D.A.R. Better Films Committee Review

Oct. 3, Thursday, "Of Human Bondage." The ruling of the Chicago Board of Censors makes this an "Adults only" picture. It is a morbid story of the reactions of a sensitive young medical student. (Leslie Howard) to the influence of an unprincipled waitress (Betty Davis). While the theme may be classed as unethical one must give credit to the director for his delicacy and restraint in developing the story and the unusual brilliance of acting. Adults.

Oct. 5-6, Friday, Saturday, "Embarrassing Moments." Cast: Chester Morris, Marian Nixon, Walter Woolf. Serious complications develop when a practical joker is given a dose of his own medicine. An entertaining story with some acceptable comedy. Family.

"Old Shep." A charming study of an old man and his faithful dog.

Chic Sale gives a moving performance.

Matinee Saturday only, "Burn'em Up Barne's" with Frankie Dano, fourth chapter of serial. Intensely interesting and filled with spine-tling excitement, built around a speed demon whose super-human skill in auto, airplane and motorcycle races enables him to foil the plans of villains who are attempting to lay hold of oil lands belonging to his partner. Clever development, excellent directing and good acting make this a real action drama well worth seeing. Family.

Oct. 7-8-9, Sunday, Monday, Tuesday, "Romance in the Rain," with Gloria Stuart and Roger Pryor. A colorful wholesome romance, marked throughout by fine acting and clever comedy values, which out-lines the hectic search for a modern Cinderella by the head of a Love Confessions magazine to promote its circulation. A fantastic and wholly amusing plot. Excellently directed and filled with entertainment value. Family.

Oct. 10-11, Wednesday, Thursday, "Paris Interlude," with Bette Davis, Geo. Brent, Ann Dvorak, La Boheme Vie with a modern group of young writers as dramatic personae in a Paris much too wet to support human life, at any rate for very long. Excellent settings, fine photography and lighting and very good acting in a rather far fetched tale of love and sacrifice, "Unsound Ethics." Adults.

Deerfield Woman's Club Musical Oct. 9

The first meeting for this season of the Deerfield Woman's Club will be held Tuesday afternoon, Oct. 9, at 2:30 o'clock at the Deerfield Presbyterian Church. It will be a musical with a double piano recital and is open to the public. Mrs. Robert L. Johnson, the president, extends an invitation to women of this community.

All higher motives, ideals, conceptions, sentiments in a man are of no account if they do not come forward to strengthen him for the better discharge of the duties which devolve upon him in the ordinary affairs of life.—Henry Ward Beecher.

Public Book Reviews at Library, Mondays

The first of a series of six public book review discussions to be held in the assembly room of the Highland Park Public Library on consecutive Monday nights, will be held next Monday evening, Oct. 8, at 8 o'clock.

will review outstanding books on each subject.

Eitel, to discuss "The Coming American Boom," by Angus; and N. R. Levin, to review "The Coming American Revolution," by Soule.

remember the PAINFUL PHOTOGRAPHY of the good old days?

those days are gone forever

AND IT'S JUST AS FOOLISH TO DO YOUR WASHING AT HOME

Look! There's Uncle Gus and Aunt Lena. Don't they look foolish, stiff, unnatural? And well they might, for having a picture taken in the "good old days" was a major operation. Uncle Gus and Aunt Lena were braced and shackled while Mr. Lens, the photographer, had the "jitters" getting everything set. Ah... "now watch the birdie!" Today things are different. Old fashioned methods seem foolish because there are simpler, saner, better methods. Yet many housewives cling to the most old fashioned of old fashioned things. Home washing! To sensible women who have learned the benefits of patronizing North Shore Quality Laundries, home washing has joined the limbo of painful photography. Not only is the back-breaking, mind-tiring labor eliminated, but they have found modern laundry work better, more satisfactory and economical. BE MODERN! Send your next week's bundle to the member in your community. A phone call will bring a courteous routeman.
