

Candidate Ralph E. Church Is Offering a Definite Program

A refreshing keynote of cheer and optimism has been sounded by Ralph E. Church, the Republican candidate, in his interesting campaign for election as representative in Congress from the Tenth District on Nov. 6. Instead of standing idly by and deploring the present economic and political confusion, this Republican leader offers the voters a definitely constructive program.

After a careful study of conditions both in his district and throughout the nation, Mr. Church is firmly convinced that economic conditions are basically sound, and that the people now have the power in their own hands to open the way immediately for the return of normal business conditions. The United States has all the necessary material and adequate tools with which to promote complete recovery.

The country is held in its present state of suspended animation by fear and uncertainty. Remove this fear and clear up the uncertainty by sane and sound methods, and the nation will start promptly on its way to a rightful place at the head of the world's economic and industrial procession, declares the popular Republican Congressional candidate.

"During my sixteen years of legislative experience I have studied intensively the economic, social, and political conditions of the United States in general and of my district in particular," said Mr. Church in a recent talk. "As a result of my study I am firmly convinced that the following program will start us on the highway to recovery.

"When elected to Congress, I will do everything within my power to cherish and to perpetuate the sound fundamentals of American government:

- "To safeguard the individual rights and liberties of every man, woman, and child in the United States;
- "To urge that Congress immediately resume all of its legal duties and powers as our representative law-making body;
- "To balance the budget;
- "To eliminate all unnecessary government activities and expense;
- "To lower taxes;
- "To protect the value of the American dollar against all possibility of selfish political manipulation;
- "To maintain sound national credit;
- "To promote private business enterprise;
- "To encourage individual initiative in every walk of life;
- "To eliminate graft and waste in government;
- "To insure that every dollar appropriated for necessary relief be spent for the needy;
- "To support every sane and sound measure to speed the return of normal economic conditions and to relieve unemployment.

"I will at all times give independent and constructive public service, and I will use my sixteen years of legislative experience for the good of the people of the Tenth District."

Memorial Service Held For Jesse Lowe Smith

A beautiful memorial service for the late Jesse Lowe Smith was held at the Dunes State Park, north of Waukegan, last Sunday by Friends of Our Native Landscape.

This event was the annual pilgrimage to the Fallen Leaf, in commemoration of the work of Mr. Smith, a former member. He served on the board of that organization for many years.

Jim's Circus Team Wins and Loses Last Sunday

Jim's Circus team of Deerfield finished its 1934 home schedule by breaking even with the Chicago Roamers, 6-1, and 3-1, the second game being stopped by darkness with the Clowns ahead.

In the "nightcap," T. Duffy struck out 10 Roamers, and allowed one run in the third on three walks, and a fielder's choice. Deerfield scored one in the first on Jim McDermott's walk, and Duffy's triple scored one in the second.

NRA to Be Discussed in Glencoe on Nov. 6

John T. Flynn, editor and author, and Professor Paul H. Douglas, economist, of the University of Chicago, will discuss the question, "Is the NRA accomplishing its objectives?" at the opening lecture of the 1934-35 series annually conducted by the North Shore Congregation Israel in the Temple building, Lincoln and Vernon Avenues, Glencoe, on Nov. 6.

Mr. Flynn emerged into prominence as a result of the depression. Preceding the crash of 1929 he wrote in numerous journals descriptions of the forces moving us toward collapse, and the astounding fulfillment of his predictions has brought his opinions into great importance in all discussions of our current economic problems.

Professor Douglas will argue the question from his viewpoint. He ranks among the leading economists of the United States and as a member of the Consumers Advisory Board of the National Recovery Administration his arguments will lend weight to the discussion which promises to be both stimulating and clarifying.

Deerfield Auxiliary to Make Layettes

The regular monthly meeting of the Deerfield American Legion Auxiliary unit No. 738, was held at the home of Mrs. Carl Scheer on Monday evening Oct. 15.

Our new president Mrs. Gladys Jacobs presided. Committee chairmen were appointed as follows: Rehabilitation, Mrs. Ralph Dunham; social, Mrs. Agnes Clavey; Americanism, Mrs. C. C. Kapschull; Child Welfare, Mrs. Erna Haggie; community service, Mrs. Mary Welch; ways and means, Mrs. Philip Scully Jr.; music, Mrs. Harry Mau; Fidae, Mrs. Whitcomb; junior activities, Mrs. Wm. Tennemann; legislative, Mrs. Ruth Hunt; national defense, Mrs. John Farmer; finance, Mrs. Ed. Jacobsen; and publicity Mrs. W. A. Cruickshank.

The first of a series of unit card parties was held at the home of Mrs. Philip Scully Jr. on Saturday evening Oct. 13. The next will be held at the home of Mrs. LeRoy Meyers in the near future.

The collection of jelly to be given to Dorcas Home is well underway. Our unit has pledged 100 glasses of jelly for this purpose.

The unit voted to contribute in any way toward the observance of Armistice day in our local schools. Mrs. C. C. Kapschull our Americanism chairman will have charge.

Because of the growing need for baby layettes in our community, we find that enough second hand articles are not forthcoming. The unit voted to purchase a fifty yard bolt of flannel to be used in making new articles. Baby blankets and many other articles are urgently needed and the Auxiliary will solicit the help of other community spirited organizations in this much needed project. We have distributed five layettes to date.

Our cigarette pledge to the U. S. V. B. Hospital No. 105 was briefly discussed. It was the wish of the unit to ask if our Legion post will again share with us in this project. The meeting was closed and delicious refreshments served by the hostess, Mrs. Scheer.

Cast For Ravinia Players Production Has Been Selected

The cast for the first three-act play of the Ravinia Players' season was announced late Tuesday evening by Miss Ruth Card, director of the show, after a week of tryouts. The tryouts were started last week at the Highland Park Public Library and brought out strong competition for all the roles.

"The Breadwinner" by W. Somerset Maugham is an English comedy of a man who tires of working hard for an unappreciative family and decides to quit it all and get something out of life for himself. His plan is further complicated by the sweet young thing who imagines that his love for her is the real motive for his peculiar actions.

William Steiglitz, who has appeared in many roles with the Players, has been cast as Charles Battle, "The Breadwinner." Enid Phillips, star of many Ravinia Player productions, will be Margery, his wife. His children, Judy, Laura Browning, and Patrick, George Lake, have also played leading roles with the group.

Alfred Granger, a rollicking sort of fat old wisecracking "chappie," will be portrayed by Bob Arnold, the "Mr. Pim" of last season's farce, "Mr. Pim Passes." His wife and children will be played by three newcomers to Ravinia Player casts: Jacqueline Keaster, a graduate of Northwestern School of Speech as Dorothy, his wife; Mary Turritt, who played in several shows at the Deerfield-Shields High School and in charity shows in Highland Park, as Diana Granger, his daughter; and Walter Watson, who starred at the high school and Dartmouth College, as Timothy.

Season tickets for the four three-act plays to be presented by the Ravinia Players, or single admission tickets for "The Breadwinner" can be obtained from any member of the Players or by calling Highland Park 1364, 114 or 1752.

CARD OF THANKS
