

2 HIGHWOOD GIRLS DEAD AFTER CRASH

stretch of road, near where the two girls met their deaths.

Mr. Kruse and Frank Belmonti were the most seriously injured of the four boys. The former has been in a critical condition at the Highland Park Hospital, with severe burns and internal injuries, while Mr. Belmonti is recovering at the same hospital from burns and severe bruises.

Both Miss Swan and Miss Calbri recently had been elected members of the National Honor Society, because of their scholastic standing, participation in school activities, character, general co-operation and reliability. Miss Swan was most interested in art and drama. She was a member of the chorus, and always maintained a very good scholastic average.

Miss Calbri was prominent in the Girls' Club activities, had outstanding scholastic average, being twenty-fourth in rank in the senior class. Her activities also included sports, the councilor force, Garrick Club, and assistant director of the senior play.

Miss Swan was the youngest child of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Swan, of 46 South Central Avenue, Highwood. She was born in Highwood on Feb. 20, 1916. Besides her mother and father, she is survived by a sister, Mrs. Ethel Swan Nelson, of Highwood; and two brothers, Conrad and Wesley Swan, and other relatives of Chicago and vicinity and Detroit.

Funeral services for Miss Swan were held at 2:30 Monday afternoon at the Highwood Methodist Church. The Rev. O. G. Sandberg, of Chicago, assisted by the Rev. N. S. Nye, of Grace M. E. Church of Highland Park, officiated. Burial was in the Northshore Garden of Memories.

Miss Calbri was 19 years old, and was born in Italy. Her father is Delmo Calbri, of 336 North Avenue, Highwood.

Funeral services for Miss Calbri were held at 9:30 Wednesday morning at St. James Church, Highwood, and burial was in All Saints Cemetery, Desplaines.

RUFUS C. DAWES TO TALK HERE MARCH 14

The entire country, and more particularly Chicago and vicinity, owes a debt of gratitude to Mr. Dawes for the stimulation to trade and industry which resulted from the Century of Progress, which with the added features and improvements will undoubtedly equal or exceed the attendance record when it reopens this summer.

There will also be a showing of moving pictures in color of the World's Fair. These are the work of H. Earl Hoover of Glencoe whose work in color-cinematography has been recognized as outstanding.

GARNETT'S

There's a Smartness and Chic in These New "Tom Boy" SPORT FROCKS

Attractively Priced at $3.98 and $5.98

Women who appreciate the better things in cotton sports wear will at once agree that these Tom Boy Frocks are certain to be among the fashion leaders for the coming out-of-door season.

Shir-o-Shakkar—a new member of the popular seer-sucker family is featured in these frocks at 5.98.

Cool as a Cucumber

at Right

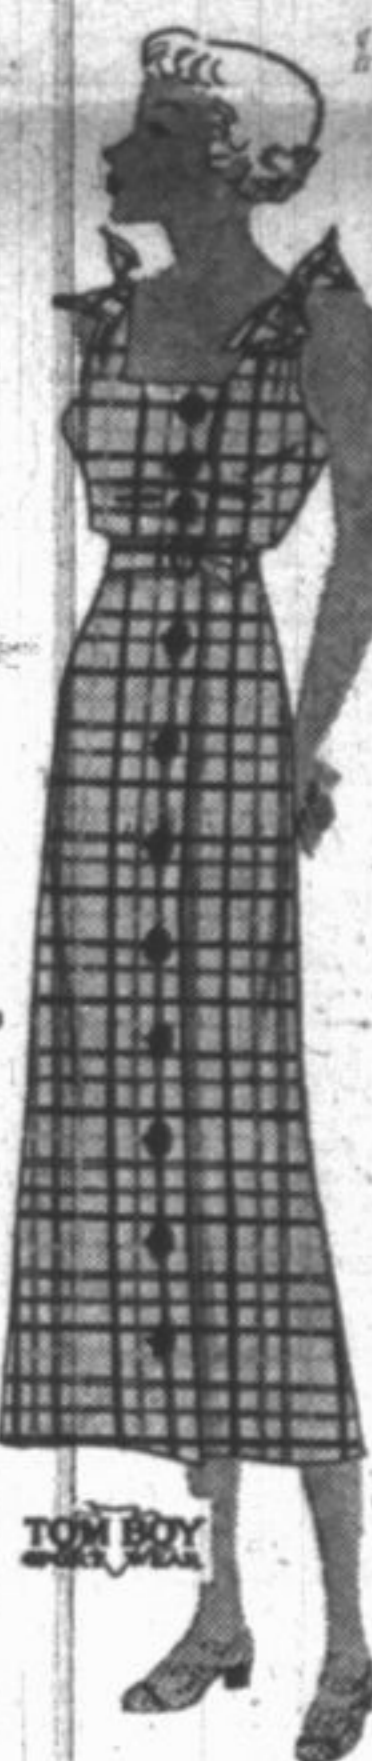

Shir-o-Shakkar, the fabric of the season, has been smartly used in this severely tailored Tom Boy Shirtwaist Frock. The buttons and buckle are dark, in a shade contrasting with the gay stripes. Priced at $5.98.

Pastels in Pique

Wide revers and large contracting buttons give quite an air to this Tom Boy frock. It is recommended for a chair on the side lines, for an active game of tennis, or for wherever you go and whatever you do on a warm summer's day. The price, $3.98.

Where You Dress for the Beach

at Right

We suggest this Tom Boy frock because it can be buttoned up, right over your bathing suit. It is made of Lorraine Shir-o-Shakkar, so it won't show the dampness if you put it on again after you swim. The buttons—in a fascinating waffle finish are in a dark tone, to contrast with the plaids in the design. $5.98.

Much a Matter of Plaids

Here is another Tom Boy, full of gay colors in Lorraine Shir-o-Shakkar, depending upon the rings on the shoulders for only trimming touch. It is the sort of frock that the younger generation will live in all day long. It is cool, comfortable, and tubs like a dish rag. The price is $5.98.

A Star in Stripes

at Right

The smartly tailored shirtwaist frock is a star this season—and so we show this two-piece model of mercerized broad-cloth shirting, in two tone stripes.

It is a frock that is flattering for all occasions, and it is marked at a price that makes it doubly attractive. $3.98.
