A Complete Vacation

WHEREVER YOU GO

Disturbing thoughts of home and business sometimes mar the full enjoyment of vacation days. When such anxieties crop up in your mind, call up home or office and find out. Probably all is well, but if you call by telephone, talk, listen, ask questions and get answers, then you know. A visit by voice, daily or as often as you feel the need, gives you immediate and definite knowledge of what is going on and how those at home are faring. Make telephoning a vacation habit. The cost is surprisingly moderate at all times.
