Waukegan, Ill., March 5, 1934.

Cummings & Wyman, attorneys.

Clean Up Week Through the Illinois Emergency Relief Commission, Deerfield is to have a clean-up week. Mayor Harry Clavey has appointed Trustees M A. Pottenger, Ralph Peterson and Harry A. Wing to co-operate with Mrs. William A. Tennermann, local I.E.R.C. representative, in planning for this project. The village will provide the truck and keep triplicate records of this project, as well as several others which are being planned, such as playgrounds on vacant lots in many sections of the Only men on the relief roles will 50 cents per hour, foremen 63% cents; drivers, 80 cents. A village official will act as supervisor. The date of the clean-up will be an-

Mrs. Paul Dietz has been securing permission from owners of vacant lots in the village, which will be cleaned up and where playgrounds will be established to keep children off the streets. Boy Scouts will supervise the play. As it takes about three weeks for Call approval of I.E.R.C. projects, it will be at least another week before def- Tel. P11-13pd inite plans can be made.
