

Annual Pet Show at Elm Place Delights
800 Local Children

The annual pet show by the children of the Green Bay Road and Elm Place Schools was held Friday afternoon, Oct. 5.

The north playground of Elm Place School was literally covered with pets of every description. Mingled with the bass voices of the St. Bernards and Great Danes could be heard the sopranos of the Scotties and the untrained voices of just plain dogs.

Sometimes the crow of a rooster, the mew of cats, the language of a parrot, the song of a canary, the scamper of mice and rabbits, the snap of a turtle, or the splash of the goldfish could be heard.

These noises mingled with the happy laughter of 800 children and many parents and teachers made one realize what a happy occasion this was for the children of Highland Park.

The best count that could be obtained indicated that there were approximately 300 exhibitors. Pets exhibited included more than 100 dogs, 35 or 40 cats, many birds, rabbits, guinea pigs, white rats, chickens, ducks, fish, turtles, bees, caterpillars etc.

Mrs. Martha Harrison
Dies in Ravinia Oct. 4

Mrs. Martha Harrison passed away Oct. 4, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Letitia Ann Thompson, 1832 Burton Avenue, Ravinia.

Mrs. Harrison was born Oct. 17, 1849 and would have been 85 years of age this month. She was the daughter of William Greacen and Ann Jane Mitchell of Castleblaney, Ireland. She was married to Thomas Harrison and lived in County Monahan where their only child was born, then they moved to Omagh, County Tyrone, until their daughter was seven years of age. Mr. Harrison died in 1872.

Mrs. Harrison came to America with her daughter's family in 1907. She is survived by her daughter, Mrs. Thompson, three grand children Irwin W. Thompson a teacher in the Columbia High School in South Orange, New Jersey, Miss Mary Harrison Thompson, instructor in physical training in Deerfield-Shields High School, and Miss Eileen Barbour Thompson, a teacher in Evanston.

Funeral services were conducted by Dr. L. W. Sherwin, minister of the Highland Park Presbyterian Church on Oct. 6 in the chapel on Sheridan Road, and at the cemetery, Mount Hope where the burial took place.

Mrs. W. Irving Clock to Talk Here Nov. 1

A large group of Highland Parkers who have taken tickets for Mrs. W. Irving Clock's current topics course are looking forward to Thursday, Nov. 1. At 10:30 that morning the first of the series of four lectures will be given at the home of Mrs. Roy O. Nereim.

Especially eager for the course are those who have already heard Mrs. Clock at the Illinois Athletic Club or at the Illinois Woman's Athletic Club.

"Rarely have I heard such a clear and dramatic summing up of the world's events of the day," said one prominent club woman of Mrs. Clock.

Only 15c tickets will be sold for the course. A number of Girl Scout mothers are being organized as a sales force. Those who are already actively taking part are Mrs. Jesse R. Jones, phone H. P. 2165, Mrs. Ernest Loeb, H. P. 1625, Mrs. Godfrey J. Eyer, H. P. 1894, Mrs. Robert E. Rosenthal, H. P. 1314, and Mrs. Charles A. Wright, H. P. 1532.
