

MARTHA WEATHERED AS USUAL SETS THE PACE FOR THE COMING SEASON

The Tunic Afternoon Gown which comes in all the new Fall shades is of Matignor Crepe trimmed with metal rings. The price is $97.00, and the Black Felt, Feather-trimmed Hat is $18.50. Miss Weathered's collections in both shops contain the most fascinating pieces she has ever shown. Small sizes are carried in her Misses Shop. Larger sizes, up to 44, in MARTHA WEATHERED SHOP—THE DRAKE

Deerfield Local and Personal

The Dorcas Home was the scene of a pretty fall wedding Saturday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock when Miss Elma Lewis (a former girl of the Dorcas Home) became the bride of Mr. Edwin Larson of Chicago. The bride descended the beautiful colonial stairway with her father, followed by Miss Grace Lewis (twin sister of the bride) as bridesmaid and Mr. Edward Groh as best man. Miss Jane Agnew played Lohengrin's Wedding March. They were met at the foot of the stairs by the groom and Rev. W. J. Agnew, who read the service in front of the French doors which were banked with autumn flowers. The guests present, in addition to the Dorcas Home family were Mr. and Mrs. Edward Groh (the latter was formerly Anne Yohannan), Mr. Clarence Lewis, Mrs. Schwam and Miss Grace Lewis. The bride and groom will reside in Chicago.

Rev. and Mrs. Mark J. Andrews and their family of Harlan, Ky., who were en route from Ephriam, Wis., to their home, were guests of honor Tuesday at a reception at the Deerfield Presbyterian Church. Rev. Andrews was pastor of that church for eight years.

Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Sturtevant have returned from a Canadian trip. Their return was rather hasty as Mrs. Sturtevant was taken very ill with ptomaine poisoning.

Mrs. Fred LaBahn attended a party at St. John's Church in Evanston on Wednesday and was the guest of Mrs. George LaBahn.

Mrs. John Welsh and Mrs. Leslie Behrens will act as hostesses on Thursday (today) at a meeting of the Holy Cross Sewing Club at the rectory. There will be a quilt exhibit and a prize for the best one.

Mrs. Arthur Lee gave a report of the Evangelical W. M. S. convention at Oakdale camp grounds near Freeport on Tuesday at a meeting of the Bethlehem Church Woman's Missionary Society. Mrs. E. J. Brusio led the devotional part of the program. Hostesses for the afternoon were Mrs. Arthur Merner, Mrs. Fred Stryker, and Mrs. Floyd Stanger.

Sister Mary Leonette (Lucy O'Connor) and Sister M. Gonzaga of the Immaculate Convent, Chicago, visited last Friday at the homes of James O'Connor, Frank and Joseph O'Connor and with the Richard O'Connors in Highwood.

Daniel Wessling of Grand Junction, Iowa, with George Rockenbach and E. G. Jacobson spent Thursday at Hines, Ill., with Abston Plagge. Mr. Wessling, who is 85 years of age, drove here alone from his home and has been making many trips in this vicinity accompanied by his constant companion George Rockenbach, age 93 years.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Ott of Chicago were supper guests on Monday at the home of Mrs. W. F. Plagge.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Stanger and son George returned Friday from a visit with Mrs. Stanger's sister, Mrs. P. N. Butson in Estherville, Iowa.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Leaming and daughter, Miss Marjorie, who have occupied Mrs. Cecelia Frost's house on Woodward Avenue this summer, returned Monday to their home on Dean Avenue in Highland Park.

Miss Irene Rockenbach left last Friday for Lansing, Mich. She will also spend several days at her cottage at Turk Lake, Mich.

Mrs. Edna Stanger Orsborn spent the week-end with the Hillman and Wessling families in Grand Junction, Iowa. Her son Charles returned home with her on Monday, also her nephew Clifford Stanger and her aunt Mrs. Edwin Plagge of Rogers Park, who had all been spending several weeks in Iowa.

Mrs. Carleton Scribner's picture appeared with a group of Junior Leaguers last week in the Tribune, when that group was having a moving day.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Bates have returned from their western trip and are staying at the Chester Wessling home. The Bates house on Warrington Road is occupied until October 1 by Mr. and Mrs. B. J. Kacin of Chicago.

The Chatter 'N' Sew Cub held its last luncheon bridge party for this season on Tuesday at Glen Gables Tea Room in Glencoe. Mrs. R. E. Pettis was hostess. Last Wednesday the group had a very lovely party at the Kildeer Tea Room, near Libertyville, with Mrs. G. A. Willen and Mrs. C. T. Anderson as hostesses.

Miss Dorothy Lidgerwood was the overnight guest of Miss Evelyn Shiel in Chicago on Friday.
