Arch Of Sabers Lends Military Pomp To Wedding Sept. 9

All the splendor of military pomp and glamour, of the three hundred guests who attended one of the most colorful and unusual weddings of the season which occurred Saturday afternoon, Sept. 8, when Miss Della Louise Updelder of Detroit, Mich., became the bride of Lieutenant Paul William Blanchard, Jr., of the U. S. Army Air Corps, Selfridge Field, Mt. Clemens, Mich.

The bride, who was escorted by her uncle, wore a gown of white duchess satin made on princess lines, close fitting sleeves and a long train. Her tulle veil was simply arranged and caught on either side with orange blossoms, and she carried a shower bouquet of gardenias and lilies of the valley. She was attended by two of her classmates, Miss Katherine Preston of Detroit, her bridesmaid, wore a gown of yellow chiffon made on long lines, and she carried a bouquet of talisman roses.

The maid of honor, Miss Adeline Yoert of North Carolina wore a gown of blue chiffon with hat to match and carried pink and white roses.

Lieut. George Slader, a classmate of Lieut. Blanchard at West Point, served as best man.

The marriage ceremony, performed by the Rev. Frank Pitt, formerly of Highland Park, took place in the home of the bride's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Charles M. Volkner, at "The Timbers," New Baltimore, Mich.

Lieut. Paul W. Blanchard, Jr., is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul W. Blanchard of this city, and is a graduate of the U. S. Military Academy, West Point, N.Y., class of 1930.

The bride attended Liggett School and Marot Junior College, Tompson, Conn., and is a graduate of the University of Michigan. She is affiliated with Kappa Kappa Gamma.

The bridal couple passed under crossed sabers and the officers who ushered and held aloft the steel arch were Lieut. D. C. Doubleday, Lieut. G. F. McGuire, Lieut. Albert Shepherd, Lieut. Norman Burnett, Lieut. Clarke Piper and Lieut. Joe Kelly.

Immediately following the ceremony there was a reception in the gardens at "The Timbers" where the young couple was assisted in receiving by their mothers, Mrs. Updelder and Mrs. Blanchard.

True to Military tradition, the lovely bride cut her wedding cake, which was in the shape of an army airplane, with her husband's gleaming saber.

Lieut. Blanchard and his bride left for their wedding trip. On their return they will live in the quarters which have been assigned to them on Selfridge Field, Mich.

Special Adult Season Tickets Will Be Sold For Football Games

Special adult season tickets good for all home high school football games will be sold by members of the boys' and girls' clubs of the high school.

Deerfield-Shields has a very good team this year and also plays a very excellent schedule of home games. Three league games will be played on the local field with only one game away from home:

Sept. 29, Libertyville (heavies) gate admission 25 cents.
Oct. 6, Oak Park (two games) the admissions is 35 cents.
Oct. 20, Proviso (two games) the admission is 35 cents.
Nov. 3, New Trier (two games) Homecoming, admission 35 cents
Adult season tickets, good for all home football games, will be sold to any alumnus or resident of the district for 75 cents. These tickets, unlike the student tickets are transferable and may be used by anyone. Later on adult tickets will be placed on sale at prominent stores in town. This special price has been made to give alumni and adults, many of whom would like to attend all games, a chance to see the complete schedule of home games at reduced rates. All league games are called at 12:30 p.m. Heavyweight games at 2:30. Seven games for 75 cents.

Creative Dramatics Class Begins Oct. 1

The YWCA is offering two terms in creative dramatics. The first term beginning Oct. 1 and 4, at 8:45 o'clock. Miss Katharine Imig of South Deere Park Drive, a graduate of the School of Speech, Northwestern University, will have charge of the group.

The course will consist of formal and informal dramatizations. The material used in the classes will be chosen from literature which will suit the individual's need and taste. Formal dramatization will be an outgrowth of class dramatization in a more complete form. Creative dramatics is an activity which gives opportunity for fullest when his creative imagination is given free play.

Registration will be at the YWCA the last week of the month. Those wishing to interview Miss Imig may do so between 3:30 and 5:30 during the week.

Harvest Home Dinner At Exmoor Saturday

The annual harvest home dinner will be held at the Exmoor Country Club Saturday evening, and to date more than 650 reservations have been made.
