Property Owners Here Offer Land To U. S.

Owners of 100 acres of property which lies near the Exmoor Country Club, adjacent to Skokie Boulevard, are offering their land for sale to the federal government for use in conducting a "back to the land" movement in Lake County.

The government has used up its option on 150 acres of land elsewhere in the county. The plan advocated by Brig. Gen. F. C. Bolles, commandant of Fort Sheridan, may be used if the land here is taken by the government.

Highland Park residents are expected to approve the plan, which would prevent the land's use for commercial and industrial uses and forestall the construction of shacks which would detract from the appearance and property value of the neighborhood.
