Tops Bowling League

Last Tuesday the Mutual Coal Co. bowling team won three games from the Elks Club in the regular weekly bowling meet at the Majestic Bowling alleys. Pearl's tavern took two from the Wheel Inn in the same evening. The American Legion won three games from the Central Cafe on Thursday, while the Y. M. Club won the entire series from Colemans.

High individual game was won by Ray Sheahan with 212. Sheahan is back in his form and is expected to hit some high scores before the league ends. High series was also taken by Raynie Sheahan with 626.

Tonight (Thursday) the Mutual Coal meets the American Legion and Central Cafe will bowl Colemans.

Business Girls Will Attend a Conference

The Business and Professional Girls' Mid-Winter Conference will be held in Racine, Wis., this week-end. Nine members from the BY's Club have made their reservations: Edna Schneider, Matilda Helmer, Emily Bryn, Beulah Demgen, Alvina Culver, Dorothy Dahl, May Hansen, Vera Whitcomb and Grace Hansen.

The conference theme is "Business Girls Building for a Changing Age." Subjects for the discussion groups are "Building in Ourselves," "Building in Our Jobs and Building Society." The conference opens with a banquet Saturday and closes after tea Sunday.

New Secrets of the Sirets, the French detective police. Another article in a new series of revelations by H. Ashton-Wolfe, the "real Sherlock Holmes" of Paris, will be published in the American Weekly, the magazine distributed with next Sunday's Chicago Herald and Examiner.

Dr. Coulter To Address Joint P. T. A. Meeting
On Thursday, March 1, at 3:30 p.m. a special meeting of Deerfield-

Shields P.T.A. will be held in the school auditorium. All members of the Deerfield-Shields P.T.A. and all other P.T.A.'s in Highland Park are cordially invited. The meeting will be of unusual interest. Dr. Merle Coulter of the Chicago University will give a 30-minute talk on the new plan used in the Chicago University and its effect upon education in the last three years. Directly following his address four new movie talking films on science will be shown. These pictures will not be too technical to interest everyone. The Deerfield-Shields science students will be guests at this meeting.

"You Are Old, Father William"
the young man cried,
"and you surely must dread that Suburban Ride!"

"YOU are old, Father William" the young man cried, "And your bones are so fragile and brittle that surely a lengthy suburban ride must cause you to ache quite a little!"

"Not at all, not at all!" Father William replied, "I ride the North Western and thrive! On the cushions of plush, through the landscape I rush, and feel grand as on time I arrive!"
