Young Men's Club Nine Defeats Zion City, 8-2

Last Sunday afternoon the Young Men's Club nine avenged an early season defeat at the hands of the Zion City Club, defeating them 8-2. The game, which was closer than the score indicates was played at Sunset Park. Strowme, the new Highland Park slab ace, played the leading role, striking out thirteen Zionists.

The visitors were the first to score when H. Guy reached base on an error and Cliffe followed with a triple. The losers opened the eighth with a walk and a hit but the rally died when Segert made a circus catch on Guy's scorching liner and doubled the runner off first. The final Zion marker came in the ninth on a hit and a sacrifice fly.

The local aggregation scored one in the second on hits by Schroeder, Bock and Strowme; three in the fourth on bingles by Smith, Segert, Bock, Bestor and Strowme; one in the sixth on a walk to Bestor and Strowme's third successive safety. The winners topped it off with three in the eighth when Gartner, Segert and Rogan hit safely and Skidmore got life on an error.

Next Sunday the Young Men's Club will play host to "Biff" Blanchard's Evanston A.C. The Evanstonians lineup will be graced with the names of "Jackie" Sullivan, Don Mellinger and other former Northwestern University stars.

International Boat and Sportsman Show Opens

The big International Motorboat and Sportsman Show, which opened Saturday at the Travel and Transport building of the World's Fair, is arousing much interest in Chicago and suburban communities. The show presents a diversified program, including archery, rifle shooting, fly casting, and other sports, and offers a complete North American zoo, and life on the frontier exhibit. The exposition also seeks to interest neighborhood groups and young athletes in staging competitive sports affairs and pageants.

For instance, a contest in amateur boat building will be held soon, and there will be horse shoe pitching contests, marksmanship tests and archery meets. The management of the show wants to hear from interested organizations in the communities, this especially including boy and girl scout troops, camp fire girls, boy's clubs, high schools and neighborhood playground groups. Consult Al Faeh, contest manager of the Motorboat and Sportsman show, by addressing him at 11 South LaSalle Street, Chicago.

Admiral Cluverius Presents Flag to Local Naval Unit

For outstanding work among the seventy-two Naval Communication Reserve units in the Ninth Naval District, Unit Eight at Highland Park was presented with a United States Flag by Admiral Watt T. Cluverius at Great Lakes last Tuesday.

"It gives me great pleasure," the Commandant said, "to reward Unit Eight with this Flag. Out of the seventy-two units in this district, only five have been given these flags, therefore you may well be proud of the fine record you have set for consistent drill attendance and high efficiency in your emergency radio work."

Next Wednesday Unit Eight will climax two month's intensive recruiting with the rewarding of a prize to the man having enlisted the most men in that period. During the two months, ten men were enlisted in the special radio branch of the U.S. Naval Reserve, and about ten more turned down because of physical disabilities.

The awarding of summer cruises was announced as follows: For training duty aboard the U.S.S. Hawk, sailing from Michigan City on July 1, Robert Blake; unit executive officer. For training duty at Naval Radio Station NAJ at Great Lakes, Ill. Joseph N. Kessler, Rm 1st class.

Unit Eight meetings are conducted at the Community Service building, McGovern and Laurel, every Wednesday evening at 8 p.m. The public is invited to witness any of these meetings, which are featured by marching on the drill deck, and instruction in Naval radio procedure.—(Contributed).
