

American Legion Is Host To The Eighth District On Sept. 28

Dumaresq Spencer Post 145 of the American Legion of Highland Park, was the host to the Eighth District Council of the American Legion on Friday evening, Sept. 28. The Eighth District embraces Lake County, and prominent Legionnaires from neighboring towns made the meeting very interesting.

Election of junior officers of the district was held, with the following results: Bruno Henderson, Waukegan, senior vice-commander; Louis Hoppe, Highland Park (Evans-Watkins Post), junior vice-commander; Charles W. Walker, Waukegan, (Baxter-Evans Post), sergeant-at-arms.

After the meeting refreshments were served. Attendance was about one hundred fifty.

The Dumaresq Spencer Post Drum and Bugle Corps, at their regular meeting, elected B. K. Martin commander. All ex-service men are invited to join the drum corps. It will be necessary for them to practice one night a week. A competent instructor has been engaged and will report for duty each Tuesday night beginning about Nov. 1.

Dumaresq Spencer Post announces that the annual Armistice ball will be held at Highland Park Woman's Club on Saturday night, Nov. 10.

A boxing show will be sponsored by the post on Friday evening, Nov. 2, at the Pearl Theatre. There will be seven excellent bouts. Wilson Richardson is chairman of the committee in charge of the boxing show.

Dumaresq Spencer Post took an active part in observing Constitution Week. Frank Burwell, representing the post, delivered an address at the Deerfield-Shields High School; Edwin L. Gilroy, in a similar capacity, delivered the address before Elm Place School. Henry Aiston and Art Montgomery are working on an interesting program for Americanism during the coming year.

The chairman of the membership committee, Vice-Commander James Thomson, announces that the 1935 membership drive officially starts at the first meeting, October 11. The aim of the committee and officers is to reach the 100% mark by Jan. 1. The post is awarding five valuable prizes to five members bringing in the greatest number of members. Prizes will be awarded at the time the post reaches the goal. Officers of the post are not eligible for prizes, hereby enabling the rank and file member to more easily receive one of the prizes. A gold star will be awarded to every five memberships brought in by each member. The stars makes a handsome ornament for the Legion cap.

The following men have already received their 1935 cards and will receive in the mail very shortly their special "Early Bird Cards": Guy P. Root, H. Chambers, W. Richardson, Harry Richman, H. B. Aiston, B. Carani, Max Muller, John Jones, Max Ekelman, L. McCaffery, Gus Norrien, George Prindle, Miller W. Schreiner, Patrick Holloway, E. H. Peter Naughton, E. C. Benson, Henry Mrazek, Paul Webb, Arthur H. Swanson, Dr. George Etnu, James A. Thompson, S. D. Shanafelt, A. Cantoni, Matt Maiman, Carl Helm, Michael Griffin, E. L. Gilroy, F. Barnett, Fred Kemper, Cliffe Ledderboge.

Catholic Woman's League to Open Its Club Year

On Oct. 9 at 2 p.m., at the Winnetka Woman's Club, the North Shore Catholic Woman's League will open the 1934 '35 club year.

The president, Mrs. Sidney Beech, will welcome the club members and the guests of honor, who are the members of the Evanston Catholic Womens Club and the Womens Catholic Club of Wilmette.

The program for the afternoon presents Miss Edna Means, a graduate of the American College of Oratory, Boston, Mass. Miss Means offers a new and original program which she calls "Lights and Shadows." A violin duo, Rubi Davis and Mrs. Evelyn Levin Davis, will follow.

Tea will be served with Mrs. Raymond G. Real, Mrs. Robert F. Doepel, Mrs. Martin J. Discoll and Mrs. Wm. P. Kelly as hostesses.

Otto Sossdorf Dies In Chicago Tuesday

Otto Sossdorf, formerly of Highland Park, died suddenly in Chicago Tuesday of this week at the age of 45. He is survived by his wife and daughter. Mrs. Sossdorf is a sister of Mrs. Ernest Moldaner, of Highland Park.

Funeral services will be held at the Kelley chapel on North Sheridan Road, at 2 o'clock Friday afternoon. The Rev. B. K. Roth, of Lake Forest, will officiate. Burial will be in Mooney's Cemetery.

Cincinnati Artist to Be Presented Oct. 15

At its first meeting of the season on Monday, Oct. 15, the North Shore Congregation Israel Sisterhood will present Antoinette Brody Marcus in recital. Mrs. Marcus is a mezzo soprano. In Cincinnati, where she is a member of the faculty of the College of Music, she has established a name as an art-song interpreter.

Mrs. Marcus has studied extensively both in America and Germany. She sings in Russian, French, German, and Italian with equal facility. Mrs. James I. Loeb will accompany Mrs. Marcus whose program will include Mozart, Handel, Debussy, and Brahms. This will be an open meeting and guests are welcome.

In addition, an interesting exhibit of the work done by the physically handicapped has been arranged for this meeting. The Janiel Shop of the Spalding School for Handicapped Children will exhibit children's dresses made by the girls of the institution, and the Victory Workshop will exhibit the work done by the adult hand of hearing at the Haven Public School.

The day's activities will start at 9 o'clock with sewing for the various hospitals in which the Sisterhood is interested. Luncheon will be at 12:30 to be followed by the business meeting and program at two o'clock.

Reservations for the luncheon which is especially intended as a welcome to new members may be made with Mrs. Harry N. Misch Glencoe 1271.

Former N.A.R. Club Meets Here Sept. 26

A meeting of the former N.A.R. Club was held at Haak's Auto Supply Store Sept. 26. Joe Farneti presided. The whole meeting was devoted to reading and discussing the new by-laws.

The club is organized to further the cause of aviation among the men and young men of the north shore. It is the aim of the club to make it easy for men to get training in flying. The club is now open to men of good character at a small fee.

Meetings will be held every first and third Tuesday at the Haak Auto Sales, 517 Laurel Avenue, Highland Park. The next meeting will be held Oct. 16 at which the second reading of by-laws will take place. All members are requested to be present.

Lectures on Current Events Will Be Given

Mrs. Roy O. Nereim will open her East Central Avenue home for a series of four current events lectures by Mrs. W. Irving Clock on Thursday mornings at 10:30 a.m., starting Nov. 1.

A delightful speaker with a charming personality as well as a thorough and comprehensive knowledge of current topics and books on the subject, Mrs. Clock is well known to club men and women of Chicago and the North Shore. She has been engaged for the second year for lecture courses at the Illinois Women's Athletic Club, to men at the Illinois Athletic Club and the Wilmette Women's Club.

Three countries—Russia, Germany and China—will be discussed, with the first lecture to include a general book review. Tickets are on sale by Girl Scout mothers, to benefit the Girl Scouts.
