

Mandolinistic Club Is "New Idea" Here

(By Diane Benedict)
This week we called on the director of the Euterpe Mandolinistic Club, Dario C. Bonetti, and found that he had established his club headquarters and school at 518 Central Avenue in Highland Park.

We also learned that this "new kind of a club" in this area is quite the thing and is creating a lot of interest among music lovers on the North Shore.

Mr. Bonetti told us that the mandolin was the most popular plec-tural instrument among the members of the club. Guitars and banjos make up an excellent background and embellish the volume of the penetrating tone of the first and second mandolins, which in most cases carries the lead.

After snooping about the studio looking at this and that stringed instrument we came upon the list of members, which included several new ones. They are Rocco Stella, Fred Schoening, Michael Lamana (yes, you are right, the chap who likes to sing La Luna Mezzo Mare), Nora Finley, Gus Olson, Jim Bor-tolotti, Alfonso Burgoni, and Vito Tamarrì. Everyone of these will be recognized as excellent musicians and we have all heard them at one time or another.

When Mr. Bonetti was asked how he conducted his rehearsals we were told that he rehearses with each group of instruments, mandolins, guitars, and banjos, individually, then one evening a week the entire club has a rehearsal.

We all wanted to know when they were going to have another concert, but it seems to be a deep, dark secret, and we had no success in learning anything further.

Legion Junior Team To Play Legion Members

On Friday night the American Legion Junior Baseball team will play a team composed of members of the Dumaresq Spencer Post of Highland Park, the game to be played at Sunset Park at 6:30.

Five members of the Junior team have hung up batting records of over .300. Jim Kerr led the list with .454, Grant Benson .368, Allan Sordyl .333, Jim Lytle .316, and Bob Moon .300. Benson led in the largest number of runs.

Derfield won the championship of the south division in the first series, Highland Park tying with Highwood for second place. A second series is being arranged and will begin shortly. All home games from now on will be played at the Sunset Park diamond, and will be on Friday nights.

Italian Pupils to Give Recital on Saturday

The Italo-American Association of Deerfield Township invites the public to attend the recital to be given by the pupils of the School of Italian Language at the Oak Terrace School auditorium in Highwood Saturday, June 16, at 8 p.m.

Mayor Egidio Mocogni and other Highwood notables of Italian extraction will be present. No charge or contribution will be asked.

A. and P. Stores Have Variety of Food Items

In browsing around the Highland Park grocery shops the other day, we were amazed at the variety of produce items offered at the two A. & P. stores. And now that the days are here or serving crisp, fresh vegetables and fruits, they seem to have outdone themselves in bringing you fresh things to eat. There were radishes, tomatoes, lettuce, cucumbers, and all the other vegetables that go into making delicious salads. And they were all reasonably priced, too.

On their other shelves you will find plain and fancy groceries with labels such as Heinz, Crosse & Blackwell, Snider, Del Monte, and all the other food names that are known around the world. We suggest, too, that you stop for a chat with the smiling manager of the meat department at 512 Central Avenue, who is so skillful with knife and cleaver that getting the choicest steaks is only a matter of a few moments. Stop by and see the local A. & P. stores this week-end. They will be glad to serve you.

A Lady's Watch Found Near Lausanne Hotel

Did any Highland Park young lady lose a wrist watch in the summer of 1917 or 1918?

The following interesting letter, received by The Highland Park Press this week, explains this question.

"Dear Sirs—
"I have found during the summer of 1917 or 18 a lady's gold bracelet watch with initials M.E.G., in the sand by the lake near this hotel. At that time I put it in one of my coat pockets, but when I got in this hotel where I was in service I could find it no more. Some time ago I found this watch inside the lining of my coat. A moment before a young girl about 15 years of age was playing near by. She may be the owner, either residing at the hotel.

"If you ever be able to find the person would you kindly give me a description of this watch and also indications of the engraving." The letter was signed, curiously, as follows:

"Case postale 39547, St. Francois Lausanne."

At a special parish meeting last Monday evening, in the St. James Church hall preliminary arrangements and plans were made for the coming annual Carnival of lawn social, which will take place July 19, 20, 21.

The Carnival will be held on the church grounds this year, instead of Muzik's lawn as has been the custom for the past few years.
