Henry Weber, Carl Bricken Conducting Chicago Symphony

Two young Chicago musicians are conducting the Chicago Symphony Orchestra this week (July 15 to 21, inclusive) in the water theater of the Swift Bridge of Service, 1934 Century of Progress. They are Henry Weber, of Lake Bluff, well known through his activities with the Civic Opera Company, and Carl Bricken, conductor of the University of Chicago Orchestra.

It has always been the policy of Frederick Stock, conductor of the Chicago Symphony, as well as G. F. Swift, president of Swift & Company, to recognize and develop talent in the younger generation. In accordance with this policy, the two Chicago men have been engaged to share the conductor's stand with Dr. Eric DeLamarter.

Mr. Weber, who will be conductor of the new Chicago Grand Opera Company this winter, was born in Chicago 33 years ago. At an early age he was taken to Austria to study, and was graduated with high honors from the University of Vienna and the Royal Academy of Music. He made his Chicago debut in "Tannhauser" in 1924. In addition to conducting operas, he is a director and producer fo the National Broadcasting Company. Mrs. Weber is Marian Claire, opera star.

Mr. Bricken came to Chicago as a member of the staff of the University of Chicago's newly organized music school in 1931. He organized the University Symphony Orchestra and several other musical organizations, including the University Chorus. He received his bachelor's degree at Yale, and conducted the Yale Symphony Orchestra for two years.

The 1929 Pulitzer music prize was won by Mr. Bricken, and in the following year he was awarded the Guggenheim fellowship. Compositions written abroad include a piano quintet in D Minor, a string quartet in C Minor, and a suite for orchestra.

The presentation of the young Chicagoans is a part of a program which will bring to Chicago the most famous aggregation of symphony conductors ever to appear in one season. Karl Krueger, conductor of the Kansas City Philharmonic orchestra, the first of the guest leaders, shared the baton with Dr. DeLamarter the week of July 8 to 15.

From July 22 to 28, Willem Van Hoggstraten, conductor of the Portland (Oregon) Symphony Orchestra, will direct the efforts of the 70 symphony musicians. He is a native of Utrecht, Holland, and made his American debut in New York in 1922. He has long been affiliated with the Lewisohn Stadium concerts in that city.

Henry Hadley, associate conductor of the New York Philharmonic, makes his appearance the week of August 5 to 12. Mr. Hadley received his musical education in Vienna and returned to the United States to conduct the Seattle Symphony. Prior to joining the Philharmonic in New York, he conducted the San Francisco Symphony Orchestra.

Somewhere at sea, hurrying to the United States from New Zealand for his appearance before the symphony the two weeks of August 12 to 19, is Sir Hamilton Harty, conductor of the London Symphony. His coming is eagerly awaited by music lovers who were present at his Chicago debut with the Chicago Symphony last season.

Dr. Frederick Stock, conductor of the Chicago Symphony, who is now in Europe, will return to take charge of his famous group for the week beginning September 2.

Enthusiasm which manifested itself in an attendance of nearly 10,000 at the initial concerts of the Chicago Symphony on Sunday, July 1, continues, the Swift Bridge of Service reporting an increase in visitors from 67 per cent to 76 per cent of the total attendance at the Fair.
