Miss Rebecca Ann Mather-Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Frederic Mather-Smith, of Columbia, S. C., Oakland, Fla., and this city became the bride of Richard Fletcher Baldwin, III, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Baldwin, of Fall River, Mass., in a strikingly beautiful candle-light ceremony at St. Peter's Episcopal Church at 5:30 o'clock last Thursday afternoon. The Reverend Henry Bell Hodgkins performed the ceremony, which was preceded by a very beautiful musical program by Miss Camille Herndon, organist and the vested choir. The choir sang the processional as the attendants entered, but as Miss Mather-Smith entered from the outer cloister, on the arm of her father, who gave her in marriage, only the music of the organ was heard.

The bride's costume was a Lanvin model of heavy white satin with Second Empire influence, its long lines accentuating the stately beauty of the bride. The entire gown, with its long train, was edged with tiny pleatings of net which also finished the deep yoke of net, from which fell the gorgeous court train of Old Rose, pointe lace, once the prized possession of the Grand Duchess of Russia, and used at the coronation of the last Tsarina. This train was worn by the bride's sister, Mrs. James Allen Turner, when she became the Marquise de Bujac.

The long tulle bridal veil was held close to the head by a laurel wreath of seed pearls. The empire sandals were of the new strap type. The bride carried a bouquet of Lilies of the Valley and gardenias.

Attending the bride as matrons of honor were her sisters, Mrs. Richard S. Bull and Mrs. Turner of Winnetka. Miss Sarah Ann Ridley of Columbia was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Dudley Onderdonk, of this city, Miss Harriet Jones of Columbia, and Miss Evelyn Shapard and Miss Doris Laurence-Smith of Oakland, Fla. Little Jennifer de Bujac Turner and Jan-Ann Turner, nieces of the bride were flower girls.

The bride's attendants wore Vionnet gowns, those of the matrons and maid of honor being powdery blue with the accentuating waistline of sapphire blue velvet knotting in a bow in the back and ending in long sweeping double trains. The Medici shoulders were a striking innovation. The gowns of the bridesmaids were of antique rose with Burgandy velvet sashes. The hats of the attendants were tricorn models of velvet to match the sashes. One strap sandal was worn.

The lower girls were each a fluff of exquisite loveliness in white tulle de soire over Faille de France, with apple green velvet ribbons forming the trains. Sweetheart roses were strewn before the bride from the baskets which they carried.

Mrs. Mather-Smith wore a gown of Cerulean blue with jacket and velvet hat.

The mother of the groom was attired in a gown of Cathedral royal blue.

Walter F. Linberger of Montecito, Calif., served as best man. Groomsman and ushers were John W. Mailliard III of San Francisco, Perry A. Brayton, of Fall River; E. Cavleton Granbery, Jr., of Greenwich, Conn.; David Terry, Jr., of Little Rock, Ark.; Thomas P. Fletcher, Jr., of Little Rock; Winthrop Rockefeller of New York City; Walter M. Krementz, Jr., of Orange, N. J.; James Allen Turner of Winnetka and Francis J. Garvan of Long Island.

Immediately following the wedding ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Mather-Smith entertained with a dinner and reception at their home in Columbia after which dancing was enjoyed in a specially built pavillion on the lawn of the estate.

In a very simple ceremony at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel C. Confer of Minnetonka Beach, near Minneapolis, Minn., Miss Jane Confer became the bride of John Townsend Beatty, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ross J. Beatty of this city, Tuesday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock. The Rev. William H. Boddy of the Westminster Presbyterian Church of Minneapolis officiated.

Miss Miriam Confer, the bride's sister, and Miss Veronese Beatty, the bridegroom's sister, were Miss Confer's only attendants. Ross J. Beatty served his brother as best man, and Carl L. Nipper of St. Paul, Miss Miriam Confer's fiance, and Edwin B. Murphy of Minneapolis were ushers.

A small reception followed the ceremony. After a wedding trip in the east, Mr. and Mrs. Beatty will reside in Chicago.

