Program of Deep Path Theatre Is Announced

"Manhattan Melodrama," starring Clark Gable, Myrna Loy and William Powell, Thursday and Friday, July 26, 27.

"Massacre," starring Richard Barthelmess, Saturday matinee, July 28.

"Where Sinners Meet," starring Diana Wynyard, Clive Brook and Billie Burke, Saturday evening, July 28.

"The House of Rothschild," with George Arliss, Robert Young, Loretta Young, Boris Karloff, Mrs. George Arliss, Sunday, Monday and Tuesday, July 29, 30 and 31. "Stingaree," starring Irene Dunne and Richard Dix, Wednesday and Thursday, Aug. 1 and 2.

Co-starred for the first time since their appearance in the epic picture, "Cimarron," Miss Dunne and Mr. Dix come to the screen in "Stingaree," a romantic tale of the seventies in Australia. The story deals with the great, mutual love of Stingaree, a dashing bandit, and Hilda Bouverie, who drudges in the home of the Clarksons, her rich relatives. Stingaree hears Hilda singing when he enters the Clarkson home to rob it, and immediately falls in love with her. When the police surround the place to capture him, he abducts the girl and makes his escape. "Stingaree" is billed as a musical, dramatic and scenic treat.

At certain hours prescription work is heavy. But each prescription is important. Don't ask the pharmacist to rush the prescription! Ingredients must be correct, quantities exact. There must be no error; each prescription must be checked and rechecked. Lives depend upon unvarying accuracy.