At eight o'clock last evening in the St. Johns Evangelical Church, the marriage of Miss Alice Emilie Flint, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel W. Flint of N. Second Street, and Mr. Victor J. Theimer, son of Mrs. Adelaide Theimer of Chicago took place. The ceremony which was read by the Rev. F. Piepenbrok of Deerfield was most impressive, as it was conducted in the soft light of candles. The church was decorated in delphinium and marigolds.

The bride was most attractive in a gown of white satin, with a tulle veil fashioned in cap effect, and trimmed with orange blossoms which had been worn by the bride's grandmother at her wedding. She carried a shower bouquet of white roses and lilies of the valley.

Her aunt Mrs. Ruth Notz of Deerfield served as matron of honor while her sister Miss Grace Arlene Flint served as maid of honor. Mrs. Notz wore a gown of peach colored pebble crepe, while Grace Arlene wore blue pebble crepe. They carried tulle-ribbon bouquets.

Mr. Matthew Youngberg served his brother-in-law as best man and the ushers were Messrs. Jack Notz and George Scott.

A reception followed the ceremony at the home of the bride's parents on N. Second Street. The house was decorated in fall flowers, the bridal colors predominating.

Mr. and Mrs. Theimer left after the ceremony for a honeymoon trip south. Upon their return they will reside in Chicago.

News of the marriage of Miss Marion Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard S. Smith and Ralph Fletcher Seymour, Jr., came as a surprise to their many friends here when announcement cards were received from La Jolla, Calif., last week. The wedding took place in the Presbyterian Church of that town on September 12. Mr. and Mrs. Smith gave a gala wedding breakfast at the Casa de Manana hotel.

Mr. Seymour is the son of the Ralph Fletcher Seymours of Ravina who journeyed down to La Jolla for the wedding.

Miss Smith wore a black and white tunic dress, her going away costume, with gardenias, for the wedding ceremony, and her older sister, Miss Daniel G. Kirk of Glen-coe was her attendant.

Mr. and Mrs. Seymour have been honeymooning in Santa Barbara and are now motoring back to Ravina where they will reside.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Kalk of Beverly Place are the happy parents of a baby boy born at the Highland Park Hospital September 18.

Mr. Wolcott Prior and Miss Betsy Prior of Jacksonville Florida were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Percy Prior recently. Mr. Wolcott Prior is attending the North Western School of Music and Miss Betsy Prior is entering Kemper Hall, Kenosha.

Among the students registering at Cornell University is Roger S. Vail, Jr., of 217 Laurel Avenue.

Miss Ada Palm Sherwin, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. Louis W. Sherwin of 295 Prospect Avenue, Highland Park, returned to Allegheny College, Meadville, Pa., where she will complete her work for an A.B. degree. Miss Sherwin was among a small group of upperclassmen chosen to return to college before upperclass registration to assist in the enrollment and orientation of the entering freshman class of 210 students. President of the Associated Women Students of Allegheny College, chairman of the Activities Board, and a member of the Student Relations committee, Miss Sherwin is also a member of the Kappa Kappa Gamma sorority.

Miss Madeline Hawkins, of 325 Laurel Avenue has enrolled at Lawrence College, Appleton, Wis. Campbell Chapter Guild will meet tomorrow afternoon (Friday) at the home of Mrs. George Weis, 18 Oak Lane. Mrs. Minnie Strehlow will assist the hostess.

Among those who entertained recently for Miss Alice Flint whose marriage to Mr. Victor Theimer took place last evening were Mrs. M. Youngberg of Chicago who gave a miscellaneous shower last Wednesday evening; Miss Agnes Meierhoff who entertained at a miscellaneous shower on Thursday evening. On Friday evening a farewell party and shower was given by members of the St. John Evangelical Church Keystone society, choir and Sunday School Teachers.

Miss Joyce Slack represented the I.O.O.F. lodge last Saturday evening at Wilmette.

Mark Frederick Canmann has returned to Miami University, Oxford, Ohio, where he is entering his senior year. David Leo Canmann has returned to Carleton College at Northfield, Minn., for his junior year.

Mr. L. D. Smith has just returned from a vacation spent with relatives in Canada and Mrs. Smith has returned from Detroit where she vacationed with her mother, daughter and son.

Mr. Harold Zeiss and mother of Deerfield have taken rooms for a few weeks at the Moraine.
